EN MEMORIAM ADELE HARRIS

Adele Harris, a 26-year Cardinals employee and the first minority female executive in the National Football League passed away on Friday, November 16, 2007 in Gilbert, AZ. She was 65 years old.

Originally from Chicago, Harris was raised in St. Louis and joined the Cardinals in 1971 as an assistant in the public relations department. She left the club in 1974 to pursue a college education, then returned in 1978 with a degree in business management and served as the team's Director of Community Relations from 1980 until her retirement in 2001.

One of the crowning achievements of her career was her work with the Arizona NFL Youth Education Town (YET) Center, opened in South Phoenix in 1998. There are now 15 YET Centers in 12 cities: Atlanta, Detroit, Fort Lauderdale, Honolulu, Houston (2), Jacksonville, Los Angeles, Miami, New Orleans, Phoenix, San Diego (2) and Tampa (2). The Center operates as an educational and recreational facility the NFL has established in Super Bowl host cities to positively enhance opportunities for at-risk children. Harris' selfless work with the Arizona YET Center culminated with the playing field being named in her honor.

"Adele was an integral part of the Cardinals organization for over a quarter of a century and was so much more than simply an employee," said Cardinals owner Bill Bidwill. "She truly treated everyone - particularly our players - like they were her own family and if ever the term 'people person' fit someone, it was Adele. We are all saddened by the news of her passing but know that her memory lives on through the countless individuals whose lives she has enriched."

WILLIAM V. BIDWILL

COLLEGE: Georgetown

OWNER

William V. Bidwill's association with the Cardinals began as a child ball boy on Chicago's South Side and continues today as owner.

A native of Chicago, Bill Bidwill presides over the oldest continuously-operated professional football franchise. Founded in 1898, the Cardinals join the Chicago Bears as the only two remaining charter members of the National Football League (1920).

The Cardinals have remained in the Bidwill family since Bill's father, Charles, a prominent Chicago sports figure and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, purchased the team in 1932. Charles ran the club until his death in the Cardinals' NFL championship year of 1947. Charles' wife, Violet, then guided the franchise's fortunes for the next 15 years, followed jointly by sons Bill and Charles, Jr. (Stormy). Bill became sole owner in 1972.

Named a Cardinal vice president during his undergraduate days at Georgetown University, Bill Bidwill returned to Chicago from the Navy in 1956 to begin assisting family interests that included football. When the Cardinals moved to St. Louis in 1960, Bidwill returned to the organization on a full-time basis.

The 77-year-old Bidwill remains involved in all areas of the Cardinals' day-to-day operation. He operates the organization in south Tempe, Arizona from its award-winning training facility the team has called home since construction was completed in September, 1990. In August of 2006, the team opened the state-of-the-art University of Phoenix Stadium, which gave the 100+ year old franchise its first true home.

Arizona hosted its second Super Bowl when the game was played at University of Phoenix Stadium in February of 2008. Bidwill was also credited with his leading role in bringing Super Bowl XXX to Arizona on January of 1996.

An active supporter of various civic and charitable organizations and endeavors, Bidwill directed the formation of Cardinals Charities, the team's organization dedicated to supporting worthy Arizona causes, shortly after the Cardinals arrived in the state.

Bidwill is co-chair of the Board of Trustees for the Bert Bell/Pete Rozelle Player Benefit Plan. In August of 2007 he was named to the Board of Trustees for the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the governing body of the Canton-based organization.

Bidwill and his wife, Nancy, are the parents of five children and have nine grandchildren.

MICHAEL BIDWILL

COLLEGE: St. Louis University

HOMETOWN: St. Louis, MO

CARDINAL SEASON: 13th

PRESIDENT

After practicing law for six years as a federal prosecutor, Michael Bidwill joined the organization in 1996 as the team's Vice President/General Counsel and today serves as President.

In that time, he has not only taken on an ever-increasing role in guiding the Cardinals but in the National Football League and the greater Phoenix business community as well. In 2007, NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell appointed Michael to the league's Business Ventures Committee, one of the NFL's most prominent. In September of 2008, he takes over as Chair of the influential Greater Phoenix Economic Council (GPEC). He is also a member of Greater Phoenix Leadership (GPL), an organization composed of the region's top business and civic leaders.

Michael is also a member of the NFL Security Advisory Group, a committee of eight club executives that oversees and develops best security practices for NFL facilities. He additionally serves on Arizona's Super Bowl Host Committee which successfully staged Super Bowl XLII at University of Phoenix Stadium last February and will seek to bring the game back to the state.

Among his most prominent roles with the Cardinals has been the development of University of Phoenix Stadium, a project that he spearheaded from its inception through its August 2006 opening and which continues today. The venue has received worldwide acclaim for its distinctive architecture and cutting-edge design. Even before it opened, it was selected by BusinessWeek as one of the 10 most impressive sports facilities in the world and it has been named the NFL's top facility each of the last two years by a SportsBusiness Journal readers survey.

Strong community involvement has been a hallmark of Bidwill's tenure with the Cardinals and a particular emphasis has been placed the value of youth sports. That awareness was recognized in 2005 when the Cardinals were selected as the NFC recipient of the "2005 Pop Warner NFL Team of the Year" for their commitment to the development of youth football in the Arizona area. Two years earlier, that same organization presented Michael with the Glenn S. "Pop" Warner Award, presented annually by the national youth football organization to an individual who has achieved excellence in athletics, scholarship, and life's endeavors with integrity and humanity.

A licensed pilot and flying enthusiast, Bidwill also donates his time and resources as a volunteer for "Flying Samaritans," a group of volunteers including doctors and other medical personnel who offer free medical clinics in Mexico.

From 1990-96, Bidwill was a federal prosecutor in Phoenix where he specialized in homicide and other violent crime cases. He also directed three task forces, including the FBI's gang task force on the Navajo Indian Reservation in northeast Arizona.

Bidwill earned a bachelor of science degree in finance from St. Louis University in 1987 and in 1990 earned a law degree from Catholic University in Washington, D.C.

ROD GRAVES

COLLEGE: Texas Tech
HOMETOWN: Houston, TX
CARDINAL SEASON: 12th
NFL SEASON: 25th

GENERAL MANAGER

Rod Graves begins his 12th season with the Cardinals and his 25th season in the National Football League. He joined the Cardinals in June of 1997 as Assistant to the President. Graves was promoted to the position of Vice President of Football Operations following the 2002 season and the 2008 campaign will be his second as the team's General Manager.

Graves, 49, is responsible for all facets of the Cardinals' football operations. He has provided leadership in hiring, planning, budgeting, player acquisitions, negotiations, and scouting. Graves has represented the Cardinals on a number of NFL committees and currently serves on the board of directors of National Football Scouting, Inc. and National Invitational Camp, Inc. (Indy Combine).

In June of '08, Graves was named to the NFL's new General Managers Advisory Committee. The 11-member group provides advice and other feedback to the league's Football Operations Department.

Consistent with the Cardinals efforts to become champions in the community, Rod and his wife Dreama, devote their time and resources to supporting Cardinals Charities, The United Way, and The American Diabetes Association.

A native of Houston, TX, Rod began his career in professional football in 1982 as a regional scout for the Philadelphia Stars of the United States Football League. He joined the National Football League in 1984 as a regional scout for the Chicago Bears, a position he held until promoted to director of college scouting in 1993. He was promoted in 1994 to director of player personnel.

Rod is a graduate of Texas Tech University. He is also the son of the late Jackie Graves, former player personnel executive of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Rod and Dreama reside in Phoenix with their three children: daughters, Brittany & Taylor, and son, Joshua.

KEN WHISENHUNT

HOMETOWN: Atlanta, GA

DOB: February 28, 1962

HEAD COACH

NOTE CARDS

- Became an NFL head coach for the first time when hired by Arizona on January 14, 2007; he came to the Cardinals with 10 years of experience as an NFL assistant coach and also played nine seasons in the league as a tight end/H-Back.
- The Cardinals posted an 8-8 mark in year one under Whisenhunt, the team's best record since going 9-7 in 1998.
- Arizona's three-win improvement in '07 was the largest of any of the NFL's five teams with first-year head coaches.
- The Cardinals also went 6-2 at home for their best home mark since going 6-1 in 1976; they set a franchise record for passing TDs in a season (32) and their point total of 404 was the second-highest in team history.
- In 2007, Arizona played an NFL-high 12 games decided by eight points or fewer (6-6) and six decided by a FG or less (3-3).
- Before coming to AZ, Whisenhunt spent the previous six seasons with the Steelers. For the first three he was tight ends coach and then was offensive coordinator for three, helping the team earn a victory in Super Bowl XL.
- Previously coached at the pro level with the Jets (2000), Browns (1999) and Ravens (1997-98); began his coaching career in the collegiate ranks with Vanderbilt (1995-96).
- Was selected in the 12th round of the 1985 NFL Draft by Atlanta; went on to play nine NFL seasons with the Falcons (1985-88), Redskins (1989-90), and Jets (1991-93).
- Entered Georgia Tech as a walk-on and finished career ranked second on the school's all-time receiving yardage list and fourth in career receptions; earned degree in civil engineering.

Ken Whisenhunt was named Arizona's head coach on January 14, 2007 when he signed a four-year contract with a team option for a fifth.

In his first year, he led Arizona to its best record in 10 years (8-8) and the team recorded a 6-2 mark at home, its best since 1976. Year one had its share of excitement and last-second finishes.

Seven of the season's first eight games were decided by seven points or fewer and in all, the Cardinals played an NFL-leading 12 games decided by eight or fewer (six by a field goal or less).

In 2007, the Cardinals set a franchise record for passing TDs (32) and recorded the second-highest season point total in team history with 404 (423 in 1984). Arizona's 94.0 scoring percentage inside the red zone was #2 in the NFL (New England 94.4%).

The team scored 20+ points in 12 games (including the last eight in a row) and 30+ points in six contests.

Whisenhunt came to the Cardinals with 10 years of experience as an NFL assistant coach and also played nine seasons in the league as a tight end and H-Back. He spent the last three seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Pittsburgh Steelers and helped the team to a victory in Super Bowl XL.

Coaching Career:

Before coming to Arizona, Whisenhunt served six seasons as an assistant on Bill Cowher's staff with the Steelers, the first three as tight ends coach and the last three as offensive coordinator.

In his first year as coordinator, the Steelers rushing attack improved from 31st to 2nd and the overall offense ranked 16th behind rookie QB Ben Roethlisberger. His second year ended with an NFL title after the Steelers offense averaged 26.8 points per game in the playoffs. Pittsburgh's 2006 offense ranked 7th overall (9th passing and 10th rushing).

Whisenhunt took over as Pittsburgh's offensive coordinator in 2004 when Mike Mularkey became head coach of the Buffalo Bills. That was the same year the team drafted Roethlisberger and the rookie QB went on to set an NFL record with wins in his first 13 career starts en route to Offensive Rookie of the Year honors. The next season he became the youngest QB in NFL history to win a Super Bowl and finished third in the league in passer rating (98.6).

Whisenhunt joined the Steelers in January of 2001 as tight ends coach when Mularkey was elevated from that position to offensive coordinator. He previously coached at the pro level with the New York Jets (tight ends, 2000), Cleveland Browns (special teams, 1999) and Baltimore Ravens (tight ends, 1997-98). He began his coaching career in the collegiate ranks with Vanderbilt for two seasons (1995-96).

Playing Career:

Whisenhunt was drafted in the 12th round of the 1985 NFL Draft by Atlanta out of Georgia Tech. He went on to play nine NFL seasons with the Falcons (1985-88), Redskins (1989-90), and Jets (1991-93). In 74 career games (37 starts), he caught 62 passes for 601 yards and six touchdowns.

After going to Georgia Tech as a walk-on, he finished his college playing career ranked second on the Yellow Jackets' receiving yardage list (1,264 yards) and fourth in career receptions (82). He was a consensus All-ACC and honorable mention All-America selection as a senior in 1984 when he averaged 19.1 yards-per-catch.

Personal:

Born February 28, 1962 in Atlanta, GA, Whisenhunt was raised in Augusta and is a graduate of Richmond Academy. He earned a degree in civil engineering from Georgia Tech. Ken and his wife, Alice, have two children - son, Kenneth, Jr. (17) and daughter Mary Ashley (15).

LINKS TO SUCCESS

Few places are so singularly known for one thing as Ken Whisenhunt's hometown of Augusta, GA is with the sport of golf.

Growing up in Augusta and not liking golf would be like living in Nashville and not liking country music or Philadelphia and not liking cheesesteaks.

"Golf is such an important part of the city's culture," says Whisenhunt, who was born in Atlanta but raised in the city that is home to the Augusta National Golf Club and the Masters.

Like many Augusta residents, Whisenhunt worked the tournament as a teenager. "I worked on the scoreboard. It was one of those with the panels that you would have to pull down, push in the square and then push it back up and in. You always got excited when you put up those birdies and wait for the crowd to react."

An avid golfer, he's also had the opportunity to play the course on several occasions and last April attended the Masters for the first time in 15 years. Two weeks later, he had the chance to play the course and shot an even par 72. That round included an eagle on the par 4 11th hole, the first of the three holes that make up the course's famed "Amen Corner."

After concluding his nine-year NFL Playing career in 1993, Whisenhunt took a year off and played a lot of golf. In fact, that year he played in the 1994 U.S. Mid-Amateur at Hazeltine. Says Whisenhunt, "I shot a big number the first day, a better number the second, and I didn't make it to match play."

Not long after that, he left the links and embarked upon his coaching career, a profession that doesn't provide much time or opportunity for golf.

His career-best score is a 65 and he has made two holes in one over the years. (That doesn't include another tee shot on a par three that found the bottom of the cup but since it came after his first ball went out of play, he recorded a three on the hole).

In comparing golf and football, Whisenhunt says, "The one thing that's very similar is consistency. If you have a consistent swing and other aspects of your golf game, you're going to score well. And in football a lot of your success is tied to your approach. If you know what you want to do and consistently prepare and execute, you'll have success."

THROWN INTO THE FIRE

No matter what challenges lay ahead for Ken Whisenhunt in his career as an NFL head coach, none could be as daunting as what he faced in his collegiate playing debut.

On November 8, 1980, Whisenhunt was a true freshman, walk-on wide receiver/defensive back on a 1-7 Georgia Tech team that hosted undefeated and #1 ranked Notre Dame. "I don't know how many Division I-A teams there were in the country," Georgia Tech head coach Bill Curry later said, "But if there were 110, we were #110."

On the game's second drive, Yellow Jackets starting QB Mike Kelley was forced from the game. Unbeknownst to Whisenhunt, the back-up QB was also not available, leaving Georgia Tech with very few options at QB. The one Curry went with was the 18-year-old from Augusta (listed in the game program as a 6-3, 190-pound receiver) who had played some high school QB but had never taken a college snap at any position.

With 5:16 to play in the first quarter of a scoreless game, Whisenhunt was not only forced to take over against the nation's #1 team but after an Irish punt, his first college snap would come from his own 5-yard line.

After Tech ran three times and failed to produce a first down on his first series, senior guard Ben Utt gave Whisenhunt a small piece of advice: "You're going to have to speak up in the huddle, we can't hear you."

Whisenhunt also remembers his first pass clearly. "It was a little roll-out to the left and I let it go," he said. "It was a beautiful spiral. The only problem was it landed five rows deep in the bleachers."

Whisenhunt eventually settled down, though he didn't get the chance to put up gaudy passing numbers. He completed three of his five pass attempts for 29 yards, the bulk of which came on a 23-yarder to fellow freshman Jeff Keisler that set up a Georgia Tech field goal in the second quarter.

Hampering his statistical performance may have been the fact that he played through a stress fracture in his leg that went unnoticed until after the game.

Notre Dame kicked a game-tying field goal with a little over four minutes to play denied Tech the upset win but they did hold on for the surprising 3-3 tie.

Whisenhunt's leg injury kept him from playing any more that season and while he did see a little time at QB the following year, he eventually migrated full-time to the tight end/H-back position that he played for nine years in the NFL.

Still, the lessons from that 3-3 tie against the nation's #1 team stay with Whisenhunt to this day.

"It taught me from a team perspective that if you play together, you can compete with anyone," he said. "From a personal perspective, it taught me to never give up on what you believe and if you surround yourself with the right people, you can succeed."

NOTE CARDS

- Joined the Cardinals on 1/23/07 when he became the team's assistant head coach/offensive line.
- In 2007, Arizona's offensive line ranked sixth in the NFL by allowing only 24 sacks, the lowest total for the team since 1978 (22).
- Was among 17 finalists for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2008, was one of 17 finalists for induction in 2007, and one of 10 finalists in 2006.
- Spent 20 seasons with the Washington Redskins, the first 11 as an all-pro lineman (1981-91) and then as an assistant coach for nine seasons (1992-2000)
- In his career, his teams have earned four Super Bowl victories. Three as a player (XVII, XXII and XXVI) and one as a coach (XL).
- Earned four consecutive Pro Bowl selections (1983-86) and was a first-team selection to the NFL's 1980's all-decade team.

Russ Grimm begins his second season with the Cardinals as the assistant head coach/offensive line after joining the team on 1/23/07. Previously with the Pittsburgh Steelers in the same capacity, Grimm is beginning his 17th season as an NFL assistant after playing 11 years at guard for the Washington Redskins.

Grimm, 49, spent the prior six seasons with the Steelers coaching with current Cardinals head coach Ken Whisenhunt before coming to Arizona. He joined the Steelers staff in 2001 as only the second offensive line coach in Bill Cowher's tenure and made an instant impact in developing Pittsburgh's offensive line. Grimm's value to the coaching staff was recognized by Cowher, who promoted Grimm to assistant head coach prior to the 2004 season, the only coach to hold that title under Cowher.

In his 27 years in the NFL, Grimm had previously only been associated with two teams prior to his appointment in Arizona. He spent 20 years as a player and a coach with the Washington Redskins before joining the Steelers in 2001.

Grimm made an immediate impact in his first season with Arizona. His offensive line allowed only 24 sacks in 2007, 6th best in the NFL and the fewest given up by the Cardinals since 1978 (22). Grimm's offensive line also paved the way for running back Edgerrin James to rush for 1,222 yards, the fifth best total in team history. The Cardinals offense finished with the 5th best passing attack in the NFL and threw for a team record 32 touchdowns.

The 2006 Steelers offensive line helped pave the way for running back Willie Parker to gain 1,494 yards and 13 touchdowns on 337 carries (4.4 yard avg.) and earn his first Pro Bowl selection. Pittsburgh's offense finished the 2006 season with the 10th best rushing attack in the NFL, helping to give the Steelers the 7th ranked total offense in the league. Parker finished the season with the second and third top rushing performances of the year in the NFL with 223 rushing yards (32 att., TD) against Cleveland (12/7) and 213 yards (22 att., 2 TDs) vs. New Orleans (11/12).

Under Grimm's guidance in 2005, the Super Bowl champion Steelers averaged nearly 140 yards rushing per game during the regular season to rank fifth in the NFL while also grinding out 181 rushing yards in their Super Bowl XL victory over the Seattle Seahawks.

While in Pittsburgh, Grimm molded a formidable and tough offensive front anchored by All-Pro guard Alan Faneca, who earned his sixth trip to the Pro Bowl and his fifth consecutive start in 2007, and center Jeff Hartings, who made his second Pro Bowl appearance in 2006 and developed into one of the best centers in the NFL in just six seasons.

A native of Scottdale, PA, Grimm began his NFL coaching career as Washington's tight ends coach (1992-96) before moving to coach the Redskins offensive line for four seasons (1997-2000). He is credited with the development of Washington tackles Jon Jansen and five-time Pro Bowler Chris Samuels, who each earned starting spots as rookies on the Redskins' offensive line.

Grimm started 11 seasons at guard for the Redskins (1981-91) and helped lead the team to four Super Bowl appearances and three victories. He was voted to four consecutive Pro Bowls (1983-86), was a first-team selection to the 1980s all-decade team, and an original member of Washington's renowned "Hogs" offensive line. During his playing days with the Redskins, Grimm was a teammate of Whisenhunt (1989-90) and quarterbacks coach Jeff Rutledge (1990-91).

He was among the 17 finalists for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2008, the 17 finalists for induction into the hall in 2007 and the 10 finalists in 2006.

An All-American center at Pitt who helped his team to a 22-2 record over his junior and senior seasons, Grimm was selected by the Redskins in the third round (69th overall) of the 1981 NFL Draft. His younger brother, Donn, was a starting linebacker on Notre Dame's 1988 national championship team and signed with the Cardinals as a rookie free agent in 1991.

As a prep, Grimm punted, played quarterback and linebacker at Southmoreland High School while earning nine varsity letters and starring on the basketball team.

Grimm was inducted into the Western Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. He has four children, Chad, Cody, and fraternal twins Devin and Dylan.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

NOTE CARDS

- Joined the Cardinals on 1/25/07 when he became the team's offensive coordinator.
- Started his coaching career in 1997 as an offensive assistant under Bill Parcells with the New York Jets.
- In first season as coordinator, the Cardinals offense finished 5th in NFL in passing (4,065 passing yards) while also setting a franchise record with 32 passing touchdowns.
- The Cardinals offense finished the season with a 94.0 scoring percentage inside the redzone in 2007, good for 2nd in the NFL (New England, 94.4%).
- As passing game coordinator for Dallas in 2006, the Cowboys offense ranked 5th in the NFL in passing and 4th in passing net yards per play.
- Helped guide Chicago wide receiver Marty Booker to a Pro Bowl appearance in 2002, the first Bears Pro Bowl selection at wide receiver since 1971.
- Son of Dick Haley, the former Director of Player Personnel for the Pittsburgh Steelers (1971-90) and New York Jets (1991-2002) and now a player personnel analyst with the Miami Dolphins.

A coaching veteran of 11 NFL seasons, Todd Haley joined the Cardinals as offensive coordinator after being hired on 1/25/07. Previously the Dallas Cowboys wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator for three seasons (2004-06), Haley was reunited with Cardinals head coach Ken Whisenhunt with whom he worked on the staff of the New York Jets in 2000.

In Haley's first season as a coordinator, the Cardinals finished with the 5th ranked passing offense in the NFL and also set a franchise record with 32 passing touchdowns. Arizona scored 404 points on the season, the second highest total in franchise history (423, 1984) and also scored 20+ points in each of the final eight games of the season, the longest streak since 1983-84. Wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald was selected to his second Pro Bowl with an NFC leading 100 receptions and 1,409 yards, quarterback Kurt Warner threw for 27 TD passes, one short of the team record, and running back Edgerrin James rushed for 1,222 yards, the fifth-highest total in team history.

The Cardinals also finished 2nd in the NFL with a 94% scoring percentage inside the redzone (New England, 94.4%).

Haley helped lead the Dallas passing attack in 2006 that finished 5th in the NFL in yardage and 4th in the league in passing net yards per play while featuring a first-time starting quarterback in Pro Bowl selection Tony Romo. Haley's passing attack helped the Cowboys finish 2nd in the NFL in third down efficiency (Colts) and 4th in points per game. Cowboys wide receiver Terrell Owens finished sixth in the NFC with 85 receptions for 1,180 yards and an NFL leading 13 touchdown receptions while fellow receiver Terry Glenn went over 1,000 yards receiving for the second consecutive season with 70 grabs for 1,047 yards (15.0 yard avg.) and six touchdowns.

In 2005, Dallas finished the year as one of only two NFL teams (St. Louis) with a pair of receivers who each had over 500 receptions and 7,500 receiving yards for their careers in veterans Keyshawn Johnson and Terry Glenn. Glenn tied for the league lead in yards-per-catch with an average of 18.3 yards and recorded the first 1,000-yard receiving season for the Cowboys since 1999 with his 1,136 yards and eight touchdowns. Johnson led the team in receptions with 71 and was second in touchdowns with six. Dallas was the only NFL team in 2005 to produce three players who each had at least 62 receptions as tight end Jason Witten (66 receptions) joined Glenn (62) and Johnson (71).

In Haley's first year in Dallas (2004), Johnson finished the season with 70 catches for a team-high 981 yards and tied for the team lead with six touchdown catches. Prior to a season-ending foot injury, Glenn was averaging 16.7 yards-per-catch on 24 receptions (400 yards) with a pair of scores. A pair of rookies - Patrick Crayton and Terrance Copper - were the biggest recipients of Haley's teaching as both surfaced as productive late season additions.

Haley joined the Cowboys staff after three years as the wide receivers coach with the Chicago Bears (2001-03). Despite working with three different starting quarterbacks with the Bears in 2003, three of Haley's receivers topped the 40-catch mark for the season, with Marty Booker leading the club with 52 receptions and 715 receiving yards. Dez White was second on the team with 49 receptions for 583 yards and David Terrell recorded a career-high 43 catches for 361 yards.

In 2002, Haley oversaw the continued growth of Booker as he made huge strides following an outstanding 2001 season. Booker capped his 2002 campaign by becoming the first Bears Pro Bowl selection at wide receiver since 1971 and only the fourth receiver in franchise history to earn the recognition. Booker became just the second Bears receiver to record back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons with a career-best 1,189 yards and a team-leading six touchdowns while just missing his second consecutive season of 100-or-more catches (97). His two-year total of 197 receptions in 2001-02 was tops in the NFC.

In Haley's first season with the Bears, Booker became the first receiver in team history to catch 100 passes in a season and the eighth receiver in Bears history to surpass 1,000 receiving yards in a season with 1,071. He also posted a career-best and team-high eight touchdown catches.

Haley joined the Bears after spending six seasons with the New York Jets (1995-2000). In 1999-2000 he mentored the Jets wide receivers. In his first season with the group, Haley helped guide Keyshawn Johnson to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance. Johnson finished the season with 89 receptions, 1,170 receiving yards and eight touchdowns, the second most catches in a season in club history. Prior to taking over wide receiver duties, Haley worked as an assistant to offensive coordinator Charlie Weis (1997-98) and helped the Jets to two 1,000-yard receivers in 1998 and Johnson's first Pro Bowl. Haley began his career with the Jets as an assistant in the scouting department in 1995, where he scouted regionally for the team and assisted in player evaluations.

Haley attended the University of Florida and the University of Miami before earning a bachelor's degree in communications from the University of North Florida in 1991.

The son of Dick Haley, the former Director of Player Personnel for the Pittsburgh Steelers (1971-90), New York Jets (1991-2002), and Miami Dolphins (current). Todd was a former ballboy for the Super Bowl Championship Pittsburgh Steelers teams of the 1970s. Haley was also a multi-sport standout at Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh.

Haley and his wife, Chrissy, have four daughters: Taylor, Peyton, Kady, and Ella and one son Richard Todd Jr.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

NOTE CARDS

- Joined the Cardinals on 1/15/04 when he became the team's defensive coordinator; was one of two assistants retained by head coach Ken Whisenhunt (Rick Courtright was the other)
- In his first season at defensive coordinator in 2004, improved the team's overall defensive ranking from 26th to 12th. In 2005, Pendergast's defense improved to 8th overall, the unit's first top ten ranking since 1994 (3rd).
- Helped guide defensive tackle Darnell Dockett to his first Pro Bowl selection in 2008, strong safety Adrian Wilson to his first Pro Bowl selection in 2007 and defensive end Bertrand Berry to an NFC leading 14.5 sacks in 2004, earning the free agent acquisition his first Pro Bowl appearance.
- In 2005, strong safety Adrian Wilson collected a team high eight sacks setting an NFL record for the most sacks in a single season by a defensive back.
- The Cardinals defense set a new franchise record with 551 interception return yards and six interceptions returned for touchdowns in 2007.
- The 2007 defense also set a modern NFL record by holding the Detroit Lions to -18 rushing yards on eight attempts in Week 10.
- Tolleson (AZ) High School graduate who stayed out west and graduated from the University of Arizona in 1990.

Phoenix native and University of Arizona alum Clancy Pendergast returns for his fifth season as the Cardinals defensive coordinator. Pendergast's coaching dossier includes 13 seasons in the NFL including stints with the Cleveland Browns (2003), Dallas Cowboys (1996-2002), and the Houston Oilers (1995) and five more seasons on the major college level.

Last season, the Cardinals defense led the NFL and set franchise records with six interception returns for touchdowns and 551 interception return yards. Defensive tackle Darnell Dockett earned his first Pro Bowl selection after collecting a team-high nine sacks to lead all NFL interior defensive linemen. Dockett was the Cardinals first defensive tackle selected to the Pro Bowl since Eric Swann in 1996. Cornerbacks Antrel Rolle and Rod Hood both finished the season with five interceptions with Rolle returning three for touchdowns and Hood taking two back. The 2007 Cardinals defense also set a modern NFL record when they held the Detroit Lions to minus -18 rushing yards on eight attempts (11/11). The minus -18 yards is the lowest in a game since the NFL adopted its modern statistical rules regarding rushing in 1947. Even with missing regular starters Chike Okeafor, Adrian Wilson and Bertrand Berry for most of the season, all three of the Cardinals starting linebackers collected 100+ tackles with Karlos Dansby leading the team with 117 stops. Pendergast's run defense finished 9th in the NFL (97.9 yards per game) and the Cardinals redzone defense was good for 12th best in the league

His 2006 defense was highlighted by strong safety Adrian Wilson's first trip to the Pro Bowl. Wilson recorded four interceptions to tie a career-high set in 2002 and also scored on a pair of 99-yard TD's (fumble and interception return) to become the first player in NFL history with two defensive touchdowns of 99 yards. Pendergast's unit forced 33 turnovers (17 fumble recoveries, 16 interceptions) in 2006, the most for a Cardinals defense since 1998 and the second time in the past three years the defense finished with 30+ takeaways. Linebacker Gerald Hayes led the team with a career high 111 stops in his first season as the starting middle linebacker and the team's redzone defense was 4th best in the NFC and 11th best in the NFL.

Pendergast's defensive unit improved from 26th to 12th in his first season as coordinator and then jumped from 12th to 8th in 2005. Even with missing four regular starters for most of the 2005 season (DE Bertrand Berry, DT Russell Davis, Hayes, CB Antrel Rolle) and having his defensive players miss a combined 101 games due to injury, the Cardinals defense finished the season with the 10th best rush defense and the 12th best pass defense in 2005. The 8th overall ranking was the best finish for the Cardinals defense since 1994 when they finished 3rd overall.

The 2005 defense also finished 7th in the NFL in first downs allowed (272) and 4th in third-down efficiency (34.2%). Wilson, a Pro Bowl alternate and 16-game starter in 2005, led the team with a career-high 112 tackles and eight sacks. The eight sacks were the most in the NFL by a defensive back since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. Wilson also became the first defensive back in Cardinals history to lead the team in sacks. Outside linebacker Karlos Dansby finished third on the team with 103 tackles and collected four sacks and three interceptions, becoming one of only six NFL players in 2005 to collect more than three sacks and three interceptions.

CARDS D TAKES AWAY

Under Clancy Pendergast, the Cardinals defense has recorded 118 takeaways since 2004, the 12th most in the NFL.

In 2004, Pendergast's defense improved its overall rank from 26th at the end of '03 to 12th. His unit was particularly tough in the red zone where its 45.0 TD percentage ranked second-best in the NFL (up from 60.7 in '03). Other key categories of defensive improvement were in third down defense (fourth in '04 and 32nd in '03); total sacks were up from 20 to 38; total touchdowns allowed dropped from 55 to 35; and total takeaways improved from 23 to 30. Overall, the Cards plus-minus improved from minus-13 in 2003 to plus-1 in '04 and the team allowed 130 fewer total points (452 to 322) which moved them from last in the NFL in 2003 to 12th in the league. Passing yards per game dropped from 224.4 in '03 to 189.8 in '04 (29th in '03 to 9th in '04) and first downs allowed dropped from 326 in '03 to 282 in '04. The defense didn't allow a touchdown in three games (Rams, Falcons and Saints) and allowed just one TD in three others (Rams, Jets and Bucs). Linebacker James Darling set a career and team high with 104 tackles and defensive end Bertrand Berry earned his first Pro Bowl berth with an NFC leading 14.5 sacks.

Prior to joining the Cardinals as defensive coordinator, Pendergast spent a year in Cleveland as linebackers coach. That came after spending seven seasons on the staff in Dallas, first as a defensive assistant/quality control/linebackers (1996-99), then extended additional responsibilities to coach nickel defense packages (2000) and overall secondary (2001-02). Dallas fielded the youngest starting defensive backfield in the NFL in 2002 with two rookies (first-round draft pick Roy Williams and Derek Ross), a second-year

WHAT THEY DO BEST

A Clancy Pendergast defense has a few traits and among them is using different looks to get to the quarterback. They have been very successful since Pendergast took over.

In the four years since he took over as defensive coordinator in 2004, the team has collected 149 sacks. That is the fourth most in team history over a four-year span since sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

player (Tony Dixon) and a third-year veteran (Mario Edwards). Williams, the eighth-overall selection, and Ross, a third-rounder and 75th overall, tied for the team lead with five interceptions. Pendergast's prize pupil, Williams, achieved numerous all-rookie honors. In both 2000 and 2001, the Cowboys finished 3rd in the NFL in pass defense. In 2001, Pendergast's first year overseeing the secondary, Dallas finished the season as the NFL's 3rd pass defense for the second consecutive season. Despite starting five different lineups and eight different players in the secondary, Pendergast's management of the Dallas nickel package in 2000 helped the unit finish third in pass defense.

During his first four seasons with the Cowboys (1996-99), Pendergast focused primarily on the linebackers and helped mold a unit which was part of a defense that improved from 24th in 1997 to 12th in 1998. During that period, Fred Strickland recorded a career-best 153 tackles (1996). Dexter Coakley set a club rookie record with 136 tackles (1997), Strickland, Coakley, and Randall Godfrey finished 2-3-4 on the club in tackles (1998), and Coakley earned his first Pro Bowl selection and led the club with four interceptions (1999).

Pendergast earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Arizona in Tucson in 1990, then worked with wide receivers and as an advance scout as a graduate assistant at Mississippi State (1991) and a defensive assistant at Southern California (1992). He spent the next two seasons (1993-94) at the University of Oklahoma as a graduate assistant advance scout and coaching the tight ends, then was named the tight ends coach at Alabama-Birmingham in 1995 before joining the Oilers as a defensive assistant and quality control coach.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Veteran college assistant coach Ron Aiken enters his second season with the Cardinals after being hired to coach the defensive line on 2/14/07. Aiken joined the Cardinals after spending the previous eight seasons at the University of Iowa coaching the same position.

With the Cardinals in 2007, Aiken helped tutor defensive tackle Darnell Dockett to his first Pro Bowl selection after he led all NFL interior defensive linemen with nine sacks.

Named the 2002 American Football Coaches Association Division I Assistant Coach of the Year with the Hawkeyes, Aiken joined Iowa's staff in 1999 and helped lead the Hawkeyes to six straight bowl appearances (2001-06). His defensive line finished the 2005 season ranking 29th nationally in rush defense (126 yards per game) and 22nd in scoring defense (20 points per game), finishing third in the Big Ten in both categories and fourth in total defense.

Future pros he coached while at Iowa include defensive end and two-time Pro Bowl selection (2006-07) Aaron Kampman (Green Bay), defensive end Derreck Robinson (Miami), nose tackle Colin Cole (Green Bay) defensive end Matt Roth (Miami), and defensive tackle Jonathan Babineaux (Atlanta).

Iowa led the Big Ten in rushing defense in 2004 and the Hawkeyes were ranked fifth nationally in rushing defense, sixth in turnover margin and 11th in total defense.

Iowa's rushing defense ranked second in the Big Ten for three straight years before leading the league in 2004. The Hawkeyes were fifth in the nation against the run (81.9) in 2002, seventh in 2003 (92.7) and fifth again in 2004 (92.5).

Prior to joining the Hawkeyes, Aiken spent the 1998 season coaching linebackers at San Diego State where all three of his linebackers earned all-conference honors. He was at the University of Texas coaching defensive tackles in 1997, worked with the defensive line at Vanderbilt from 1995-96 and was at New Mexico coaching linebackers and defensive ends from 1991-94.

Aiken was the head coach at Langston (OK) from 1986-90 where his teams led the nation (NAIA Div. I) in defense in two of his four seasons. He was special teams coordinator at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in 1985, offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Tarkio College from 1982-84 and he coached the offensive line and special teams at Bethany College from 1980-81. Aiken began his coaching career as the offensive line coach at Boiling Springs (SC) High School and in 1979 became head coach at Greenville County (VA) High School.

A graduate of North Carolina A&T, Aiken earned all-conference honors while playing guard and center for the Aggies (1973-76) and was a team captain in 1976.

He earned his bachelor's degree in history from North Carolina A&T in 1977 and a masters degree in secondary education from The Citadel in 1982. He and his wife, Sheryl, have three sons: Matthew, Stephen and Joshua.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Teryl Austin is entering his sixth season as an NFL assistant and second with the Cardinals after being hired to coach defensive backs on 1/18/07. Austin came to the Cardinals having a reputation for developing young defensive backs during his four years in Seattle. He was instrumental in the development of Seattle's secondary heavily pieced together through the NFL Draft, mentoring draft picks Marcus Trufant (1st Round, 2003), Ken Hamlin (2nd Round, 2003), Michael Boulware (2nd Round, 2004) and Kelly Jennings (1st Round, 2006).

In 2007, Austin's secondary helped the Cardinals lead the NFL in interception returns for touchdowns (6) and return yardage (551). Cornerbacks Rod Hood and Antrel Rolle each had five INT's with Rolle returning three of them for TDs and Hood returning two. Rolle's 231 return yards were the second-highest total in team history and his two interception returns for touchdowns against Cincinnati (11/18) tied an NFL record.

In winning the NFC in 2005 in Seattle, Austin's secondary, despite missing a combined 19 games due to injury, helped carry the Seahawks to the Super Bowl.

The defensive backfield was led by safety Michael Boulware, who in only his second NFL season, led the team in interceptions (four) and was second on the team in tackles (73).

In 2004, Austin coached a group of Seahawks defensive backs that, for just the second time in Seahawks history (1984), had three different players intercept at least five passes and for the first time since 1984, all four starters intercepted at least four. Collectively, the Seahawks ranked 3rd in the NFL with 23 interceptions and collected at least one pick in all but two games.

Prior to joining the Seahawks in 2003, Austin was an assistant for 12 years at the collegiate level where he also coached defensive backs. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Penn State (1991-1992) before heading to Wake Forest (1993-1995), Syracuse (1996-1998) and Michigan (1999-2002).

While coaching at the college level, Austin found his niche for developing young NFL caliber players. At Syracuse he mentored All-Americans Donovan Darius and Kevin Abrams. Darius was named the 1997 Big East Conference Player of the Year and went on to become a first-round NFL Draft pick with fellow defensive back Tebucky Jones – the first time in Syracuse history that two Orangemen were selected in the first round. He also coached NFL talents Will Allen (Dolphins) and Keith Bulluck (Titans) at Syracuse and tutored Marlin Jackson (Colts) and Cato June (Bucs) while at Michigan. As well as developing individual talents, Austin also helped lead teams to seven consecutive bowl berths from 1996-2002.

A 1988 graduate of Pittsburgh with a bachelor's degree in Communications, Austin was a three-year starter and four-year letterman (1984-87) for the Panthers playing in the 1984 Fiesta and the 1987 Bluebonnet Bowls. After graduating, Austin competed in the training camps of the Washington Redskins and Hamilton Tiger-Cats before playing for the Montreal Machine of the World League of American Football in 1991.

GOODELL VISITS THE CARDINALS

In his first couple of years as the Commissioner of the National Football League, Roger Goodell has made it a point of emphasis to travel and visit as many franchises as he can. In October of 2007, Goodell spent time visiting the Valley of the Sun and the Cardinals organization.

The Commissioner's visit began when he got an up-close look at the Cardinals and University of Phoenix Stadium, the host of Super Bowl XLII, when they hosted the Carolina Panthers. Before the game, Goodell spent time speaking to fans as he toured the activities outside the stadium.

The following day, Goodell met with the Cardinal players as well as the entire front office staff. In the meetings, the Commissioner addressed a few of the many issues that the league is exploring, including keeping games on broadcast television long-term, revising the preseason format, setting a rookie salary cap, the possibility of playing a Super Bowl in another country and making improvements to the draft and Pro Bowl.

Goodell's main point in meetings with Cardinals players and personnel was personal conduct and how it not only applies to players, but to all NFL employees.

"All of us are fortunate to be in the National Football League, myself included," Goodell said. "There is a responsibility that comes with it."

NFL SEASON: 15th

RUNNING BACKS

In his 15th year as an NFL assistant, Maurice Carthon begins his second season with the Cardinals after being appointed to coach running backs on 1/29/07. An eight-year NFL veteran as a running back, Carthon joined the Cardinals after spending two seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Cleveland Browns after previously coaching for four other NFL teams.

Carthon helped tutor running back Edgerrin James to his second consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season in Arizona with 1,222 yards in 2007, the fifth-highest total in franchise history. With his second consecutive 1,000-yard season, James became only the second back in team history to accomplish that feat while also being selected as a Pro Bowl alternate last season after finishing 4th in the NFC in rushing.

During his two seasons with the Browns, Carthon helped tutor running back Reuben Droughns and tight end Kellen Winslow Jr. Winslow finished the 2006 season with 89 receptions to lead all NFL tight ends and finish 9th overall in the league. Droughns finished sixth in the AFC in 2005 with 1,232 yards rushing and became the first Browns back since 1985 to top the 1,000-yard rushing plateau.

Carthon joined the Browns in 2005 and led an offensive unit that finished the season ranked 8th in the NFL with 1,601 yards from scrimmage (1,232 rushing and 369 receiving).

He joined Cleveland after serving as the Dallas Cowboys offensive coordinator for two seasons under Bill Parcells (2003-04). While with Dallas, Carthon oversaw game plan preparations, as well as working with the club's running backs.

In 2004, Carthon directed an offense that featured tight end Jason Witten, who led the NFC with 87 receptions and 980 yards, rookie first-round draft choice running back Julius Jones, who totaled 819 yards, and quarterback Vinny Testaverde, who threw for 3,532 yards.

Prior to his two years with the Cowboys, Carthon served as the Detroit Lions offensive coordinator in 2002 after originally joining the team as the running backs coach in 2001. In his two seasons with the Lions, Carthon was instrumental in helping increase the Lions' running game average in 2001 (4.0 yard avg.) and 2002 (4.1 yard avg.). In addition, running back James Stewart posted a career-best 4.8 avg. in 2001 and then came back in 2002 to record his second career 1,000-yard rushing season with 1,021 yards on 231 carries (4.4 yard avg.).

Before going to Detroit, Carthon served as assistant head coach/running backs coach for the New York Jets in 2000, which followed three years (1997-99) as the Jets' running backs coach under Parcells. During his time in New York, the Jets produced four consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons from running back Curtis Martin after the franchise had experienced only four 1,000-yard rushing seasons in its first 37 years of existence. The Pro Bowl back rushed for 1,204 yards - his sixth 1,000 yard rushing season - and nine touchdowns in 2000, after setting the team's single season rushing record with 1,464 yards in 1999. Martin also finished third on the team with 45 receptions for 259 yards in 1999. Under Carthon's direction, the Jets averaged 122.6 rushing yards-per-game, ranking seventh in the AFC and 12th in the NFL. Another Carthon pupil, fullback Richie Anderson, was also selected to the Pro Bowl in 2000 after paving the way for Martin's 1,204 rushing yards.

In 1998, Carthon worked with running backs Keith Byars and Martin, helping Martin to 1,287 yards, his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard season and the second best rushing total in club history. Prior to the arrival of Martin, Carthon directed Adrian Murrell to become just the second running back in Jets history to have consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (Freeman McNeil, 1984-85), when he ran for 1,088 yards.

Carthon began his coaching career in New England in 1994 as an offensive assistant on Parcells staff and shifted to coaching the Patriots running backs and was a special teams assistant in 1995. He became the sole running backs coach in 1996. It was with the Patriots that Carthon first became strongly tied to the development of the three-time Pro Bowler Martin. Carthon began working with Martin in 1995, a season which saw the unheralded third-round draft choice set single-season rushing records with 1,487 yards and 14 touchdowns on 368 carries becoming the only rookie selected to play in the Pro Bowl, while also garnering Rookie-of-the-Year honors.

A veteran of eight NFL seasons as a player, Carthon began his career in 1985 when he signed with the New York Giants as a free agent. He played the next seven seasons with the team and was a member of the Giants 1986 and 1990 Super Bowl championship teams as a blocking fullback. He finished his NFL playing career with the Indianapolis Colts in 1992. Carthon never missed a game due to injury during his career, and he finished his playing days with 950 rushing yards and two touchdowns in 300 attempts and caught 90 passes for 745 yards and two touchdowns.

Prior to signing with the Giants, Carthon began his professional playing career as an eighth-round draft pick of the USFL's New Jersey Generals in 1983. He played for the Generals for three seasons (1983-85) and totaled 2,102 yards rushing and helped pave the way for Herschel Walker, the league's top rusher. In 1984, Carthon started all 18 games and finished the season with a career-high 1,042 rushing yards and 11 touchdowns.

Carthon twice earned All-Southland Conference honors while starring at Arkansas State University and led the team in rushing with 682 yards as a senior team captain. He attended Osceola (AR) High School and was named the state MVP in basketball and twice earned all-conference honors in football.

Carthon earned his bachelor's degree in physical education and science from Arkansas State and was honored as the Osceola Man-of-the-Year in 1991.

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS

With a coaching background entering its 21st year, Rick Courtright begins his fifth season on the Cardinals staff and his second as the assistant defensive backs coach. As the defensive quality control coach for three seasons (2004-06) prior to his current assignment, Courtright was instrumental in helping to guide strong safety Adrian Wilson to his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2006 while also tutoring Wilson to eight sacks in 2005, the most by any defensive back in NFL history.

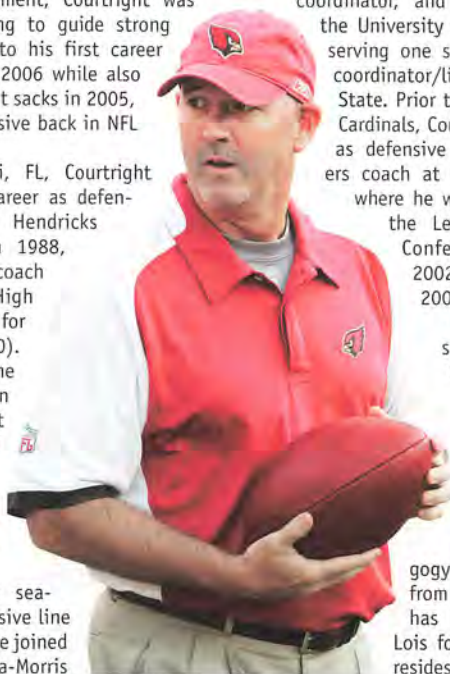

A native of Miami, FL, Courtright began his coaching career as defensive coordinator at Hendricks (MN) High School in 1988, then moved to head coach at Teton County High School in Driggs, ID for two seasons (1989-90). He was then part of the University of Washington staff in 1991-92 that produced two Pac-10 Conference titles, a pair of Rose Bowl appearances, and the 1991 National Championship.

Following his two seasons as assistant offensive line coach at Washington, he joined the staff at Minnesota-Morris as defensive line coach, strength coach, and academic coordinator in 1993. He coached defensive ends at Ohio University in 1994, served as outside linebackers coach at Idaho State (1995) and as linebackers coach, tight ends coach, special teams coordinator, and recruiting coordinator at the University of Idaho (1996-99) before serving one season (2000) as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Murray State. Prior to his appointment with the Cardinals, Courtright spent three seasons as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Western Illinois (2001-03) where he was instrumental in guiding the Leathernecks to a Gateway Conference Championship in 2002 and postseason berths in 2002-03.

Courtright was an all-state linebacker at Miami Christian High School, and played college football at Wheaton (IL) College where he earned a degree in physical education in 1983, which he later complemented with a degree in sports pedagogy (the science of teaching) from Idaho in 1999. Courtright has been married to his wife Lois for 25 years and the couple resides in Phoenix.

BILL DAVIS

COLLEGE: Cincinnati

HOMETOWN: Youngstown, OH

NFL SEASON: 17th

LINEBACKERS

Bill Davis enters his second season with the Cardinals and his 17th as an NFL assistant after being hired on 1/19/07 to coach linebackers. Davis joined the Cardinals after spending the prior two seasons as the San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator.

All three starting linebackers in Davis' first season with the Cardinals recorded at least 100 tackles with Karlos Dansby leading the team with a career-high 117 stops. Middle linebacker Gerald Hayes recorded over 100 tackles (115) for the second time in his career while Calvin Pace reached the milestone for the first time in his career (106). Pace finished second on the team with 6.5 sacks and Dansby led the Cardinals with four forced fumbles.

In 2006, the 49ers defense was highlighted by cornerback Walt Harris' first Pro Bowl selection after tying with an NFC high (GB-C. Woodson) eight interceptions, including one returned for a touchdown (@ Den). Harris also led San Francisco with five forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. The veteran corner was not alone in producing a career season under Davis' tutelage. Linebacker Brandon Moore, in his second season as a starter, had a breakout season with a team and career-high 114 tackles (67 solos), including a team high 6.5 sacks.

Davis joined San Francisco after completing one season (2004) as linebackers coach for the New York Giants. Prior to the season in New York, Davis spent the previous three campaigns as the Atlanta Falcons linebackers coach. During that span, linebacker Keith Brooking was selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his three seasons under Davis. In 2002, Davis was instrumental in helping Atlanta's linebackers adjust to a new 3-4 defense installed by defensive coordinator Wade Phillips.

Davis gained valuable experience as a ball boy under by Dick Vermeil (Philadelphia) and Don Shula (Miami) while his father, Bill, served 13 years in the NFL, including six years as the Cleveland Browns Vice President of player personnel.

After beginning his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Michigan State, Davis joined the NFL in 1992 as a defensive assistant with the Pittsburgh Steelers under Bill Cowher. With a playing and coaching career primarily on the offensive side of the ball, Davis worked for three successful seasons with the Steelers on the defensive side of the ball.

As a defensive assistant coach, Davis sat in meeting rooms with a list of former and current head coaches including Cowher, Dom Capers, Marvin Lewis and Dick LeBeau.

In 1995, Davis began a four-year stretch as the outside linebackers coach with the Carolina Panthers under Capers. With Davis as their coach in 1996, linebackers Kevin Greene and Lamar Lathon finished first and second in the NFL in sacks, with 14.5 and 13.5 respectively. Each made the Pro Bowl and the second-year Panthers advanced to the NFC Championship Game.

After leaving Carolina, Davis had a pair of one-year stops, first with the Cleveland Browns (1999) as a defensive assistant/linebackers and next with the Green Bay Packers (2000) as a defensive assistant/defensive line.

A native of Youngstown, OH, Davis was a college quarterback and receiver at the University of Cincinnati from 1985-88. He also spent time in training camp as a wide receiver with the Miami Dolphins.

Davis and his wife, Sherry, have four daughters; Monica, Brooke and twins Grace and Ava.

FREDDIE KITCHENS

CARDINAL SEASON: 2nd

NFL SEASON: 3rd

TIGHT ENDS

Tight ends coach Freddie Kitchens enters his second season on the Cardinals coaching staff after serving in the same capacity with the Dallas Cowboys in 2006. Kitchens joined the Cowboys staff with seven years of collegiate coaching experience following a successful stint as a quarterback at the University of Alabama. In 10 years as a player and coach at the college level, Kitchens was a part of teams that captured three conference titles and played in seven bowl games.

Kitchens' tight ends in 2007 (Leonard Pope, Ben Patrick and Troy Bienemann) helped the Cardinals finish with the 5th best passing offense in the NFL as well as helping to record 32 passing touchdowns, a new franchise record. As a group, the eight touchdowns caught by the tight ends were the most since 1988 and the trio also recorded six red-zone touchdowns, helping the Cardinals to the second best redzone scoring offense in the NFL (94.0%).

With Dallas in 2006, Kitchens helped tutor Pro Bowl tight end Jason Witten to his third consecutive trip to Hawaii. Witten finished the season with 64 receptions for 754 yards (11.8 yard avg.) and one touchdown while starting in all 16 games.

Kitchens came to Dallas after a two-year stint at Mississippi State University where he coached running backs (2005) and tight ends (2004). In 2005, he guided Jerious Norwood, a 2006 third-round NFL Draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons, to a 1,180-yard season, becoming just the second runner to post back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons in school history. Norwood finished his Bulldogs career with a school-record 3,222 career rushing yards. In his first season on the Bulldogs staff in 2004, Kitchens helped implement the West Coast offense that gained tight end Eric Butler All-SEC freshman recognition while setting a Mississippi State single-season record with four touchdown receptions from his tight end position.

He served as the running backs coach at the University of North Texas from 2001-03 and contributed to Mean Green clubs that won three straight Sun Belt Conference titles. In 2003, running back Patrick Cobbs rushed for 1,680 yards and scored 19 touchdowns, earning the Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year award while also leading the nation with a 152.7 yards per game average. During the previous two seasons, Kitchens developed Kevin Galbreath into the first back in school history to rush for back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. The 2,372 yards gained on the ground in 2002 were the most at North Texas since 1959.

Kitchens joined the North Texas staff after one season as a graduate assistant at LSU (2000) where he served on Nick Saban's first Tiger staff, managing the offensive scout team and helping with special teams. That team went 9-4, including a 28-14 win over Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl. After a one-year stint playing professionally in Italy in the spring of 1999, he began his coaching career as an assistant at Glenville State College that fall, coaching both running backs and tight ends.

A three-year starter at quarterback for the University of Alabama (1995-97), Kitchens finished his playing career with 4,668 yards and 30 touchdown passes for the Crimson Tide. He ranked third in Alabama history in career attempts, fourth in career passing yards and fifth in career completions upon his departure. Alabama went 22-13 during those three seasons and went to the 1993 Gator Bowl, 1994 Citrus Bowl, and the 1996 Outback Bowl.

A native of Gadsden, AL, Kitchens earned high school All-America honors and was named Mr. Football in the state of Alabama his senior season. He and his wife, Ginger, have two daughters Bennett and Camden.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

John Lott, a 12-year NFL assistant, enters his second season as the Cardinals strength and conditioning coach after being hired on 1/19/07. Previously with the Cleveland Browns prior to joining Arizona (2005-06), Lott served in the same capacity with the New York Jets for eight years (1997-2004) where he worked with current Cardinals head coach Ken Whisenhunt in 2000.

A native of Denton, TX, Lott has earned a reputation as one of the NFL's most demanding strength and conditioning coaches, consistently challenging the players with off-the-field preparation both during the season and off-season. A fixture at the NFL scouting combine each February in Indianapolis, Lott was also recognized by Power Magazine as the 2001 Powermag All-NFL Team Top Strength Coach.

During his first season in Arizona, Lott was responsible for overseeing the redesign of the team's weight room. The weight room was completely made over during a six-week span at the cost of several hundred thousand dollars to update equipment and the overall look.

Lott's programs stress Olympic movements, as well as strength and speed development, and he has also devised strict individual in-season programs to help the players increase their overall stamina and endurance. He is also responsible for working with injured players on secondary rehabilitation programs.

He originally joined the Jets in 1997 after serving as the head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Houston for six years (1991-96) where he supervised the strength and conditioning program for all 14 varsity sports with a primary focus on football, men's basketball, men's and women's track and field and the nationally ranked men's golf team. During his tenure at Houston, Lott designed and oversaw the construction of a state-of-the-art 17,000-square foot weight room (the largest in the country at the time of its completion).

Prior to his work at Houston, Lott served two years (1989-90) in the same capacity at his alma mater, the University of North Texas, overseeing all 11 varsity sports programs. Lott has a strong track background, having worked as the strength and conditioning coach of the Santa Monica Track Club and trained Olympic gold medalists Carl Lewis, Leroy Burrell and Mike Marsh. Lott also worked with the 1992 and 1996 Indonesian National track teams, as well as with select members of the Japanese National track team in preparation for the Olympics in 1992 and 1996. Overall, the athletes he tutored garnered six world records and 12 Olympic medals.

He played for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1987 under head coach Chuck Noll and went to training camp with the New York Jets in 1988. Lott was a standout offensive lineman at North Texas where he earned four varsity letters and was named All-Conference twice and All-America his senior year. He was twice voted "Most Dedicated" and a team captain by his teammates and graduated as the strongest man in school history.

Lott earned his bachelor's degree in corporate fitness in 1988 with minors in biology and kinesiology and later earned his master's degree in physical education from Crescent City Christian College in 1990. He served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Texas in 1988. He also appeared in a minor role in the film Necessary Roughness, which was shot on the North Texas campus. Lott and his wife Kim have a son, Jasper Ryan, and a daughter, Kaitlyn Grace.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Nine-year NFL assistant Mike Miller begins his second season with the Cardinals as wide receivers coach after being promoted to the position on 3/21/07. Originally hired by Arizona on 2/6/07 to be an offensive assistant, Miller joined the Cardinals after splitting 2006 between the Berlin Thunder (quarterbacks/receivers) of NFL Europe in the spring and Robert Morris University (defensive line) in the fall. The Cardinals are the third NFL franchise Miller has worked for as an assistant after previous jobs with the Buffalo Bills and Pittsburgh Steelers.

In 2007, Miller helped tutor wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald to his second Pro Bowl selection. Fitzgerald led the NFC in both receptions and yards last year while recording the second 100-catch season of his young career (100 receptions for 1,409 yards, 10 TDs). The Cardinals offense also set a franchise record with 32 passing touchdowns in 2007 and finished 5th in the NFL in passing.

Miller joined the Thunder in the spring of 2006 from the Buffalo Bills where he was quality control/tight ends coach in 2004 and tight ends in 2005. Miller previously served as an offensive assistant with current Cardinals head coach Ken Whisenhunt and Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Line Russ Grimm with the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1999-2003.

The Pittsburgh, PA native got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant coaching running backs at Robert Morris University (PA) for two seasons (1997-1998). He also worked as a public relations and operations intern with the Pittsburgh Steelers (1994-95) and with the Indianapolis Colts (1996).

After attending Plum Senior High School, Miller received his bachelor's degree in communications from Clarion University (PA) and his masters in education from Robert Morris.

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Matt Raich enters his second season with the Cardinals as a defensive assistant helping with the linebackers after joining the team on 2/6/07. Previously an offensive assistant under current Cardinals head coach Ken Whisenhunt with the Pittsburgh Steelers the prior three seasons (2004-06), Raich switched to the defensive side of the ball with the Cardinals where he played in college.

Raich joined the Steelers coaching staff prior to the 2004 season after spending the previous two years as an intern in the Pittsburgh player personnel department. In his previous position with the Steelers, Raich helped the offense and the entire coaching staff with its game preparation, video analysis and scouting of future opponents.

Prior to joining the Steelers scouting department in 2002, Raich served three seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Robert Morris (2000-02). He also held assistant coaching positions at Glenville State (1999), Robert Morris (1996-98) and Westminster (1993-94). In addition, he served as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach for the Hildesheim Invaders Football Club in the German Federal League in the spring of 1999.

A Monaca, PA native, Raich was a standout middle linebacker at Westminster College (PA) from 1989-1992 and a member of Titans' 1989 NAIA National Championship team. He was a three-time NAIA All-American and ended his career as the school's all-time leading tackler.

Raich graduated from Westminster in 1994 with a bachelor's in education and was inducted into the Titans Sports Hall of Fame in 2002.

QUARTERBACKS

Former NFL quarterback Jeff Rutledge begins his second season with the Cardinals as quarterbacks coach after being hired on 2/6/07 to coach the same position he played. A veteran of 14 years in the league with three different teams (LA Rams 1979-81, NY Giants 1982-89, Washington Redskins 1990-92), Rutledge was tutored during his playing days by coaching legends Bear Bryant, Joe Gibbs and Bill Parcells. Prior to working with the Cardinals, Rutledge spent the previous five seasons as the head coach and athletics director at Nashville's Montgomery Bell Academy.

In Rutledge's first season in Arizona, his quarterbacks helped the Cardinals finish with the 5th rated passing offense in the NFL while also setting a new franchise record with 32 passing touchdowns. Kurt Warner had 27 of those 32, one short of the team record for a single season.

Rutledge, a two-time Super Bowl winner, played on three different teams that made the Super Bowl (Rams-XIV, Giants-XXI, Redskins-XXVI) over the course of his playing career. He also led Alabama to a national championship in 1978. Originally a 9th round selection by the Los Angeles Rams in the 1979 NFL Draft, Rutledge played with the Rams for three seasons as a backup, including in Super Bowl XIV in his rookie season, before being traded to the New York Giants in 1982.

Serving as the backup quarterback for the Giants under Phil Simms, Rutledge's tenure with the Giants lasted eight seasons while playing in 67 games, including Super Bowl XXI, before signing as a free agent with the Redskins in 1990. He played three seasons with the Redskins as a backup quarterback to Mark Rypien and as a holder, appearing in both roles in Super Bowl XXVI.

Rutledge engineered the greatest comeback in Redskins history in 1990 when he replaced Stan Humphries in the 3rd quarter with the Redskins trailing Detroit 35-14. Rutledge led the Skins back, securing a 41-38 overtime victory by completing 30-of-42 passes for 363 yards, earning him the NFC Offensive Player of the Week award.

He finished his NFL career with 274 completions on 526 attempts for 3,628 yards and 16 touchdowns in 117 games played (11 starts).

Rutledge started his coaching career in 1995 as the quarterbacks coach at Vanderbilt University. While at Vandy, Rutledge was part of a staff that consisted of current Cardinals head coach Ken Whisenhunt and defensive line coach Ron Aiken. After leaving Vanderbilt, Rutledge stayed in Nashville and worked at Montgomery Bell Academy for five years. While at MBA, Rutledge's teams won two state championships (2002, 2003) and he finished with an overall record of 41-17. MBA finished the 2003 season with a national ranking of 12th in the country.

An all-SEC quarterback at Alabama (1975-78), Rutledge led the Crimson Tide to the 1978 national title under the legendary Bryant with a victory over Penn State in the Sugar Bowl. He finished his collegiate career with 30 touchdown passes, leaving Alabama as the then all-time leader, surpassing Joe Namath.

Rutledge was a standout prep player in football, basketball and baseball at Banks High School before earning his bachelor's degree in business from the University of Alabama. His father Jack was a minor league player in the Cubs organization (1950-52).

Rutledge and his wife Laura have three children, Brooks, Christen, and Meg.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Eighteen-year NFL coaching veteran Kevin Spencer begins his second season with the Cardinals after being hired to coach special teams on 1/19/07. Previously with the Pittsburgh Steelers for five seasons (2002-06), Spencer was selected as the 2003 NFL "Special Teams Coach of the Year" by the league's special teams coaches.

In 2005, Spencer molded the Steelers special teams into one of the best units in the NFL. Pittsburgh posted two punt returns for touchdowns in 2005, marking the second time the team accomplished the feat over the course of his five-year tenure with the Steelers. The unit also ranked as one of the best in net punting average, allowing a 34.5 average for 4th in the AFC.

Steelers punt returner Antwaan Randle El set a team record with four punt returns for touchdowns during his time with the Steelers (2002-05) while kicker Jeff Reed's 80.0% (112 of 140) career field goal percentage under Spencer was good for second in team history (Norm Johnson, 82.7%). Reed kicked five game winning field goals during his time with Spencer.

Prior to joining the Steelers in 2002, Spencer spent four seasons in the same capacity with the Indianapolis Colts (1998-2001). While at Indianapolis, Spencer worked with Colts kicker Mike Vanderjagt, regarded as one of the premiere kickers in the NFL. In 2001, Vanderjagt ranked 1st in the AFC in scoring (125 points) and 2nd in the NFL (127, Jeff Wilkins, St. Louis). During the 2000 season, Vanderjagt connected on 25-of-27 field goals to rank 2nd in the AFC in scoring and tied for 5th in the NFL with 121 points. Under Spencer's guidance, Vanderjagt was the first player in Colts history to post four straight 100+ point seasons.

Spencer also served three seasons with the Oakland Raiders as the special teams and quality control coach (1995), assistant linebackers coach (1996) and a defensive assistant (1997). He started his NFL coaching career in 1991 as a coaching assistant with the Cleveland Browns.

The Queens, NY native began his coaching career in 1975 as a graduate assistant at the State University of New York where he coached wrestling and lacrosse.

He coached at Detroit Country Day High School (1976-79) in Birmingham, MI, before becoming a graduate assistant at Cornell (1979-80). Spencer then coached for one season at the Gillman School in Baltimore, MD before holding positions as the head freshman coach (1981-85) and offensive coordinator (1986) at Ithaca College. He served five years (1987-91) as the head coach at Wesleyan (CT) University where he compiled a 14-26 overall record, including a 6-2 mark in 1990. While at Wesleyan, Spencer coached current New York Jets head coach Eric Mangini for two seasons (1989-90).

As a collegian, Spencer played football and lacrosse at Springfield (MA) College from 1972-75 and earned a master's degree from SUNY-Cortland in 1976.

Spencer and his wife, Rosemarie, have two sons Timothy and Jack.

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Former NFL wide receiver Detric Ward begins his second season with the Cardinals as offensive quality control coach after being hired on 3/21/07. Ward began his coaching career in 2006 as the wide receivers coach for Missouri State after playing eight NFL seasons with the New York Jets (1997-2000), Miami Dolphins (2001-02), Baltimore Ravens/New England Patriots (2003), and Dallas Cowboys (2004).

A Cedar Rapids, IA native, Ward coached on the staff of his former college coach Terry Allen with the Missouri State Bears in 2006 after retiring from the NFL following the 2004 season.

A third-round (88th overall) selection of the Jets in the 1997 NFL Draft out of Northern Iowa, Ward played four seasons in New York and had his best season in 2000 when he collected 54 receptions for 801 yards (14.8 yard avg.) and three touchdowns. In 2001, Ward signed with the Dolphins as an unrestricted free agent and played two seasons in Miami as a reserve wide receiver recording 40 receptions for 381 yards while also returning punts.

Ward signed with New England as a free agent in 2003, but was released at the end of training camp. He then signed with the Baltimore Ravens where he appeared in three games before being released and resigning with the Patriots where he earned a Super Bowl ring following New England's 32-29 victory over Carolina in Super Bowl XXVIII. Ward finished his playing career in 2004 with the Dallas Cowboys where he appeared in eight games as a reserve wide receiver.

Over the course of Ward's career, he played in 103 regular season games (26 starts) with 167 receptions for 2,307 yards and 12 touchdowns while also returning 123 punts for 1,026 yards (8.3 yard avg.) and six kickoffs for 90 yards. He also appeared in six playoff games with 12 receptions for 156 yards.

On the college level, Ward was a four-year letterman (1993-96) at Northern Iowa where he is the school's all-time receiving leader with 4,539 yards and all-time leading scorer with 50 touchdowns and 300 points. He left the school ranked 2nd in all-purpose yards (5,987) and 3rd in receptions (208) and was a first-team all-Gateway selection three times (1994-96). He established a school single-game standard for receiving yards (247 vs. Illinois St) and was a consensus I-AA All-America selection as a senior when he caught 70 passes for 1,556 yards and 17 touchdowns and also as a junior. He was also named the conference offensive player of the year each of his final two seasons.

Ward attended Washington High School where he lettered in football and basketball and he graduated from Northern Iowa with a degree in psychology. While in college, Ward was also a member of the track team, placing third in the Gateway Conference in the 55-meter dash and also setting a school record in the 200-meter dash in 1997 as a senior.

DIRECTOR, PLAYER PERSONNEL

Steve Keim enters his 10th season with the Cardinals after joining the club in May, 1999 as a regional scout. Formerly the Cardinals scout in the east, Keim was promoted to the title of Director, College Scouting in June, 2006 and was promoted again to his current title of Director, Player Personnel in May, 2008. In his current role, Keim coordinates the activities of both the college and pro scouting departments under the direction of General Manager Rod Graves.

Keim attended Red Land High School in Lewisberry, PA and earned a bachelor's degree in communications from North Carolina State 1995.

A two-time all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection as a guard at N.C. State, Keim started 36 consecutive games at left guard for the Wolfpack. He was named the offensive freshman of the year in 1991 and was the ACC Player of the Week following the team's victory over Maryland in November, 1994. During a standout senior season where he was also a captain, Keim was named the N.C. State offensive line MVP and won the Jim Ritcher Award for the highest graded offensive lineman in addition to being named 3rd team All-American from Gameplan magazine.

Keim had a brief stint in pro football as a free agent with the Miami Dolphins (1996) and Edmonton Eskimos (1997) of the Canadian Football League before returning to coach at N.C. State.

He served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater for two years, assisted the recruiting coordinator with evaluations, and served as a liaison to NFL personnel wishing to scout Wolfpack football players. In the fall of 2004, Keim was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

Keim resides in Raleigh, NC with his wife, Kimberly, their son Carson and their daughter Sloane.

PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE

Jason Licht begins his first season with the Cardinals as a personnel executive after joining the team in June, 2008. He joins Arizona after spending the previous five years with the Philadelphia Eagles, including the past two years as Vice President of Player Personnel. His main responsibility will be to work as a member of the Cardinals pro personnel department.

Licht (pronounced LIGHT) joined the Eagles in 2003 as the club's assistant director of player personnel until being promoted in 2006. He came to Philadelphia after a four-year stint as a member of New England's player personnel staff. He was hired by the Patriots in 1999 as a college scout and was elevated to national scout and then to assistant director of player personnel. In 2004, Licht served on the Leadership Selection Committee for the National Invitation Camp/National Football Scouting, which researched, interviewed and hired the current Director of NIC/NFS, Jeff Foster.

He started his NFL career in Miami from 1995-96, serving as an assistant in the college and pro personnel scouting departments for the Dolphins before becoming an offensive assistant/quality control coach in 1996. In 1997, he worked for National Football Scouting (NFS), a college football scouting service, before joining Carolina's scouting staff in 1998.

An All-Conference defensive tackle at Nebraska-Wesleyan where he played in 1993-94, he was originally a walk-on at the University of Nebraska and played linebacker on the freshman team in 1989. He switched to guard for two years (he redshirted in 1990 and lettered in 1991) before transferring.

A graduate of Yuma (CO) High School, Licht was born in Fremont, NE, on February 13, 1971. He and his wife, Blair, reside in the Phoenix area.

DIRECTOR, FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

Reggie Terry begins his second season with the Cardinals as Director, Football Administration after being hired in June, 2007. Terry joined the Cardinals after spending 14 seasons at Syracuse University, serving the last seven seasons with the school's football operations staff.

With the Cardinals, Terry's responsibilities include negotiating contracts, managing the team's salary cap, managing player personnel matters and directing the team's travel.

Terry joined the Syracuse football staff in 2000 as the Director of Football Operations and Player Development and stayed in that position until being elevated to Associate Director of Athletics for Football Operations in 2006. At Syracuse, Terry was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the football program, team travel, the team's compliance with NCAA academic requirements, coordination of pro days, youth clinics and camps and an agent education program.

While at Syracuse, Terry helped organize bowl trips for the 2004 Champs Sports Bowl representing the Big East Conference as Co-Champions as well as the 2001 Insight.com Bowl. He joined the Syracuse staff under head coach Paul Pasqualoni in 2000 and was one of two holdovers to be retained when current head coach Greg Robinson took over in 2005.

Prior to joining the Syracuse football program in 2000, Terry worked as a graduate assistant and administrative supervisor in the Orange athletic department from 1993-1999. He also worked as an intern with the New York Jets football operations department in 1997 before interning with the NFL's Management Council in 1998.

A linebacker at Syracuse (1989-93), Terry was a part of the school's bowl game victories in 1993 (Fiesta Bowl), 1992 (Hall of Fame Bowl), 1990 (Aloha Bowl), and 1989 (Peach Bowl).

A native of Hempstead, NY, Terry graduated from Syracuse in 1993 with degrees in both history and education. A two-time Big East Conference Academic All-Star, Terry also earned the Hitachi Promise of Tomorrow Scholarship. He received his Master's degree in 1994 in education, his C.A.S. in education leadership in 1999 and is currently working on his PhD in higher education at Syracuse.

Born December 30, 1970 in Rockville Centre, NY, Terry and his wife, Tamicka, have four children, Ryon, Reggie II, Regen, and Rory.

SUPER BOWL XLII FIELD TAKES ROOT AT MOON VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL

The grass field on which the New York Giants defeated the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XLII was moved one final time after the big game. The National Football League in conjunction with the Arizona Cardinals donated the sod installed for the Super Bowl to Moon Valley High School in North Phoenix.

The Tifway 419 hybrid Bermuda sod – the same type of grass used for Cardinals games at the stadium – was grown in Alabama and transported in climate controlled trucks to University of Phoenix Stadium in mid-January. The National Football League entrusted the installation of the sod to Chandler-based Evergreen Turf, a proud partner of the Arizona Cardinals.

A number of other local companies donated both manpower and materials required in transporting the field to Moon Valley High. Turf Equipment Source was responsible for tilling the top soil while All Sports Turf Aeration was handling field aeration. The field received a laser grading from Turf Equipment Source with additions of soil from Pioneer Landscaping Materials. Target Specialty Products provided the necessary fertilizers and Hunter Industries through Horizon Irrigation is providing needed sprinkler head replacements. Simpson Norton assisted with turf equipment needed to prepare the field for the installation of the sod.

In all, approximately 75,000 square feet of sod was transported from University of Phoenix Stadium to Moon Valley High School.

PRO SCOUT

Former Cardinals safety Quentin Harris begins his first season as a pro scout in Arizona after being hired in June, 2008. A free safety for four seasons with the Cardinals (2002-05), Harris is beginning his scouting career after finishing his NFL playing days with the Denver Broncos in 2006.

Harris was signed by the Cardinals as an undrafted rookie free agent on May 3, 2002 out of Syracuse and appeared in 54 games over four seasons including six starts. He led the Cardinals in special teams tackles for two consecutive seasons (19 in 2004, 24 in 2005) before signing as a free agent with the New York Giants in 2006. After being waived by the Giants following training camp, Harris was signed by the Broncos later that season and appeared in six games.

He finished his NFL career with 50 tackles (42 solos), one sack, one interception, five passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery and 58 special teams tackles in 60 career games (six starts).

Harris was a four-year starter at free safety for Syracuse where he finished his Orange career with 327 tackles (183 solos), four forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and 10 interceptions in 42 career games. Harris left Syracuse ninth in school history for the most career interceptions while also being chosen as an honorable mention All-American, first-team All-Big East conference selection and a second-team choice from the conference's coaches as a senior in 2001.

Born January 26, 1977, Harris was an honorable mention All-America selection at Wyoming Seminary Upper School in Kingston, PA. He received a bachelor's degree in Information Studies from Syracuse in 2001.

Harris and his wife Tara have a daughter, Aliya, and two sons, Amani and Elijah and the family resides in Phoenix, AZ.

NFL SETS PAID ATTENDANCE RECORD FOR SIXTH STRAIGHT YEAR; CARDINALS CONTINUE TO SELL OUT UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

For the sixth consecutive year, the NFL established a new season attendance record for all games and surpassed the 22 million mark for the second straight year. In helping set that record, the Cardinals established their own franchise record after 516,646 fans attended regular season games, eclipsing the 2006 record mark of 508,829.

The Cardinals sellout streak at University Phoenix Stadium continued, selling out all 10 games in 2007 (including preseason). Entering the 2008 season, the team has now sold out all 20 games played at the new stadium. Arizona averaged 64,580 fans per game in 2007, with the highest attended game coming when the team hosted the Pittsburgh Steelers, drawing 64,844 fans.

NFL paid attendance for all 2007 games was 22,256,502, an increase of 56,790 over the previous record total of 22,199,712 in 2006.

The 2007 NFL regular-season total paid attendance of 17,345,205 and the average of 67,755 per game were both all-time records as well.

A total of 4,119,278 tickets were sold for 65 preseason games for an average of 63,374. Twelve postseason games produced a sale of 792,019, including 71,101 for Super Bowl XLII.

NFL SEASON: 8th

SCOUT

Veteran college football coach George Belu shifted career gears in 2001 when he joined the Cardinals scouting staff after closing out his coaching career at Ohio State University.

Belu, now in his eighth season with the Cardinals, scouts the midwest and eastern part of the country. A 38-year coaching veteran, Belu broke into the football profession in 1965 and was the offensive coordinator at five schools and offensive line coach at six universities.

His coaching highlights include an 11-0 season and Tangerine Bowl appearance at Miami (OH) in 1973, a Big Eight Conference title and two bowl appearances at Colorado, an Orange Bowl trip at Louisiana State, an Atlantic Coast Conference (A.C.C.) championship at North Carolina State, an Aloha Bowl appearance at Wake Forest, and a bowl game at Ohio State.

His coaching pedigree was shaped by serving on the staffs of an impressive list of head coaches—Jim Caldwell (Wake Forest), John Cooper (Ohio State), Bill Mallory (Indiana, Colorado, and Miami, OH.), Keith Piper (Denison), and Jerry Stovall (Louisiana State).

Belu ended his coaching career at Ohio State as offensive line coach for the Buckeyes in 2000 when they appeared in the Outback Bowl.

Prior to his stay at Ohio State, he was the running-game coordinator at Wake Forest where the Demon Deacons rushing attack made the second biggest improvement in A.C.C. history, jumping from 65.4 yards per game to 175.7 yards per outing the following season.

Before landing at Wake Forest, Belu spent 13 seasons at Indiana as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. The Hoosiers appeared in six postseason games (All-American Bowl, Copper Bowl, Independence Bowl, Liberty Bowl, Peach Bowl twice) during Belu's tenure.

Belu's lengthy stay at Indiana was preceded by stops at Louisiana State (1980-83), North Carolina State (1979), Colorado (1974-78), Miami (1973), and Denison (1968-72).

During Belu's tenures, Louisiana State reached the Orange Bowl in 1982, N.C. State won the A.C.C. title in 1979, Colorado was co-champion of the Big Eight Conference in 1976 and earned bids to the Orange (1976) and Astro-Bluebonnet (1975) bowls, and Miami's 11-0 squad won the Mid-American Conference championship and a berth in the Tangerine Bowl in 1973.

Belu, a Lorain, OH native who holds bachelors of science and masters in education from Ohio University, is a member of the Lorain Football Sports Hall of Fame.

He is married to his wife Janet and the couple has two sons, David and Thomas, two daughters, Kathleen and Rebecca, and seven grandchildren.

SCOUT

Don Corzine enters his fourth season with the Cardinals and his first scouting the eastern region of the country after being promoted to an area scout in 2008. Corzine spent his first three years with Arizona scouting the northeast region while also serving as the Cardinals representative with the National Football Scouting service after being hired in 2005.

Corzine joined the organization after spending the previous six seasons on the University of Connecticut football staff, including the last five as the Director of Football Operations. As the director, he oversaw official and unofficial recruiting visits, team travel, high school coach relations, preseason camp, player housing, budgetary matters, and day-to-day operations. He joined the UConn staff in March, 1999 as a defensive assistant while also handling the recruiting coordinator duties. In addition to his duties as Director of Football Operations at UConn, he also served as the director of UConn Head Coach Randy Edsall's Football Camp for six years.

A 1998 graduate of Indiana University with a degree in Sports Management, Corzine began his football career during high school, evaluating college players for the Cleveland Browns. While an undergraduate at IU, Corzine served in a variety of positions as a student assistant. From 1994-97, he served under then head coach Bill Mallory. In his first year, Corzine worked with the linebackers, under Joe Novak, before shifting for the last three years to the position of video coordinator while also helping to coach the defensive backs under Doug Mallory and then Jon Harbaugh. While at Indiana, he worked closely with the recruiting coordinator in the evaluation of prospects and coached at the Bill Mallory Football Camp. In 1998 Corzine served as an intern for Harold Mauro, Indiana's Senior Associate Athletic Director.

A North Canton, OH native, Corzine got his first job out of college as a graduate assistant/video coordinator at Ball State University for the 1998 season under Bill Lynch before moving onto UConn the following year.

Born May 13, 1976, Corzine resides in Warwick, RI.

DRU GRIGSON

COLLEGE: Northern Iowa
HOMETOWN: Highland, IN CARDINAL SEASON: 1st
NFL SEASON: 1st

SCOUT

Dru Grigson begins his first season with the Cardinals after joining the team in June, 2008 as a college scout. He came to Arizona after spending a year with the Montreal Alouettes in the CFL as a scout. His primary area of responsibility with Arizona will be scouting the central and southeast regions of the country.

A Highland, IN native, Grigson was a linebacker/defensive end at New Mexico State from 1997-1999 before transferring to the University of Northern Iowa in 2000. He finished his collegiate playing career at William Penn University in 2002 as he recorded 54 tackles, 11 tackles for loss, two sacks, one forced fumble and two pass deflections.

He signed as a rookie free agent with the Minnesota Vikings in 2003 and attended training camp with the Ottawa Renegades in the CFL in 2004.

Prior to joining the Alouettes in 2007, he was a volunteer scout for the Philadelphia Eagles in 2005-2006 and worked with his brother, Ryan, the Director of Scouting for the Eagles.

He is a certified strength and conditioning coach and has trained NFL prospects and current pro players. He assisted the Northwestern University speed and strength program in 2004.

Grigson, 29, graduated from Northern Iowa with a bachelor's degree in General Studies in 2002 and resides in Chicago, IL.

JERRY HARDAWAY

COLLEGE: Southern Illinois
HOMETOWN: Memphis, TN
CARDINAL SEASON: 20th
NFL SEASON: 21st

SCOUT

Jerry Hardaway, who has coached extensively at the collegiate and high school levels, begins his 20th season with the Cardinals and 21st in the NFL with a primary responsibility for scouting the eastern half of the country.

Hardaway, who returned to the Cardinals' organization in 1996 after a one-year hiatus (1995) as an area scout for the expansion Carolina Panthers, has handled regional scouting the past five years after working the previous four years as the Cardinals' national scouting coordinator.

He coached running backs and the defensive secondary during a three-year tenure at the University of California (1984-86) under former NFL quarterback Joe Kapp where he was utilized in national recruiting efforts.

Prior to joining the Cal staff, Hardaway spent six seasons (1978-83) under the late legendary Head Coach Eddie Robinson as running backs and special-teams coach at Grambling State. During Hardaway's stay, the Tigers registered a 49-14-4 composite record and four conference championships.

Hardaway began his collegiate coaching career at Memphis State under current Carolina Panthers wide receiver coach Richard Williamson, where he tutored tight ends, offensive tackles, and special teams from 1975-77.

He also coached on the high school level, serving as head coach of Bolton High School in Memphis-Arlington, TN in 1974 and head coach and athletic director at his alma mater, Salesian Prep, in Richmond, CA prior to joining the Cardinals the first time.

As a player, Hardaway lettered as a fullback and tight end at Southern Illinois University (S.I.U.) where he was named co-captain in 1973.

Hardaway, born in Memphis, TN but reared in Richmond, CA, graduated from S.I.U. with a bachelor's degree in speech education in 1974. He also earned a master's degree in sports administration from Grambling State in 1979.

DAVE RAZZANO

COLLEGE: California State-Hayward

HOMETOWN: Sharon, PA

CARDINAL SEASON: 3rd

NFL SEASON: 21st

SCOUT

Dave Razzano enters his third season with the Cardinals and his 21st in the NFL after he was hired by the team to scout the western region of the country in 2006.

Razzano joined the Cardinals two years ago after spending the previous 14 years with the St. Louis Rams in their scouting department as a college scout. He started his NFL career in the scouting department of the San Francisco 49ers for four seasons (1988-1991).

A 1987 graduate of California State-Hayward with a degree in sociology, Razzano also played college football as a running back for Sierra Community College in Rocklin, CA before transferring to Cal-State Hayward.

Born in Sharon, PA, Razzano got his start for the 49ers under his father, the late Tony Razzano. His father scouted in pro football for over 30 years while Dave has experience in college scouting, pro personnel and NFL Draft coordination over the past 20 years.

Born July 11, 1959, Razzano and his wife, Thu, live in Roseville, CA, with their four children, Matthew, Jay, Lily, and Guy.

TOM REED

COLLEGE: Kentucky

HOMETOWN: Louisville, KY

CARDINAL SEASON: 1st

NFL SEASON: 10th

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Tom Reed begins his 10th year in the NFL and first season as the Cardinals head athletic trainer after being hired to the position in June, 2008.

Reed came to the Cardinals after working the previous nine seasons (1999-2007) as an assistant athletic trainer with the Atlanta Falcons.

Born in Madison, WI and raised in Louisville, KY, Reed began his full-time training career as an assistant athletic trainer at Miami (OH) University from 1996-99 working with football, men's basketball, soccer, and track and field before joining the Falcons for the 1999 season.

Reed played football for the University of Louisville in 1988-89 before transferring to the University of Kentucky where he finished his degree in exercise science and kinesiology in 1994. He did post-baccalaureate work in facilities management while working as a rehabilitation coordinator with the football team during his time at Kentucky. While in graduate school, Reed also served as a rehabilitation and therapeutic modalities instructor at Miami's athletic training curriculum program.

The 37-year old Reed completed summer internships with the Falcons in 1994 and 1995 and was a Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) scholarship winner in 1994.

Reed and his wife, Nicole, reside in the Phoenix area with their sons, Jackson and Jameson Elliott.

FREDDIE CARABAJAL

COLLEGE: New Mexico
HOMETOWN: Melbourne, FL
CARDINAL SEASON: 6th
NFL SEASON: 6th

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Freddie Carabajal enters his sixth season on the Cardinals training staff after being hired as a full-time member in 2003.

Born in Melbourne, FL, Carabajal graduated from the University of New Mexico with a degree in athletic training in 1996 and subsequently added a master's degree in sports administration in 2001.

During and after his undergraduate days, however, he was an annual training camp intern for the Cardinals from 1996-1999, during which time he also served as a graduate assistant to his alma mater's training staff from 1997-98.

Following his stay in Albuquerque, Carabajal served as head athletic trainer for the New Mexico Scorpions of the Western Professional Hockey League from 1998-99, then held a similar position along with duties as equipment and road manager for the New Mexico Slam of the International Basketball League through their 2000 season.

In 2001, Carabajal was named head trainer for the Rhein Fire of the NFL Europe League, a position he maintained through the 2003 season while also serving as a seasonal intern for the Cardinals once the Fire's season was completed.

Carabajal, his wife Paula and their daughter Mia reside in Maricopa, AZ.

JEFF HERNDON

COLLEGE: Missouri
HOMETOWN: Hallsville, MO
CARDINAL SEASON: 23rd
NFL SEASON: 23rd

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeff Herndon enters his 23rd season on the Cardinals' training staff.

Herndon, fellow assistant trainer Jim Shearer, and head trainer John Omohundro were named the National Football League's 1993 athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) and recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

Herndon earned a master's degree in physical education from Syracuse University in 1985 after completing his undergraduate work at the University of Missouri.

The Hallsville, MO native first worked with the Cardinals during the 1984 and '85 preseason training camps. He followed that initiation as an athletic trainer at Tascosa High School in Amarillo, TX from 1985-86 before rejoining the Cardinals fulltime in 1986.

Herndon and his wife, Gail, reside in Gilbert, AZ with their daughter, Elsa.

JIM SHEARER

HOMETOWN: Worland, WY
CARDINAL SEASON: 35th
NFL SEASON: 35th

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jim "The Machine" Shearer enters his 35th year with the Cardinals, assisting in all aspects of the training and medical areas.

Shearer has been on the field for 679 NFL games, including preseason and postseason since joining the Cardinals in 1974.

Shearer, along with fellow assistant Jeff Herndon, and head trainer John Omohundro were named the National Football League's 1993 athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) and recognized for that achieve-

A graduate of the University of Wyoming with a bachelor's degree in physical education, Shearer worked in Gillette, WY as the city's assistant recreation director and head trainer at Gillette High School before returning to Wyoming as a graduate assistant trainer in 1973-74.

Born in Worland, WY, Shearer and his wife, Nelma, have a son, Christopher, and a daughter, Sarah. The family resides in Tempe, AZ.

JOHN OMOHUNDRO

HOMETOWN: Salt Lake City, UT
NFL SEASON: 42nd

SENIOR ADVISOR TO SPORTS MEDICINE

In June of 2008, John Omohundro stepped down from his role as head athletic trainer with the team, a position he held for 36 seasons. He will, however, continue to serve the club as Senior Advisor to Sports Medicine.

Omohundro held the distinction as the longest-tenured head athletic trainer in the National Football League and has been with the Cardinals for the past 41 seasons in all. Including preseason and playoff appearances, Omohundro worked 814 Cardinals games over the course of his time with the club. When the Cardinals took the field at home against Seattle on 9/16/07, Omohundro celebrated his 800th NFL game, including preseason and postseason.

Earlier this past offseason, Omohundro was awarded the 2008 Fain-Cain Memorial Award at the NFL's scouting combine. The award is given by the NFL Teams Physician's Society to a member of the Pro Football Athletic Trainers Society who "best reflects the virtues of a certified athletic trainer and displays the highest level of professionalism."

Omohundro and staff were recognized in 1993 when they were named the National Football League's athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS). They were recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

During high school, Omohundro's career in athletics and life-long love affair with baseball began wholesomely as the winner of a contest to become bat boy for the Pacific Coast League Salt Lake City Bees in his hometown. Omohundro soon became a jack-of-all-trades around the Bees' clubhouse in the late 1950s and early '60s with future major leaguers like Sam McDowell, Dick Hall, and Dick Stuart, and performing as a clubhouse assistant, traveling secretary, and assistant trainer for future San Francisco Giants head trainer Al Wylder.

Omohundro began his undergraduate studies while serving as head trainer at the College of Southern Utah from 1961-62. He spent 1962-65 in Laramie, WY at the University of Wyoming, serving as a student athletic trainer during his undergraduate studies. After earning his bachelor's degree in physical education/allied health sciences in 1965, Omohundro remained as a graduate assistant trainer.

He also served six years as a sergeant in the U.S. Army Reserve as a senior medical specialist, including one stint on active duty from January-June, 1967 before beginning his long association with the Cardinals in time for the 1967 football season.

He served as the team's assistant trainer for four seasons (1967-70) before his promotion to head trainer in 1971.

Omohundro has taken an active role in his professional associations throughout his career. He served PFATS as secretary/treasurer from 1976-82, followed by a two-year term as the National Football Conference representative. He also is the former member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) Ethics Committee. In 1993, NATA named Omohundro recipient of its 25-year distinguished service award. Omohundro also is a former chairman of the Missouri State Athletic Trainer Advisory Committee.

Omohundro is a member of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame, and a member of the International Narcotics Officers' Association.

In 1999, Seton Catholic High School in Chandler, AZ honored Omohundro's support and fund-raising efforts for the school's baseball program by naming its field "John Omohundro Field." The field was rededicated to Omohundro this past February.

Omohundro, wife Martha and sons John and Jim reside in Tempe, AZ while daughter Neely resides in St. Louis, MO.

NFL SEASON: 21st

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Steve Christensen enters his 21st year as the Cardinals' assistant equipment manager, assisting department head Mark Ahlemeier in all phases of the team's logistical and equipment preparations.

Born in St. Cloud, MN, Christensen attended Bozeman (MT) High School before enrolling at New Mexico State University and later Western Montana College to study art education.

After working at both schools as a student equipment manager, Christensen was appointed to the equipment staff at Arizona State University as an assistant in 1982. He remained with the Sun Devils until joining the Cardinals in June of 1988 shortly after the team's arrival in Arizona. The father of one daughter, Kelsey, Christensen resides in Chandler, AZ.

ROBERT BRAKEL

COLLEGE: Robert Morris

HOMETOWN: Morristown, NJ

NFL SEASON: 11th

VIDEO DIRECTOR

Robert Brakel begins his second season with the Cardinals as video director after being hired to the position in June, 2007. The Morristown, NJ native joined Arizona last year after spending the previous nine seasons as a video assistant with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

With the Steelers, Brakel was part of the Super Bowl XL staff in addition to working three AFC Championship games and two Pro Bowls.

In 2001, Brakel served as video director for the World Bowl Champion Berlin Thunder of NFL Europe. His duties included shooting all practices and games both home and away and producing cut-ups for the coaching staff.

As a student at Robert Morris University, Brakel was the video coordinator for the football team from 1996-98 and for the hockey team from 1997-98. He received bachelor's degrees from the school in sports management and communications before joining the Steelers in 1998.

CARDINALS PARTICIPATE IN PAT'S RUN

A team of over 35 Arizona Cardinals players, coaches and staff were among the thousands of participants in the fourth annual "Pat's Run" on Saturday, April 19, 2007.

Among those who ran on the Cardinals team were head coach Ken Whisenhunt, assistants Ron Aiken (defensive line) and Matt Raich (defensive assistant) and a number of players, including cornerback Michael Adams, wide receiver Steve Breaston, safety Oliver Celestin, safety Aaron Francisco, punter Dirk Johnson, cornerback DeMario Minter, wide receiver Sean Morey, wide receiver Jamaica Rector, tight end Alex Shor, and defensive end Antonio Smith.

The group took part in the 4.2 mile run/walk which finished on the 42-yard line of Sun Devil Stadium.

The event is one of the primary fundraising events for the Pat Tillman Foundation which was created in honor of former Cardinals and Arizona State football standout.

Pat's Run raises funds for The Pat Tillman Foundation's flagship program, Leadership Through Action™ at the W.P. Carey School of Business at ASU, which develops the leadership skills of carefully selected "Tillman Scholars." The program helps guide the students to identify their passions and develop concrete solutions to society's problems.

ARIZONA AND DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

Every year people across the country turn their clocks ahead in the spring and back in the fall, except in Arizona.

Although Arizona stays on standard time throughout the year, never changing their clocks forward or setting them back, the time change, or lack thereof, does affect the Cardinals' local kickoff times during the season.

In 2008, daylight saving time was observed on the second Sunday in March (March 9) and ends on the first Sunday in November (November 2). When daylight saving time is in effect, Arizona is three hours behind the east coast making a 4 p.m. kickoff in New York a 1 p.m. kickoff in Arizona.

However, when daylight saving time ends, Arizona is only two hours behind the east coast, making a 4 p.m. kickoff in New York a 2 p.m. kickoff in Arizona.

In 1967 the Uniform Time Act was instituted, putting the entire country on daylight saving time. After one year, states could opt out if they wanted and Arizona went back to standard time and stayed there. Residents and lawmakers of Arizona knew there was an abundance of sunshine and did not see the need to move their clocks ahead in order to save any. The only other state that does not observe Daylight Saving Time is Hawaii.

NOTE CARDS

- A Pro Bowler in his first season with the Cards in 2004, Berry has notched 14.5 sacks in the last three campaigns combined—all cut short due to injury. Missed the final eight contests of 2005 (pectoral), the last six of 2006 (triceps) and the last seven of 2007 (triceps).
- Earned his first career Pro Bowl berth in 2004 after leading the NFC in sacks with 14.5 (second in NFL behind Indy's Dwight Freeney with 16.0).
- Berry's 14.5 sacks in 2004 ranked as the Cardinals third-highest single-season sack total behind Simeon Rice (16.5, 1999) and Curtis Greer (16.0, 1983).
- Claimed second place in the Cardinals record books for sacks in a game with 4.0 sacks vs. New York Giants on 11/14/04, half a sack shy of the single-game record set by Curtis Greer vs. Philadelphia on 12/18/83.
- Spent the 2000 season out of football but returned to the NFL with the Denver Broncos after receiving a tryout on New Year's Day 2001; spent the next three seasons with the Broncos before signing a free agent contract with the Cardinals on 3/6/04.

Pro Career:

Regarded as one of the best free-agent acquisitions in Cardinals history, Berry signed a five-year contract with Arizona on 3/6/04. Since then, he has recorded 29.0 sacks in his 43 starts during his four seasons with the Cardinals. Originally a third-round draft selection by the Colts as a linebacker, Berry converted to defensive end and played three seasons in Indianapolis before spending the 2000 season out of football after being released by the St. Louis Rams on 8/20/00. After a brief stint with the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League, Berry signed with the Denver Broncos on 1/3/01. Berry has ended the last three seasons on the injured reserve list, the last two with freak triceps injuries that occurred against the same opponent (Detroit) at almost the same time in the season. Renegotiated his contract with the Cardinals on 2/20/07 to allow team additional flexibility in free agency.

2007: Started all nine games played in 2007 before an injury (triceps) ended his season for the third year in a row ... recorded a half sack of QB Alex Smith that forced a fumble which was recovered by the Cardinals and led to an Edgerrin James touchdown to put Arizona up 10-7 in the season opener @ SF (9/10) ... recovered a Steve McNair fumble at the Baltimore 35-yard line that led to a Neil Rackers field goal @ Bal (9/23) ... registered a half sack of QB Ben Roethlisberger vs. Pit (9/30) and helped hold Willie Parker, the NFL's leading rusher heading into the game, to just 37 yards on 19 carries ... recorded second sack of the season @ StL (10/7) which marked eighth sack in last 10 games; Gus Frerotte became the 33rd different quarterback he has sacked during his career ... was part of defense that held Washington to 160 total net yards (73 yards rushing, 87 yards passing) @ Was (10/21); lowest output by a Cardinals opponent since the L.A. Rams had 152 yards total offense on 9/4/94 ... recorded a half sack and two quarterback pressures before leaving the game in the fourth quarter with a season-ending triceps injury vs. Det (11/11); with the half sack, Jon Kitna (5.5) became the quarterback Berry has sacked the most throughout his career ... placed on injured reserve on 11/13/07.

2006: Started all 10 games in which he appeared while collecting six sacks in the last five games he played before being placed on injured reserve with a triceps injury ... recorded one tackle and three QB pressures in the season opener vs. SF (9/10) ... recorded two tackles, one tackle for a loss and had four QB pressures while helping to hold Chiefs running back Larry

Johnson to only 36 yards rushing vs. KC (10/8) ... chalked up his first sack of the season when he brought down Bears QB Rex Grossman, forcing and recovering a fumble which led to a FG vs. Chi (10/16) ... had his best game of the season with five tackles, three sacks of QB Andrew Walter, two forced fumbles (third in two games) and one pass defended @ Oak (10/22) ... turned in an outstanding performance vs. Det (11/19) when he recorded three tackles, including two sacks of QB Jon Kitna and one tackle for a loss; provided a huge defensive lift when the Lions had a first-and goal from the Cardinals one-yard line as he tackled Detroit running back Arlen Harris for a two-yard loss on first down and then sacked Kitna on third down to force a field goal; left the game with a triceps injury ... placed on injured reserve on 11/23/06.

2005: Recorded six sacks in the first eight games of the season before suffering a torn pectoral muscle vs. Sea (11/6); spent the rest of the season on injured reserve ... recorded his first sack of the season against Eli Manning @ NYG (9/11) and added three solo tackles in the game ... recorded two sacks on Rams QB Marc Bulger vs. STL (9/18) to extend his streak of consecutive games with a sack to three ... recorded five stops @ Sea (9/25) as well as three QB pressures and one tackle for a loss ... recorded one sack each of QBs Tim Rattay and Alex Smith and forced a fumble vs. SF (10/2); it marked his 15th sack in the last 13 games ... recorded one sack on Drew Bledsoe, five tackles, and recovered one fumble @ Dal (10/30) ... recorded two tackles before leaving the game with a pectoral injury vs. Sea (11/6) ... inactive @ Det (11/13) ... placed on injured reserve on 11/15 (pectoral).

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

In 2005, Berry established the "Bertrand Berry Foundation." The non-profit foundation was created to help provide children with better life experiences by providing them an opportunity to make a difference. The foundation's signature event is its golf tournament and gala, followed by a dinner and auction and football camp for children. The third annual celebrity weekend was held this past March and included former and current athletes including Pro Bowlers, Super Bowl Champions and Hall of Famers.

The beneficiaries of Berry's Celebrity Weekend are the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, ChildHelp USA, and the Big Brothers, Big Sisters of Arizona.

Berry hosted his fourth annual "B Train's Holiday Express" at a Phoenix Wal-Mart last December. Along with 23 of his teammates, Berry shopped with 50 needy children from ChildHelp USA to assist them in spending $100 for themselves or family members during the holiday season.

In addition to his foundation work, Berry has been very active in participating in Cardinals community efforts. Along with his wife, Shellie, Bertrand has been part of a group from the Cardinals to visit sick children at the Phoenix Children's Hospital during the annual "Teddy Bear Express" program. The Cardinals group handed out personalized teddy bears to children in the pediatric unit during the holiday season.

Bertrand Berry went from being a third-round draft pick in 1997, to spending a year out of football in 2000, to enjoying the beaches of Hawaii in the Pro Bowl in 2004. Here's how he made it happen:

- Drafted by Indianapolis in the third-round (86th overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft
- Converted from linebacker to defensive end
- Signed with the St. Louis Rams on July 20, 2000 but was released on August 20
- After a brief stint with the Edmonton Eskimos of the CFL, contemplated life without football until the Denver Broncos called to schedule a workout on New Years Day 2001
- Signed with the Broncos on Jan. 3, 2001
- Signed with the Cardinals on March 6, 2004 after three seasons with the Broncos
- Named to his first Pro Bowl after posting an NFC high 14.5 sacks in 2004

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

In Troy Bienemann's first season in Arizona, he made his mark in the Valley community. Bienemann was one of the most active participants in the Cardinals and SRP "Milk and Cookies" reading program throughout the entire season as well as making countless appearance at Cardinals Kids Camps.

Bienemann also took some time during the season to participate at the 2007 Cardinals and United Way "Hometown Huddle" to host 100 students and 25 members of the Special Olympics of Arizona for a kids camp at the Cardinals training facility. During the holiday season, Bienemann also took part in the Cardinals "Teddy Bear Express" program, making a visit to Phoenix Children's Hospital to hand out personalized teddy bears to children. This past spring, he spoke at the "Youth Action 2008" conference to youth football coaches and administrators on the importance of nutrition, health and safety.

ARIZONA CARDINALS PREPARATORY ACADEMY

The Arizona Cardinals Football Club and Cardinals Charities along with founding partner, The University of Phoenix, have teamed up with the Washington Elementary School District and Communities in Schools of Arizona to develop a small school learning environment within a public school district known as the Arizona Cardinals Preparatory Academy.

The Academy, located in north central Phoenix, opened in August of 2007 with its first class of fifth and sixth grade students. Grades seven and eight will be added in the next two years.

The Academy offers accelerated instruction to help students focus on learning and achieve success that they might not otherwise be able to accomplish. The community partnership is designed to deliver a support model that addresses the non-educational barriers to staying in school.

- Became the fastest player in NFL history to reach 400 career receptions when he hit the milestone vs. Atlanta (12/23/07) in his 67th career game, five games faster than the previous record holder—Hall of Famer Kellen Winslow Sr.
- Boldin's 413 catches in his first 68 career games are the most ever by an NFL receiver in that span.
- Reached 5,004 receiving yards at Cincinnati on 11/18/07 in his 63rd career game, tying him with Torry Holt as the fifth fastest receiver in NFL history to reach the 5,000-yard mark. Only Lance Alworth (who did it in 52 games), Charley Hennigan (59), Randy Moss (59) and Jerry Rice (61) accomplished the feat in less games than Boldin and Holt.
- Established a new single-season high with nine touchdown receptions in 2007 despite only playing in 12 games.
- Caught a career-high 14 passes for 181 yards in Baltimore on 9/23/07; his 14 receptions rank as the second-highest single game total in franchise history (Sonny Randle 16, 11/4/62 @ NYG).
- His two 100-yard receiving games in 2007 gave him 21 for his career, good for second on the Cardinals all-time list, one short of tying Jackie Smith (22) for first place.
- Selected as one of five team captains (offense) by his teammates prior to the 2007 season.
- Earned his second Pro Bowl selection in 2006, and is one of only five Cardinal receivers to garner multiple Pro Bowl nods: Larry Fitzgerald (2005, 2007), Roy Green (1983-84), Mel Gray (1974-77) and Sonny Randle (1960-62, 1965).
- Reached the 4,000-yard receiving mark in his 48th career game and became the third fastest player in NFL history to reach the milestone behind Lance Alworth (42) and Randy Moss (47); Charley Hennigan and Jerry Rice also did it in 48 games.
- Owns three of the ten best receiving yardage seasons in Cardinals history.
- Eclipsed the 1,000-yard receiving mark in 2006, the third time he had done so in his first four years in the NFL (2003, '05, '06). RB Edgerrin James topped 1,000 yards rushing to give the Cards a 1,000-yard rusher and receiver in the same season for just the fifth time ever and first time since 1998 (RB Adrian Murrell & WR Frank Sanders).
- Despite missing two games in the middle of the 2005 season, caught 102 passes, breaking his previous personal best and franchise record of 101 (2003). Only surpassed by Larry Fitzgerald who caught 103 passes in 2005.
- Set a new franchise mark in 2005 with five consecutive games with at least 100 yards receiving.
- In 2005, Boldin and Fitzgerald became only the second tandem in NFL history to top 100 receptions and 1,400 receiving yards in the same season (Detroit's Herman Moore and Brett Perriman in 1995).
- Boldin and Fitzgerald eclipsed the franchise record for 100-yard receiving games in a season, combining for 15 in 2005, the previous record was 11 (2001).
- In 2003, set NFL rookie records for most pass receptions (101); most receiving yards—first NFL game (217); and the Cardinals single-season receptions record (101) en route to Offensive Rookie-of-the-Year honors that season.

Pro Bowl Selection:

Pro Career:

A second-round draft choice and the sixth receiver taken in the 2003 NFL Draft, Boldin became the most prolific rookie receiver in league annals with 101 receptions, which broke the previous NFL record of 90 (New England's Terry Glenn, 1996). The only rookie selected to the Pro Bowl in 2003, Boldin recorded five 100-yard games in his rookie year. Missed the first six games of 2004 with a knee injury suffered in training camp. In 2005, caught 102 passes for 1,402 yards and seven touchdowns while becoming the franchise leader in consecutive games with 100 or more yards receiving with five. In 2005, he and Larry Fitzgerald became the second tandem of receivers with 100 receptions and 1,400 yards in a season (Detroit's Herman Moore and Brett Perriman in 1995). In 2006, he earned the second Pro Bowl selection of his career after putting up 83 receptions for 1,203 yards and four touchdowns. Had a career-high nine TD receptions in 2007.

2007: Started 11 of 12 games played due to injuries but still registered 71 receptions for 853 yards and a career-high nine TDs while serving as one of five team captains ... became the fastest player in NFL history to reach 400 career receptions (67 games) ... tied Torry Holt as the fastest player to reach 5,000 career receiving yards (63 games) ... recorded four receptions for 22 yards and one touchdown reception while registering one carry for 14 yards in the season opener @ SF (9/10); for the third time in four season openers (missed first six games of 2004 season due to injured knee) Boldin registered a TD (1 vs. SF 9/10/06, 2 @ Det 9/7/03) ... recorded 350th reception of his career in the home opener vs. Sea (9/16) ... registered a career-high 14 receptions for 181 yards as well as tying a career-high with two TDs @ Bal (9/23); 181 yards receiving is the second-most of his career behind the 217 yards @ Det (9/7/03); Boldin's 14 receptions were the second most in team history behind Sonny Randle (16, 11/4/62 @ NYG) and the second highest single-game total in the NFL in 2007; marked first time he registered two receiving TDs in a game since 11/23/03 vs. StL ... inactive (hip) for the first time in 26 games vs. Pit (9/30) ... after missing three games with hip injury, recorded eight receptions for 29 yards and tied career-high with two TDs @ Was (10/21); marks first time he has two TDs in consecutive games and the first time he has totaled two multiple TD games in one season since 2003 ... in 63rd game eclipsed 5,000 career receiving yards while registering four receptions for 71 yards and a 44-yard touchdown @ Cin (11/18); tied with Torry Holt as the fifth-fastest receiver in NFL history to reach 5,000-receiving yards ... recorded two receptions for 25 yards before an injured toe forced him to leave the game late in the third quarter vs. Cle (12/2) ... after being limited in practice all week came off the bench for the second time in his pro career (66 games played) and led team with six receptions for 83 yards @ NO (12/16) ... led team with 13 receptions (second most in career) for 162 yards (third highest total of career) with two TDs vs. Atl (12/23) to become the fastest player to reach 400 career receptions in NFL history; marked second 100-yard receiving game of the season and 21st of career to be one behind Jackie Smith (1963-77) for first in franchise history; third time in 2007 he has recorded multiple TDs in a game, had only two multi-TD games in his career which both came in 2003 ... recorded one TD vs. StL (12/30) to set a new single season career-high with nine TDs, topping the eight he registered as a rookie in 2003; along with Larry Fitzgerald became the first teammates in NFL history to record performances of 11+ catches and 160+ receiving yards in consecutive weeks (Boldin, 13 for 162 and 2 TDs vs. Atl 12/23; Fitzgerald 11 for 171 and 2 TDs vs. StL 12/30).

BOLDIN COLLECTING 100'S

Boldin had two 100-yard receiving games in 2007, giving him 21 for his career. He now sits one game behind Jackie Smith for a share of the franchise lead.

Larry Fitzgerald added four 100-yard games in 2007, totaling 13 for his career, good for a tie with J.T. Smith for seventh place.

2006: For the third time in four years went over 1,000 yards receiving and was also selected to the Pro Bowl for the second time in his career ... hauled in four passes for 62 yards with his first catch of the season being a six-yard TD from Kurt Warner in the first quarter of the season opener vs. SF (9/10) ... hauled in 10 passes for 129 yards vs. StL (9/24), marking his 11th game in a row with at least three catches and 60 yards receiving ...

BOLDIN REACHES 5,000

With his second reception of the game against Cincinnati (11/18/07), Boldin reached 5,004 receiving yards in his 63rd career game, tying him with Torry Holt as the fifth fastest receiver in NFL history to reach the 5,000-yard mark. Only Lance Alworth (who did it in 52 games), Charley Hennigan (59), Randy Moss (59) and Jerry Rice (61) accomplished the feat in less games than Boldin and Holt.

Below is a list of receivers who have reached 5,000 yards the quickest:

Player	Team	# of Games
Lance Alworth	San Diego Chargers	52
Charley Hennigan	Houston Oilers	59
Randy Moss	Minnesota Vikings	59
Jerry Rice	San Francisco 49ers	61
ANQUAN BOLDIN	ARIZONA CARDINALS	63
Torry Holt	St. Louis Rams	63

In 2004, Boldin established his foundation, "Q81" which is dedicated to expanding the educational and life opportunities for underprivileged children in both Arizona and his home state of Florida. Money raised through the foundation helps provide technology and materials for schools in low-income areas, college scholarships for high school graduates, and food and clothing for children. The goal is to provide athletes, parents, and coaches a spiritual outlet through sports and to develop within each athlete strong values and attitudes.

Throughout the past couple of years, Boldin and his foundation have worked closely with West Valley Child Crisis Center in Glendale to provide temporary homes to children who are abused or are at risk for abuse, while also working with Glendale's Independence High School to provide opportunities for the student athletes that they normally wouldn't have.

Boldin's involvement with Independence H.S. first started in July of 2005 when he offered two free football camps at the school, using his Cardinal teammates as guest instructors. He then "adopted" the entire football team and made surprise visits to their practices and their games throughout the season. In 2005, Boldin donated game tickets for the entire team. Later in the year the football team received $10,000--$5,000 from Boldin personally and the other $5,000 from the NFL Youth Football Fund with Boldin's assistance.

This past April, Boldin held his fourth annual "Q Fest" in his hometown of Pahokee, Florida where residents were able to watch a celebrity basketball game, get autographs, and take part in a fun day at the park. Boldin, along with Cardinals teammates and other stars from around the NFL, joined together in Florida to help raise money for the foundation and the community of Pahokee.

The Cardinals 2004 Walter Payton "Man of the Year" and his foundation, along with the University of Phoenix, created a scholarship program to help graduating students attend college. Each year, six full-tuition scholarships are offered to help high school graduates and single parents in Florida and Arizona achieve the goal of higher education.

After the destruction of Hurricane Katrina in 2005, Boldin, along with several teammates, visited hurricane refugees that were displaced to Phoenix. He helped serve food and drinks to the Louisiana residents while also donating money to the Hurricane Relief Disaster Fund.

Each year, Boldin and his foundation host free youth football camps in Arizona and Florida at various high schools to benefit 400 children in grades 3-12 by teaching them about the fundamentals of football while also focusing on education. Boldin also donates t-shirts and duffel bags at each camp in addition to providing autographs for all of the campers.

Boldin held his fourth annual charity dinner last November at Canal restaurant in Scottsdale, raising money to benefit his foundation.

THE TERRIFIC TWOSOME

Anquan Boldin and Larry Fitzgerald have each gone over 100 yards receiving in the same game five times since they began playing together in 2004. Against Minnesota in 2006, the duo became the first teammates in team history to record 140 or more yards in the same game.

The Cardinals have had two or more receivers go over 100-yards in the same game 29 times, but none as frequently as Boldin and Fitzgerald.

TWICE OVER THE CENTURY MARK

Anquan Boldin and Larry Fitzgerald have both recorded a pair of 100-catch seasons in their NFL careers. Boldin had 101 in 2003 and 102 in 2005. Fitzgerald hit 103 in 2005 and 100 in 2007. In NFL history there have been 57 total 100-catch seasons accomplished by 41 different players. Boldin and Fitzgerald are two of just 11 players to record more than one 100-catch season (see list below) and the only two to have hit 100 twice in their first four seasons.

BOLDIN AND FITZGERALD IN TOP 10

After collecting 71 receptions in 2007 despite starting only 11 games due to injury, Boldin now sits seventh on the Cardinals all-time career receptions list with 413. He needs just six more receptions to pass Bobby Joe Conrad (1958-68) for sixth place.

With his second 100-reception season this year, Larry Fitzgerald jumped into the top 10 with 330 career receptions, passing Sonny Randle.

NOTE CARDS

- Expected by many to go early in the first round of the 2007 NFL Draft, Arizona traded up (sent fourth-rounder to Oakland) to select Branch with the first pick in the second round.
- Returned to the southwest when he joined the Cardinals, having grown up in Rio Rancho, NM; in high school, played both offensive and defensive lines, as well as running back, quarterback, and punt returner.
- Was a college teammate of Cardinals defensive tackle Gabe Watson and wide receiver Steve Breaston.

Pro Career:

Drafted in the second round (33rd overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft, Branch appeared in the season's final 11 contests after missing the early part of the year with a hand injury suffered in training camp.

2007: Played in the season's final 11 games after suffering a hand injury in training camp ... inactive (hand) for the first two games of the season ... saw first career action but did not register any statistics vs. Car (10/14) ... recorded one quarterback hit vs. Cle (12/2) and @ Sea (12/9) ... totaled season-high three tackles @ NO (12/16) which tied for most among defensive linemen ... registered first career pass defended vs. StL (12/30).

College:

Entered the 2007 Draft following his junior season at Michigan ... All-Big Ten Conference first-team choice by the league's coaches and media as a junior ... started all 13 games at left defensive tackle for Michigan's #1 rush defense, allowing only 43.3 yards-per-game ... the team also ranked 10th nationally allowing 268.3 yards-per-game in total offense ... recorded 25 tackles (17 solos) with two sacks for minus 16 yards, six stops for losses of 23 yards and two pressures ... was the recipient of the Richard Katcher Award, given to Michigan's top defensive lineman as a sophomore ... saw action in all 12 games, starting the final 10 ... lined up at nose tackle for 3 games before shifting to left defensive end for his final seven starts ... appeared in 12 games as a reserve defensive end as a freshman.

Personal:

Full name Alan Keith Branch ... attended Cibola (Rio Rancho, NM) High School where he was standout two-way lineman and fullback ... named Gatorade Player of the Year in New Mexico, earning all-State and all-District accolades as a junior and senior ... picked up team MVP honors both of those seasons ... recorded over 200 tackles with 15 stops behind the line of scrimmage, including six sacks, forced four fumbles with two recoveries and one interception in his career ... also returned five punts for touchdowns ... in addition to football, he lettered three times in basketball, picking up all-District first-team and all-State second-team honors as a junior.

WIDE RECEIVER / 6-0 / 189

NOTE CARDS

- With his 73-yard punt return for a touchdown vs. Pit (9/30), became the first Cardinals rookie with a punt return for a TD since Vai Sikahema in 1986.
- Appeared in all 16 games in his rookie season, collecting 1,786 combined return yards, the fourth-highest total in franchise history.
- Holds Big Ten career records for punt returns (127) and yards (1,599) while at Michigan.

Pro Career:

Drafted in the fifth round (142nd overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft, Breaston appeared in all 16 games in his rookie year, returning kickoffs and punts while also appearing at wide receiver. Breaston's 73-yard punt return for a touchdown against the Steelers in week four was the first punt return for a touchdown for the Cardinals since 1993, earning him NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors.

2007: Played in all 16 games as the primary kick and punt returner recording 1,786 combined return yards, the fourth highest amount in a season in franchise history ... totaled four punt returns for a career-high 101 yards while registering first career touchdown on a 73-yard punt return vs. Pit (9/30); became the first Cardinals rookie with a punt return touchdown since Vai Sikahema in 1986, and it was the longest since a 76-yard touchdown by Sikahema in 1987 while also marking the first punt return for a touchdown for the Cardinals since they played @ Was on 9/12/93 when Johnny Bailey returned a Reggie Roby punt 58 yards; earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week becoming only the fourth Cardinal rookie to earn a Player of the Week award ... registered first career carry for 10 yards while returning five kickoffs for a 24.6-yard average vs. Car (10/14); returned at least one kick off for 33 yards or more in three out of the last four games ... registered second longest punt return of the season (46 yards) that set up a touchdown and his second longest kickoff return (52) vs. Det (11/11) ... hauled in first two career receptions for 24 yards and opened fourth quarter with career long 59-yard kickoff return to set up a Neil Rackers field goal that made it 24-18 with 12:10 left vs. Cle (12/2) ... set career-high with four receptions for 52 yards @ Sea (12/9) ... saved a touchdown on a Falcon fake punt with his first career tackle vs. Atl (12/23).

College:

Left school as the Big Ten's all-time leader in punt returns (127) and punt return yards (1,599), Breaston appeared in 48 games for the Wolverines with 25 starts ... a multi-purpose threat, he scored on kickoff returns (1), punt returns (4), as a receiver (10) and running the ball (2), while amassing 5,609 all-purpose yards during his career ... was an all-Big Ten Conference first-team selection as an all-purpose back by The NFL Draft Report after ranking third in the conference in punt returns and third in kickoff returns as a senior ... started 12 of 13 games at split end and led the team with a career-high 58 receptions for 670 yards and two touchdowns ... as a junior, was the recipient of the U-M Athletic Academic Achievement Award and became the first player in U-M history to gain 1,000 return yards (1,002) in a season and finished third on the team with 26 receptions for 291 yards and two touchdowns, adding 101 yards on 10 carries (10.1 avg.) ... as a sophomore, played in 11 games, finishing third on the team with 34 receptions for 291 yards (8.6 avg.) and three touchdowns ... gained 292 yards with one touchdown on 24 punt returns, ranking third in the Big Ten Conference with a 12.3-yard average ... added 689 yards on 28 kickoff returns (24.6 avg.), both good for school season-records, giving him 1,348 all-purpose yards on the season, an average of 122.5 yards-per-game ... earned Big Ten Conference co-Freshman of the Year honors from the league's coaches, Scripps/Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-American selection as a receiver, Sports Illustrated All-American honorable mention as a return specialist and was a member of the College Football News' Freshman All-American second-team ... saw action in 13 games, and ranked third in the Big Ten with 13.8 yards-per-punt return as he set Michigan season records in punt returns (45) and yards (619) ... scored two touchdowns on punt returns, ranked second on the team in receiving touchdowns (three), third in receiving yards (444) and fourth in receptions (38), averaging 11.7 yards-per-catch ... amassed 1,319 all-purpose yards, an average of 101.4 yards-per-game.

RETURNING A LONG WAY

Fifth-round pick Steve Breaston proved a major spark for the Cardinals in the kick and punt return games as a rookie in 2007.

With his 395 punt return yards, he finished seventh all-time on the Cardinals single-season punt return list. Breaston's 395 punt return yards were the most for a returner since Arnold Jackson recorded 461 yards in 2001.

Single Season Punt Return Yardage

Yards	Player(Year)
550	Vai Sikahema (1987)
522	Vai Sikahema (1986)
462	Kevin Williams (1997)
461	Arnold Jackson (2001)
445	Stump Mitchell (1981)
433	Vai Sikahema (1989)
395	STEVE BREASTON (2007)

Breaston's 73-yard punt return for a touchdown against the Steelers in week four was the first for the Cardinals since 9/12/93 at Washington when Johnny Bailey returned a Reggie Roby punt 58 yards. He became the first Cardinals rookie with a punt return touchdown since Vai Sikahema in 1986 and his 73-yarder was the longest since a 76-yard touchdown by Sikahema in 1987.

Combine Breaston's punt return yards with his 1,391 kickoff return yards and his 1,786 combined return yards marked the fourth-highest total in team history.

DE BERTRAND BERRY WINS ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

Defensive end Bertrand Berry was named the 2007 recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award, given to the player from each NFL team who best exemplifies the principles of sportsmanship and courage in the face of adversity.

In his fourth season with the Cardinals in 2007, Berry returned to the playing field after tearing his right triceps muscle in the 10th game of the 2006 season. His hard work and dedication in the offseason to return from the injury resulted in him starting the first nine games of this season at defensive end until he tore his left triceps muscle this past November.

He is also one of the most active and charitable players in the community, volunteering his time for youths around the Valley and having an active role in Arizona through his "Bertrand Berry" foundation.

The Ed Block Courage Award is given out each year in a vote by teammates to one player on each of the 32 NFL teams.

Recipients from all 32 NFL teams received the honor at the 30th Annual Ed Block Courage Awards on March 11, 2008 in Baltimore, MD. All proceeds from the event in March benefited the Foundation's Courage House National Support Network.

The award is named after Ed Block, the former head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts. For 23 years, Block was a pioneer in his profession and a respected humanitarian whose most passionate cause was helping children of abuse.

NFL INTERNATIONAL PRACTICE SQUAD PROGRAM

The Cardinals, along with teams from the NFC West, NFC South, AFC North and AFC West have been selected to participate in the fifth-year of the NFL's International Practice Squad Program featuring 16 of the best international players from around the world.

This past June, Mexican linebacker Eduardo Castaneda was selected to join the Cardinals practice squad for the 2008 season.

This is the second time the Cardinals have participated in the International Practice Squad Program after having Mexican guard Rolando Cantu in 2004.

Cantu graduated from the program after that season and was elevated to the active roster in 2005 where he appeared in the team's season finale at Indianapolis, becoming the first Mexican born non-kicker to appear in a NFL regular season game. He is now retired from football and serves as the team's manager of international business ventures.

"The practice squad program was an excellent experience for me," said Cantu. "The exposure to the NFL environment and having an entire year with a team really pushes you to perform at a high level."

More than 100 players competed at NFL International Player Development camps held in Europe and Asia over the past 12 months for the right to be selected for the program.

This year's class brings the total number of participants to 38 since the program's inception in 2004.

- Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the first time in his career after he collected two interceptions, a pass defended, four tackles, and a forced fumble against Detroit on 11/11/07.
- Established a new career-high with 17 total tackles in the week five contest at St. Louis on 10/7/07.
- Missed the entire 2006 preseason and regular season opener recovering from toe/leg injuries; played in 14 games (10 starts) and finished second on the team with 94 tackles while also establishing a career high with 8.0 sacks.
- His 8.0 sacks in 2006 were the most by a Cardinals LB since Ken Harvey had 9.5 in 1993.
- Recorded 103 tackles in his second season in the NFL in 2005, adding four sacks and three interceptions.
- The Cardinals placed the "non-exclusive" franchise tag on Dansby following the 2007 season, the first time they have used the tag on a player since 2002 (Kwame Lassiter).

Pro Career:

The Cardinals second-round draft choice in 2004 (33rd overall), Dansby made an immediate impact on defense as a rookie and has continued to impress as he heads into his fifth season. In 2005, he became the first Cardinal linebacker to record two interception returns for touchdowns in a single season and finished the year with the first 100+ tackle season of his career with 103. He followed that by finishing 2006 with 94 tackles and eight sacks, both good for second on the team, despite missing two games due to injury. Dansby returned in 2007 and, despite missing two starts due to a knee injury, led the team in tackles with a career-high 117. The Cardinals designated him a "non-exclusive" franchise player on 2/14/08, keeping him with the team through the 2008 season.

2007: Started all 14 games he played and led team with 117 tackles, marking second season with 100+ tackles (103 in 2005) ... led the team with 12 total tackles, half a sack and one forced fumble in season opener @ SF (9/10) ... registered one tackle for loss, one quarterback pressure and a career-high tying two sacks, including a fourth quarter, third-down sack of Kyle Boller that forced a punt with 5:40 to play; resulted in an Arizona drive to set up a Neil Rackers 41-yard FG that tied the game with 1:58 left @ Bal (9/23) ... recorded first pass defended of the season vs. Pit (9/30) as well as helped hold Willie Parker, the NFL's leading rusher heading into the game, to just 37 yards on 19 carries ... led Cardinals with career-high 17 total tackles and 13 unassisted tackles including one tackle for loss and recorded 300th career tackle @ StL (10/7) ... in 50th career game, tallied one unassisted tackle before leaving in the first quarter due to a knee injury vs. Car (10/14) ... in first game back from knee injury, turned in an outstanding game with two interceptions, one forced fumble, one pass defended, four tackles, one quarterback pressure and one tackle for loss vs. Det (11/11); named NFC Defensive Player of the Week; marked the second multi-interception outing of career with the first coming against NYG (9/11/05); helped hold Lions to -18 rushing yards, which is the lowest total in the modern era ... registered an interception @ Cin (11/18) to mark the first time in his career he has recorded an interception in consecutive games ... for third time in 2007, led team with 13 tackles and one forced fumble @ Sea (12/9) ... registered his fifth double-digit tackle game of the season and third in last four games with 10 tackles and one forced fumble that would result in Cardinals offensive touchdown @ NO (12/16) as well as eclipsing 100 tackles for second time in career (103 in 2005).

2006: After battling numerous injuries which caused him to miss training camp, returned to action @ Sea (9/17) and collected two tackles and one pass defended ... had his best game since returning from his injury, tying Cardinals season highs with nine solo tackles, two sacks of QB Damon Huard and a forced fumble vs. KC (10/8) ... received his first start of the year when he got the nod vs. Chi (10/16), and recorded five tackles ... had a strong game starting at strongside linebacker with two tackles, a sack of QB Andrew Walter and a fumble recovery before leaving the game in the second quarter with a hip flexor @ Oak (10/22) ... inactive (hip) @ GB (10/29) ... returned to action by establishing a career-high with 12 tackles while also adding one pass defended vs. Dal (11/12); eclipsed the 200-career tackle mark ... for the second time in 2006, piled up 10 tackles and added two sacks in a game, this time bringing down Brad Johnson @ Min (11/26) ... led the team and tied a personal-high with 12 tackles in a standout performance vs. Sea (12/10); had one pass defended, one tackle for a loss and forced a Mack Strong fumble in the third quarter that led to the Cardinals retaking a lead they would never relinquish on a Larry Fitzgerald TD catch ... shared the team lead in tackles with eight while also adding an Alex Smith sack and a forced fumble @ SF (12/24) ... recorded eight tackles, one tackle for a loss and earned his third multi-sack game of the season @ SD (12/31) bringing down QB Philip Rivers twice.

2005: Had a career day in the Cardinals' 2005 season opener @ NYG (9/11) recording two interceptions, including one that was returned 18 yards for a touchdown; sacked Eli Manning and also recorded three solo tackles ... recorded his second sack in as many games taking down Rams QB Marc Bulger for a nine yard loss in the fourth quarter vs. StL (9/18) ... tied his then career-high with 10 tackles for the second time in three weeks vs. Car (10/9); recorded one pass defended and a forced fumble recovered by Ross Kolodziej ... had a big day vs. Ten (10/23) setting a new career-high for tackles (11) and sacked Titans QB Billy Volek, forcing and recovering a Volek fumble in the process ... recorded two tackles before leaving the game with a groin injury @ Det (11/13) ... deactivated with a groin injury @ StL (11/20) ... returned to start vs. Jax (11/27) and recorded nine tackles ... recorded three tackles, a sack of QB Alex Smith

DANSBY AT IT AGAIN

Dansby bolstered the Cardinals with a career-high 117 tackles, 3.5 sacks, three interceptions and three forced fumbles in 2007, despite missing two starts due to a knee injury.

Dansby was responsible for 65 tackles, three interceptions, a sack, six passes defended and three forced fumbles in the eight games he played after returning from the knee injury.

In his first game back after missing games seven and eight, Dansby collected two interceptions, a pass defended, four tackles and a crucial forced fumble, earning him the NFC Defensive Player of the Week award vs. Detroit. It also marked the second multi-interception outing of Dansby's career, the first coming in the season opener at New York, when he returned one for a touchdown against the Giants on 9/11/05.

Dansby's third quarter interception in Cincinnati in week 11 gave him an interception in consecutive games for the first time in his career and three over a period of two weeks. That interception led to a three-yard Edgerrin James touchdown run that gave the Cardinals a 28-13 lead.

In all, Dansby was responsible for four turnovers in games nine and 10, resulting in 17 Arizona points.

and defended two passes @ SF (12/4) ... intercepted Eagles QB Mike McMahon and returned it 11 yards for a touchdown, his second of the season; added five tackles and one pass defense vs. Phi (12/24); his two interception returns for a touchdown are the most by a Cardinals linebacker in one season ... recorded a team-high 10 tackles @ Ind (1/1) to finish the season with 103 tackles, the first 100-tackle season of his career.

2004: Made an immediate impact on the Cardinals defense after being selected in the second-round of the 2004 draft ... named to Pro Football Weekly's 2004 All-Rookie team ... started 12 games while accumulating 68 tackles, the most of any rookie on the team ... recorded three fumble recoveries, one shy of the team rookie record for fumble recoveries set by Tom Wham with the Chicago Cardinals in 1949 ... played in a reserve role in the season opener @ StL (9/12) and recorded four tackles on defense and one stop on special teams ... recorded the first start and sack of his career @ Atl (9/26) when he took down Michael Vick early in the third quarter to force the Falcons into a third-and-14 situation; also recovered a Vick fumble in the Arizona redzone ... became a regular starter with his second consecutive start vs. NO (10/3); recorded two tackles and one QB hurry ... recorded four tackles and a fumble recovery @ SF (10/10) ... did not record any tackles on defense but his presence was felt after intercepting a Matt Hasselbeck pass by out-leaping Jerramy Stevens in the second quarter to set up Neil Rackers second 55-yard field goal of the game vs. Sea (10/24) ... recovered his third fumble of the season @ Mia (11/7) when DE Bertrand Berry sacked Dolphins QB Jay Fiedler forcing a fumble; sacked Dolphins QB A.J. Feeley for his second sack of the season ... sacked Kurt Warner twice and made four stops and one pass defended vs. NYG (11/14) to raise his season total to 4.0 sacks ... deactivated for the contest @ Car (11/21) due to a neck and shoulder injury sustained against the Giants the previous week ... recorded a team-high eight tackles vs. StL (12/19) and one tackle for a loss, a sack of QB Jamie Martin and forced a Rams fumble ... had one of the best days of his young career in the 2004 season finale with seven stops, and one QB pressure which led to Darnell Dockett's interception vs. TB (1/2).

College:

Butkus Award semi-finalist regarded as one of the premier defenders in college football ... began Auburn career at strong safety, shifting to outside linebacker as a sophomore ... in 36 games for the Tigers, recorded 218 tackles (128 solos) with 10 quarterback sacks for minus 70 yards, 31 stops for losses of 123 yards, seven forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, 15 pass deflections, and eight interceptions for 107 yards in returns. Pro Bowl Selection:

Pro Career:

Establishing himself as one of the top young players in the NFL, Dockett emerged as a 15-game starter for the Cardinals in his rookie season and has started all 48 games the last three years. The Cardinals third round draft choice (64th overall) in 2004, Dockett was named to the All-Rookie team that season by Pro Football Weekly and was named to his first Pro Bowl following the 2007 season.

2007: A Pro Bowl selection, started all 16 games for third straight year while recording nine sacks which led NFL interior defensive linemen; led or tied for lead in tackles among Arizona defensive linemen in 11 of 16 games in 2007 ... led defensive line with six tackles, one sack and one tackle for loss in season opener @ SF (9/10) ... for second straight week led d-line with five tackles while also recovering the fumble that led to the Neil Rackers game winning 42-yard field goal in the home opener vs. Sea (9/16); ... tallied 1.5 sacks, one quarterback pressure and forced Steve McNair to fumble, leading to a Rackers field goal @ Bal (9/23) ... led team with career-high 2.5 sacks and eight unassisted tackles (nine total) tied for second highest single-game total in career; his 2.5 sacks gave him 5.0 sacks through the first four games while his previous season-high was 3.5 in his rookie year of 2004 ... recorded one sack and two quarterback hits vs. Car (10/14) ... led defensive line with 10 tackles and career-high nine unassisted tackles as well as two sacks and three quarterback pressures @ TB (11/4) ... recorded three quarterback hits and recovered a Jon Kitna fumble at the end of the third quarter that would lead to a Cards touchdown to make it 31-14 vs. Det (11/11); helped hold Lions to -18 rushing yards, the lowest total in the modern era ... recorded one quarterback pressure, one quarterback hit and one sack vs. StL (12/30) to give him nine sacks on the season.

2006: Was a 16-game starter for the second consecutive season ... recovered a Vernon Davis fumble in the first quarter of the season opener vs. SF (9/10) which set up a TD that gave the Cards a 21-7 lead ... had a career and game high 12 tackles @ Sea (9/17); sacked Matt Hasselbeck on the first snap of the game, his fifth career sack, and added a tackle for loss @ Sea (9/17) ... paced all defensive linemen with five tackles, including one for a loss vs. StL (9/24) while helping to hold RB Steven Jackson to a 2.6 yard rushing average ... signed a five-year contract extension on 10/13 that will keep him under contract with the Cardinals through 2011... had an outstanding performance vs. Chi (10/16) on Monday Night Football, recording three tackles, an interception and a fumble recovery while helping to hold the Bears to 34 yards rushing ... paced the defensive line for the fifth time in '06 with a solid effort vs. Sea (12/10) when he totaled seven tackles, one tackle for a loss and a Matt Hasselbeck sack which forced a fumble recovered by the Cardinals ... had one pass defended, two QB pressures and two QB hits, while part of a defensive line that limited Frank Gore, the NFC's leading rusher, to just 51 yards rushing @ SF (12/24).

2005: Started all 16 games at under tackle ... recorded both a sack and an interception of QB Marc Bulger in the home opener vs. StL (9/18); picked off Bulger on a fumbled exchange between Bulger and Steven Jackson and sacked him to end the first half ... recorded five solo stops including one for a loss and split a sack of QB Billy Volek with DE Chike Okefor vs. Ten (10/23) ... recorded four tackles and forced a fumble @ SF (12/4) ... recorded four tackles vs. Was (12/11) and @ Hou (12/18) ... recorded seven tackles and a pass defended vs. Phi (12/24).

2004: Started every game but one (@ Sea 12/26) at under tackle ... recorded his first career start in his NFL debut @ StL (9/12) while notching two solo tackles ... led the team in total tackles with seven @ Atl (9/26), also recorded a forced fumble when he stopped Falcons running back Warrick Dunn on the Atlanta 17-yard line ... tallied four tackles, and his first career sack against San Francisco quarterback Tim Rattay @ SF (10/10) ... recorded his second sack of the season on Dolphins QB Jay Fiedler @ Mia (11/7); on third-and-goal from the Arizona four yard line, sacked Fiedler for a loss of seven yards which forced the Dolphins to kick a field goal; finished the game with two tackles and a QB pressure ... recorded five tackles and one QB hit @ Car (11/21) ... recorded two tackles and added a half sack and one QB pressure vs. NYJ (11/28) ... had a career day in the 2004 season finale vs. TB (1/2) recording two tackles for loss, a sack of QB Chris Simms, one interception which he returned 20 yards, even as his helmet was pulled off by a Buccaneer; also recorded a fumble recovery of a botched snap by Chris Simms in the third quarter which set up a Cardinals field goal attempt; became only the third rookie in NFL history to record a sack, interception and defensive fumble recovery in the same game, Ray Farmer did it for the Eagles on 12/1/96 (vs. Giants) and Aundray Bruce did it for the Falcons on 11/20/88 (vs. Raiders).

DISRUPTION FROM THE INSIDE

Entering 2007, Darnell Dockett had collected a total of 6.0 sacks in his career and had never accumulated a multi-sack game in his first three seasons. In his fourth year, Dockett collected 9.0 sacks and accumulated three multi-sack performances. His 9.0 sacks led all NFL interior linemen and led him to his Pro Bowl selection in 2007.

It was a breakout year for the fourth-year pro. Below is a breakdown of Dockett's sack totals from his first three years in the NFL compared to his performance in 2007.

Sack Totals 2004-06
Year	Sacks	GP/GS
2004	3.5	16/15
2005	0.5	16/16
2006	2.0	16/16

Sack Total 2007
Sacks	GP/GS
9.0	16/16

Dockett led all Cardinals defensive linemen with 75 tackles, 22 more than his previous single season high of 53 established in 2006. He has also recorded three tackles-for-loss, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, 14 QB hits and eight QB pressures.

His sack total in 2007 not only led all NFL interior defensive linemen, it tied Mark Smith (1998) for the second-highest total in franchise history by an interior lineman (David Galloway, 12, 1983). Below is a look at the top sack totals by Card interior defensive linemen since the stat became official in 1982.

AN UNCLE'S INSPIRATION

Faced with unspeakable tragedy at an early age, Darnell Dockett remembers a time when he thought he was more likely to end up in prison or dead than in the NFL. He credits his uncle, Kevin, as the one individual responsible for turning his life around.

At the age of 13, Darnell arrived home to find the body of his mother, Cheryl Hambrick, who had been killed by a gunshot to the head. Shortly thereafter, Darnell moved from Decatur, GA to Maryland to be with his father, Darnell Sr., who was dying of pancreatic cancer.

Only a few months after moving in with his father, Darnell Sr. passed away and Darnell became an orphan. That's when Kevin Dockett, his father's brother, took him into his Burtonsville, MD home and probably saved his life. Additional challenges would follow but he credits his uncle with providing a foundation and instilling a sense of perspective that enabled him to meet and move past each of them.

Tattooed on Darnell's right forearm is a poem of gratitude to his uncle:

*For believing in me when no one else would.
When the odds were against me, beside me you stood.
For being my friend, brother, confidant and father.
Because of you I know blood is thicker than water.
Words can't express my gratitude, nor any amount of money.
From the bottom of my heart, thank you and I love you Donny*

NOTE CARDS

- Signed a four-year contract on 3/11/08 that will keep him in a Cardinals uniform through the 2011 season.
- Earned his second Pro Bowl selection in 2007 after leading the NFC in both receptions (100) and receiving yards (1,409) while tying a career-high with 10 touchdown receptions. Became the fifth Cardinal receiver with multiple Pro Bowl appearances: Anquan Boldin (2003, 2006), Roy Green (1983-84), Mel Gray (1974-77) and Sonny Randle (1960-62, 1965).
- Led the Cardinals in receptions in 2007 with 100, the third time he has led the team in receptions in the four seasons he has been in Arizona.
- In 2007, tied the franchise record with at least one touchdown in five consecutive games.
- His 10 touchdown receptions in 2007 give him 34 for his career, the most by a Cardinal player since the team moved to Arizona in 1988.
- Has started all 60 games in which he has appeared since being selected by Arizona with the third overall pick in the 2004 Draft. Only players taken ahead of him were QB Eli Manning (#1 to San Diego) and OT Robert Gallery (#2 to Oakland).
- Has 13 career 100-yard receiving days; the most recent one came in the 2007 season finale vs. St. Louis when he caught 11 passes for 171 yards and two touchdowns. His 171 receiving yards fell just one yard shy of tying his career-high.
- His 103 receptions in 2005 set a new franchise single-season mark, breaking Anquan Boldin's previous mark of 101 set in 2003.
- Earned his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2005; that year led the Cardinals in receptions (103) for the second consecutive season, as well as yards (1,409) and touchdowns (10).
- In 2005, Fitzgerald and Boldin became only the second tandem in NFL history to top 100 receptions and 1,400 receiving yards in the same season (Detroit's Herman Moore and Brett Perriman in 1995).
- At 22 years, 123 days became the youngest receiver in NFL history to record a 100-catch campaign when he reached the milestone @ Indy on 1/1/06.

Pro Bowl Selection:

Pro Career:

Selected in the first round of the 2004 Draft; was the first receiver taken and the third player overall behind QB Eli Manning (San Diego) and T Robert Gallery (Oakland). Fitzgerald was named to his first Pro Bowl in 2005 after setting a franchise record with 103 receptions, a figure that tied Carolina's Steve Smith for the NFL lead. He received his first nod as a Pro Bowl starter in 2007 after leading the NFC in both receptions (100) and receiving yards (1,409). Signed a four-year contract with the Cardinals on 3/11/08 that will keep him in Arizona through the 2011 season.

2007: Started all 15 games played and was selected as a starter for second career Pro Bowl (2005) after finishing the season atop the NFC in receptions (100) and receiving yards (1,409); recorded 100 receptions for the second time in career (103-2005) and for the fifth time in franchise history; 1,409 receiving yards in 2007 ties his own career best set in 2005 for the fourth-most in franchise history; along with Anquan Boldin became the first teammates in NFL history to record performances of 11+ catches and 160+ receiving yards in consecutive weeks (Boldin, 13 for 162 and 2 TDs vs. Atl 12/23; Fitzgerald 11 for 171 and 2 TDs vs. StL 12/30) ... recorded first 100-yard receiving game of the season and 10th of his career catching a game-high 10 passes for

120 yards and recovering a Jeff Reed onside kick vs. Pit (9/30) ... in 50th career game, led team with 11th 100-yard receiving game of his career registering 136 yards on nine receptions and first touchdown of the season while also recovering second straight onside kick @ StL (10/7); over the last two weeks has totaled 19 receptions and 256 yards for the best two-game total of his career and it marked the fourth time in his career that he has gone for 100+ yards in back-to-back games ... with Anquan Boldin sidelined due to a hip injury for the third straight week, led team with six receptions for 97 yards vs. Car (10/14) ... led team with 97 receiving yards on six receptions with a long of 43 yards @ Was (10/21) ... led team with 95 receiving yards on four receptions @ TB (11/4); first time in career he has registered five straight games with at least 95 yards receiving ... led team with 74 yards receiving on eight receptions with two touchdowns vs. Det (11/11); collected his third career multi-touchdown game and first since 12/26/04 @ Sea ... for the eighth straight week led team in receptions with nine for a season-high 156 yards and two touchdowns including longest of his career, a 48-yard TD reception to end the first half vs. SF (11/25); marked the 12th 100-yard receiving game of his career and third of the season; surpassed 1,000 receiving yards on the season for the second time in his career (1,409 in 2005); by doing it in 11 games became the second-fastest Cardinal receiver to reach the mark; his two touchdowns marked the second multi-touchdown game of the season and fourth of career while also passing Larry Centers (29, 1990-98) to record the most TDs by a Cardinal (30) since the team moved to Arizona in 1988 ... after being limited in practice for second straight week recorded an 18-yard touchdown reception @ NO (12/16) to give him at least one in each of the last five games he played, a career high ... set franchise record with 136 receiving yards in the first half and went on to register a season best 11 receptions for 171 yards (13th career 100+ yard game, fourth of 2007, tied for seventh most in team history) and two touchdowns vs. StL (12/30); teamed with Edgerrin James (102) and Kurt Warner (300) to become the first trio to record at least 100-yards receiving, 100-yards rushing and 300-yards passing in the same game since 10/7/84 @ Dal when Neil Lomax (354), Roy Green (189) and Ottis Anderson (110) achieved the feat; marked fifth career multi-TD game and third of 2007 while also totaling 10 touchdowns on the season to tie his career-best set in 2005.

2006: With 946 yards on 69 catches (six TDs), he finished just shy of his second career 1,000-yard season despite missing three starts due to injury ... for the second year in a row, opened the season with over 100 yards receiving

FITZGERALD HEADS BACK TO PRO BOWL

Fitzgerald was selected to represent the NFC as a starter in the 2008 Pro Bowl. It was the second career selection for Fitzgerald and first time that he was named as a starting wide receiver.

Fitzgerald, who was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2005 after setting a franchise record with 103 receptions, joins teammate Anquan Boldin (2003, 2006), Mel Gray (1974-77), and Roy Green (1983-84) as the only Cardinals receivers to earn multiple Pro Bowl selections. Four other receivers earned one selection - David Boston (2001), Rob Moore (1997), J.T. Smith (1988), and Pat Tilley (1980).

Fitzgerald led the NFC in both receiving yards (1,409) and receptions (100). Fitzgerald also tied his previous single-season high (set in 2005) with 10 touchdowns in 2007.

Fitzgerald's four 100-yard receiving games in 2007 have him tied (J.T. Smith) for seventh place on the franchise's career list with 13.

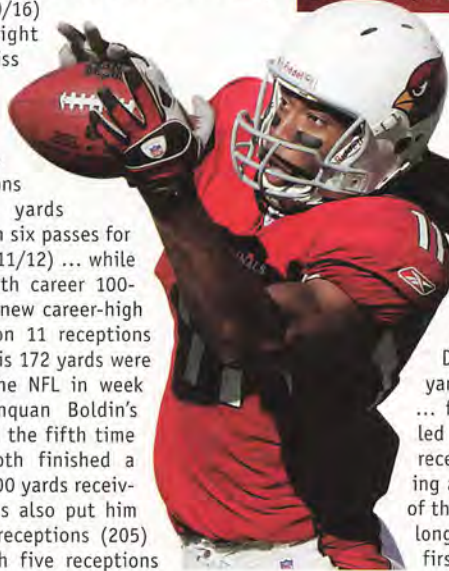

ARIZONA'S BEST

Fitzgerald's 34 career receiving touchdowns are the most by a Cardinal since the team moved to Arizona in 1988, topping Larry Centers, who had 29 (1990-98) and Anquan Boldin, who reached 29 vs. St. Louis (12/30/07).

for 46 yards while adding an 11-yard TD reception in the second quarter to give the Cardinals a 14-3 lead @ StL (12/3) ... brought in a game high seven receptions for 79 yards, including five-yard TD pass in the fourth quarter that put the Cardinals ahead for good vs. Sea (12/10) ... led the team with 77 yards on five catches vs. Den (12/17); eclipsed the 3,000 yard receiving mark for his career ... for the second game in a row, led the Cardinals with 93 yards receiving on four catches, including a six-yard TD @ SF (12/24); 57 of those 93 yards came on a career-long reception on the Cardinals first offensive drive of the game.

FITZGERALD HITS 100 AND 1,400

Fitzgerald recorded 100 receptions in 2007 despite playing in only 15 games and playing through injuries in many others. It was the second time he has collected 100+ receptions in a season (103—2005). It also marks only the fifth 100 reception season in franchise history. Fitzgerald's 100 receptions in 2007 are the fifth-most in team history and his 1,409 receiving yards tie him for fourth place all-time, tying his own 2005 total.

Fitzgerald now joins Boldin as the only receivers in franchise history with two 100-reception seasons. The fifth-year pro averaged 93.9 yards per game in 2007, the second highest total in the NFL, behind only Indianapolis's Reggie Wayne, who averaged 94.4 yards.

Fitzgerald finished the season as the NFC's leader in both receptions and receiving yards in 2007.

BOLDIN AND FITZGERALD IN TOP 10

After collecting 71 receptions in 2007 despite starting only 11 games due to injury, Boldin now sits seventh on the Cardinals all-time career receptions list with 413. He needs just six more receptions to pass Bobby Joe Conrad (1958-68) for sixth place.

With his second 100-reception season this year, Larry Fitzgerald jumped into the top 10 with 330 career receptions, passing Sonny Randle.

REPEAT SUCCESS

In the 15 games he played in his Pro Bowl season of 2007, Fitzgerald's 100 receptions for 1,409 yards virtually mirrored the success he achieved the first time he made the Pro Bowl in 2005. Starting all 16 games that year, Fitzgerald established a new franchise record with 103 receptions for an identical 1,409 yards.

Fitzgerald's 2007 yardage total tied his 2005 total for the fourth-highest receiving yardage total in franchise history.

In 2007, Fitzgerald led the NFC in both receptions and yards while in 2005, he finished tied with the most receptions and was third in yardage.

Below is a comparison of Fitzgerald's performances in 2007 and 2005.

Anquan Boldin and Larry Fitzgerald have both recorded a pair of 100-catch seasons in their NFL careers. Boldin had 101 in 2003 and 102 in 2005. Fitzgerald hit 103 in 2005 and 100 in 2007.

In NFL history there have been 57 total 100-catch seasons accomplished by 41 different players.

Boldin and Fitzgerald are two of just 11 players to record more than one 100-catch season (see list below) and the only two to have hit 100 twice in their first four seasons.

STEVE SCHOENFELD MEMORIAL PRESS BOX

The press box at University of Phoenix Stadium is named in honor of Steve Schoenfeld, who covered the team and the NFL for the Arizona Republic from 1988 until 2000 when he was killed by a hit-and-run driver.

Steve worked in Tulsa and Dallas before coming to Arizona and spent the last few months of his life covering the NFL for CBS SportsLine. A tough, but fair, reporter and an eloquent writer, he was president of the Pro Football Writers Association from 1997-99, and his untimely death stunned the league.

Steve was a loving family man as well. He was devoted to his wife, Robin, and was a loving son, brother and uncle. He cared deeply about his friends, and he seemed to have thousands of them.

Said Republic colleague and current beat writer Kent Somers, "Steve never met a stranger. He not only knew everyone, he had phone numbers for them, too - and didn't hesitate to call them. It's fitting the press box is named in honor of Steve, because to him there was no better place to be on a Sunday afternoon."

NOTE CARDS

- Helped lead the way for Edgerrin James' 1,222 yards rushing in 2007, the fifth-highest rushing total in franchise history. Also part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack in five contests, with the Cardinals going 4-1 in those games.
- Started all 16 games at left tackle in 2007 for the Cardinals, one of only two offensive linemen (Reggie Wells) to start every game. His 16 starts in '07 give him 48 consecutive starts over the last three seasons. After starting all 16 at left tackle for Buffalo in 2005, he started seven games at that spot in 2006 and another nine at left guard.
- Part of a Cardinals offensive line that allowed just 24 sacks in 2007, the fewest total allowed since 1978 (22).
- His 78 career starts have come at three different line positions: 59 at LT, 14 at LG and 5 at RG.
- Signed a three-year contract as an unrestricted free agent with the Cardinals on 4/2/07.

Pro Career:

Entered the NFL as a third-round selection (68th overall) by Chicago in the 2001 NFL Draft. Played four seasons for the Bears before being released on 11/8/04 and signed by the Bills on 3/4/05. Signed a three-year free agent contract with the Cardinals on 4/2/07.

NOTE CARDS

- For the first time in his career, started all 16 games in 2007.
- Collected a career-high 115 tackles in 2007, giving him 100+ tackles in each of his two years as a full-time starter (111 in 2006).
- After collecting one sack in the first 42 games of his NFL career, piled up four sacks in 2007.
- Selected as one of five team captains (defense) by his teammates prior to the 2007 season.
- Despite missing the final two games of the '06 season with a rib injury, still led the team in tackles (111) and went over the century mark in that category for the first time in his career. His previous high was 30 as a rookie in 2003.
- His standout play during the 2006 season earned him a five-year contract extension which he signed on 11/6/06.
- Grew up in the same Paterson, NJ neighborhood as Cardinals running back Marcel Shipp.

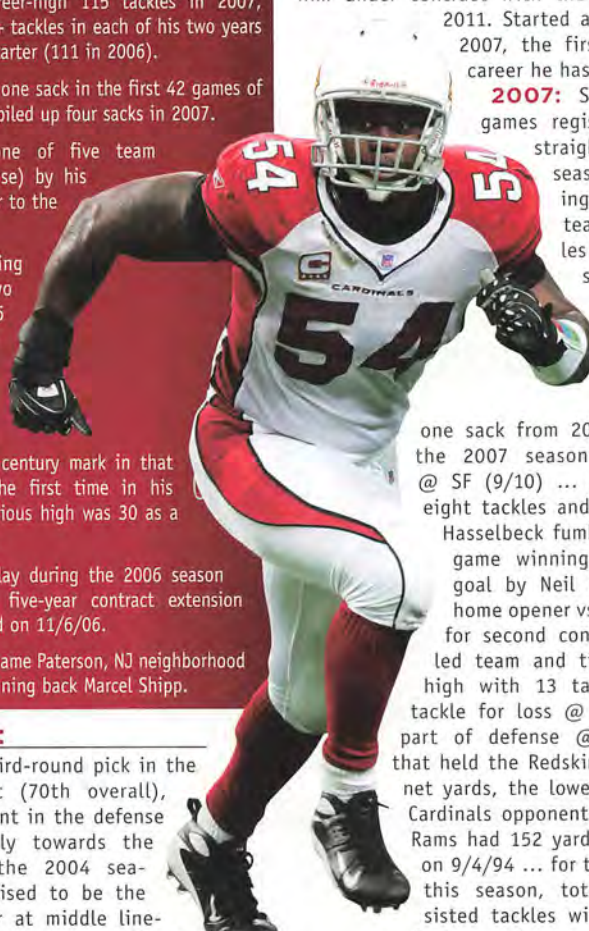

Pro Career:

The Cardinals third-round pick in the 2003 NFL Draft (70th overall), Hayes involvement in the defense rose dramatically towards the conclusion of the 2004 season. He was poised to be the Cardinals starter at middle linebacker before a knee injury suffered in the preseason opener sidelined him for the entire 2005 season. A restricted free agent, he signed a one-year qualifying offer with the Cardinals on 4/18/06. Came back in a big way in 2006, leading the team in tackles (111) despite missing the final two games. Signed a five-year extension on 11/6/06 that will keep him under contract with the team through 2011. Started all 16 games in 2007, the first time in his career he has done so.

2007: Started all 16 games registering second straight 100+ tackle season while leading or sharing the team lead in tackles in five games; selected as one of five team captains for the season ... after only recording one sack from 2003-06, opened the 2007 season with a sack @ SF (9/10) ... led team with eight tackles and forced a Matt Hasselbeck fumble that set up game winning 42-yard field goal by Neil Rackers in the home opener vs. Sea (9/16) ... for second consecutive week, led team and tied his career-high with 13 tackles and one tackle for loss @ Bal (9/23) ... part of defense @ Was (10/21) that held the Redskins to 160 total net yards, the lowest output by a Cardinals opponent since the L.A. Rams had 152 yards total offense on 9/4/94 ... for the second time this season, totaled 10 unassisted tackles with two tackles for loss and one sack @ TB (11/4) ... recorded two tackles vs. Det (11/11) and helped hold Lions to -18 rushing yards, which is the lowest total in the modern era ... led team with 14 tackles and one sack vs. SF (11/25) ... led team with 11 unassisted tackles and one sack @ NO (12/16); eclipsed 100 tackles for the second straight season (103 in 2006) ... tied for team lead with six tackles and returned a fourth quarter interception 30-yards for first career touchdown vs. StL (12/30); 115 tackles surpassed previous single season career-high of 111 tackles set in 2006; finished season second on the team in tackles, two behind Karlos Dansby.

2006: Made an impressive return to action after missing the entire 2005 regular season with a knee injury, starting all 14 games he appeared in and eclipsing the 100-tackle mark despite missing the final two games due to injury (rib) ... recorded six tackles, two tackles for loss, his first career sack and a fumble recovery while starting at MLB in the season opener vs. SF (9/10) ... continued his strong play collecting five tackles, one pass defense and his first career interception on a Matt Hasselbeck pass deep in Cardinals territory in the second quarter @ Sea (9/17) ... recorded 12 tackles, one for a loss, and also recovered his second fumble in three games vs. StL (9/24) ... turned in another strong performance, this one on Monday Night vs. Chi (10/16), collecting seven tackles and an interception off of Rex Grossman ... for the second time of the season, established a game and new career-high when he accumulated 13 total tackles @ Oak (10/22) ... reached double-digit tackles for the third time this season when he recorded 11 tackles, with one for loss vs. Dal (11/12) ... led all line-

HAYES BACK FOR MORE

Gerald Hayes had his fair share of success in 2006 and played the 2007 season at an even higher level, adding to his stature as one of the team's most reliable and dedicated performers.

Fresh off a 111-tackle performance in 2006 while in his first full season as a starter (which also earned him a five-year contract extension), Hayes was named one of the team's captains in 2007 and he played up to the billing.

Hayes finished the season by collecting a career-high 115 tackles, four double-digit tackle games and a career-high four sacks. Hayes' 115 tackles were the second most on the team, behind only Karlos Dansby, who had 117.

Hayes Highlights from 2007:

- Tackled Seattle quarterback Matt Hasselbeck with under two minutes left vs. Seattle on 9/16, forcing a fumble which the Cardinals recovered. Arizona earned its first victory of the season on Neil Rackers 42-yard FG with time expiring.
- Lost his helmet but managed to fight his way to QB Jeff Garcia for a sack in a 10 tackle, two tackles for a loss and one sack performance at Tampa Bay on 11/4.
- Established a new single-game high with 14 tackles vs. San Francisco on 11/25 while also collecting his third sack of the season.
- Collected his fourth sack of the season while also tallying a team-high 11 tackles at New Orleans on 12/16. Hayes had one career sack entering this season.
- Scored his first career touchdown in the season finale vs. St. Louis when he intercepted a Marc Bulger pass in the fourth quarter and returned it 30 yards for the TD.

backers with six tackles and his first quarter pass deflection in the Cardinals red zone was intercepted by FS Aaron Francisco at the three yard line and kept the Lions off the scoreboard vs. Det (11/19) ... tied for a team-high nine tackles and also intercepted a Marc Bulger pass to end the game after the Rams had just recovered an onside kick @ StL (12/3) ... went over 100 tackles (102) for the first time in his career when he collected seven tackles vs. Sea (12/10) ... inactive (rib) for the final two games of the season.

2005: Was inactive for the first four games of the season with a left knee injury suffered during the preseason ... placed on injured reserve on 10/6.

2004: Saw action in every game for the Cardinals ... recovered an Aaron Brooks fumble for his first career fumble recovery in the Arizona end zone to end New Orleans' first drive of the game; recorded one tackle on special teams vs. NO (10/3) ... blocked a Donnie Jones punt vs. Sea (10/24) which went out of the back of the end zone causing a safety and putting the Cardinals ahead 18-17 with 8:50 remaining in the game ... broke into the starting lineup and recorded a team-high nine tackles in his first extended defensive action; forced a Shaun Alexander fumble @ Sea (12/26).

2003: Early-season action came primarily on special teams with two tackles vs. GB (9/21) and @ Dal (10/5) ... inactive for four games with a shoulder injury ... recorded a season best five solo tackles, seven overall @ SF (12/7) ... first NFL start at outside linebacker resulted in four solo tackles and two assists vs. Car (12/14) ... reserve action @ Sea (12/21) resulted in seven tackles from scrimmage and two tackles on kick coverage units ... starting role at outside linebacker vs. Min (12/28) produced four solo tackles, two assists, two hurries and season-best three solo tackles on special teams.

College:

Three-time first-team All-Big East Conference selection at Pittsburgh ... first Panther defender to record three consecutive 100-tackle seasons since All-America linebacker Jerry Olsavsky accomplished the feat from 1986-88 ... career statistics include 387 total tackles (243 solos), 13.5 quarterback sacks, nine pass deflections, and two interceptions with starts in 36 of 44 games ... only Tom Tumulty (413, 1991-95), Hugh Green (441, 1977-80) and Arnie Weatherington (477, 1973-76) recorded more tackles in their Panther careers.

Personal:

Full name Gerald Benjamin Hayes ... close friend and former high school teammate of Cardinals running back Marcel Shipp at Passaic (NJ) County Technical Institute ... college teammate of Cardinals wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald ... as an artist in high school, won numerous awards for his pencil drawings which traveled to numerous galleries throughout New Jersey ... administration of justice major.

- One of the NFL's steadiest long snappers, Hodel has handled those duties in all 96 games over the last six seasons, the longest consecutive games played streak on the team.
- His 96 games played with the Cardinals rank second behind only Adrian Wilson (103) for the most on the team.
- Hodel and kicker Neil Rackers were college teammates at Illinois.
- Inked a four-year deal with the Cardinals on 3/12/08 that will keep him with the team through the 2011 season.

Pro Career:

A staple of the special teams unit, Hodel has managed the snapping duties in every game over the last six years. After attending training camp with the Carolina Panthers in 2001, he spent six games on the Panthers practice squad before being released on 10/24/01. He signed with the Cardinals on 10/26/01 but did not reach the field in his rookie campaign. Since then, Hodel has established himself as one of the most talented long snappers in the league.

2007: Had not missed a long snap for the Cardinals in five seasons heading into 2007 and continued that streak through all 16 games during the season ... registered one special teams tackle @ TB (11/4) ... injured left ankle on Neil Rackers' game winning 31-yard field goal vs. Atl (12/23) but did not miss a snap.

2006: Handled all long-snapping duties for the fifth straight season in Arizona ... collected one special teams tackle @ Sea (9/17); vs. KC (10/8); vs. Chi (10/16) ... collected two special teams tackles @ Oak (10/22).

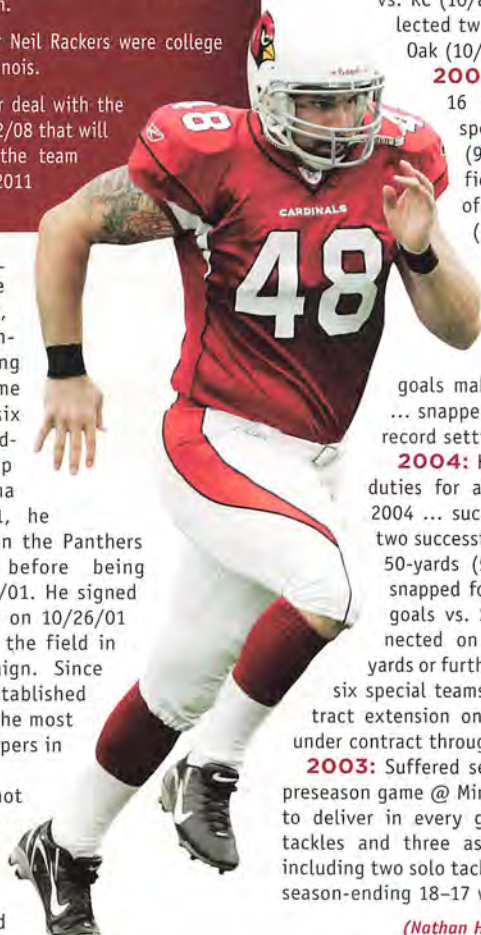

2005: Again appeared in all 16 games ... recorded one special teams tackle vs. STL (9/18) ... snapped for four field goals including two of 50 or more yards @ Sea (9/25) ... snapped on all six of Neil Rackers field goals in Mexico City vs. SF (10/2) as Rackers broke the team record for consecutive field goals making his 16th consecutive ... snapped on all 40 of Rackers NFL record setting field goals in 2005.

2004: Handled the long snapping duties for all 16 Cardinals games of 2004 ... successfully long snapped for two successful field goals from beyond 50-yards (51, 52) vs. NE (9/19) ... snapped for three 50-plus yard field goals vs. Sea (10/24), Rackers connected on three attempts from 50 yards or further (55, 55, 50) ... recorded six special teams tackles ... signed a contract extension on 11/8 that will keep him under contract through the 2007 season.

2003: Suffered separated shoulder in final preseason game @ Min (8/28) but still managed to deliver in every game ... added four solo tackles and three assists on coverage units, including two solo tackles on the punting unit in season-ending 18-17 win vs. Min (12/28).

HODEL FOUNDATION

Hodel hosted his first holiday shopping event for 25 teenagers from Homeward Bound at Target this past December. Taking over from former teammate Scott Player, Hodel, his wife Kim, and 16 of his teammates shopped with the teens who had $250 to spend on themselves and their family members for the holiday season. Homeward Bound is a non-profit organization that provides transitional housing to youth in need. They provide educational and emotional support for families scattered throughout metro Phoenix.

During training camp last summer, Hodel also took some time to hand out gift cards and visit patients at the Flagstaff Medical Center as well as helping to serve Thanksgiving dinner at the Phoenix Rescue Mission as part of the Cardinals annual "Feed the Hungry" program during the Thanksgiving holiday season.

This Spring, Nathan and Kim started the Hodel Foundation to help provide underprivileged children with enhanced educational opportunities, as well as helping children and their families in times of crisis to regain normalcy and ease their suffering.

NOTE CARDS

- Started all 16 games with the Cardinals in 2007 for the first time in his career. Prior to 2007, the most starts he accumulated in a season was six (2005).
- His five interceptions in 2007 were a career-high and matched his total from his previous four seasons (2003-06) combined.
- His 196 interception return yards were the second-most in the NFL in 2007, trailing only teammate Antrel Rolle, who totaled 231 return yards.
- Named the NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance at St. Louis in week five of the 2007 season.
- Scored two touchdowns on interception returns in 2007; a 68-yard return @ StL (10/7) that tied for the 11th longest return in franchise history and a 71-yarder vs. Cle (12/2) that stands as the eighth longest return in team history.
- Entered the league as an undrafted rookie free agent signed by the Eagles in 2003, went on to play four seasons in Philly's secondary and on special teams.
- After suffering injuries his junior and senior years in high school, walked on at Auburn and eventually earned a scholarship after converting from wide receiver to cornerback.

Pro Career:

Originally signed with Philadelphia as an undrafted rookie free agent in 2003; appeared in 56 career regular season games with the Eagles, registering 12 starts while also appearing in seven playoff contests, earning three postseason starts. Signed a five-year contract with the Cardinals on 3/10/07 as an unrestricted free agent and started all 16 games for Arizona in '07.

2007: In first season as a Cardinal, started all 16 games after winning the starting cornerback job in training camp; his 196 return yards on five interceptions were second best in the NFL this season behind Antrel Rolle's 231 return yards ... recorded career-high two interceptions as well as a team-high three pass defenses @ StL (10/7); returned the second interception 68 yards for the go-ahead touchdown in the fourth quarter to give the Cardinals a 27-20 lead and became the first Cardinal with two interceptions in a game since Karlos Dansby @ NYG (9/11/05); touchdown was Hood's first since high school and tied for the 11th longest return in franchise history ... in week seven @ Was (10/21) was part of defense that held Washington to 160 total net yards (87 yards passing), the lowest output by a Cardinals opponent since the L.A. Rams had 152 yards total offense (102 yards passing) on 9/4/94 ... recorded two interceptions and returned one 71-yards for a touchdown vs. Cle (12/2); marks the eighth longest interception return in team history; joined Antrel Rolle as first teammates to each collect two INT returns for TDs in the same season since Jerry Norton and Billy Stacy (1961) ... registered 150th career tackle @ Sea (12/9) ... intercepted a pass in own endzone in the first quarter vs. Atl (12/23) to mark his fifth of the season which is the most for a Cardinal defender since 2003 (Dexter Jackson, 6) and the most for any Cardinals cornerback since 2003 (Renaldo Hill, 5); five interceptions in 2007 matched his total from his previous four seasons (2003-06) combined.

2006: Was a key asset as the team's nickel CB and also served valuable time on special teams units in 2006 ... filled in at cornerback after starter Lito Sheppard suffered a sprained ankle in the first quarter of the season opener @ Hou (9/10) ... recorded his first career sack when he took down Cowboys QB Tony Romo @ Dal (12/25), while also recovering a fumble in that contest ... started both postseason games for the Eagles, a win over Dal (1/7) and a loss @ NO (1/13), a game in which he posted six tackles and returned two kickoffs for 48 yards.

2005: Named to USA Today's "2005 All-Joe" team, a tribute to the guys who are relied on day in and day out to do the unheralded work for their teams ... intercepted a pass from 49ers QB Tim Rattay in the second quarter, returning it 17 yards vs. SF (9/18) ... set career-highs in kick returns (six) and yards (149) @ Den (10/30) ... started the final six games of the season for an injured Sheppard (ankle) ... in first start of the season picked off QB Brett Favre with 0:38 remaining in the game, securing a victory vs. GB (11/27) ... set a career-high with eight tackles and had a career-long kickoff return of 53 yards @ Stl (12/18) ... pulled down an interception off of Redskins QB Mark Brunell vs. Was (1/1).

2004: Finished 2004 with 32 tackles and a team-high three fumble recoveries on defense ... recovered a Joey Harrington fumble @ Det (9/26), leading to a touchdown on the next play ... forced Bears CB Nathan Vasher into punt returner R.W.

McQuarters who lost the ball @ Chi (10/3); Dhani Jones then recovered the ball leading to an Eagles touchdown ... intercepted Jake Delhomme vs. Car (10/17) ... returned the first two kickoffs of his career which went for a combined 74 yards, including a 45-yard @ Pit (11/7) ... recovered a muffed punt by Cowboys CB Lance Frazier @ Dal (11/15) which led to an Eagles touchdown.

2003: Tied for fifth on the Eagles in special teams tackles (21) ... subbing as the nickel cornerback, recorded four tackles and returned a fumble (forced by Michael Lewis) 27 yards @ Buf (9/28) ... recorded his first career interception vs. Was (10/6) off Patrick Ramsey, which led to an Eagles touchdown.

College:

A former walk-on at Auburn, moved to cornerback from wide receiver, the position which he tried out for with the Tigers ... played in 47 games (18 starts) recording 106 tackles and five interceptions playing left and right cornerback as well as free safety ... also registered an 11.2-yard average on 51 punt returns and 19.9 yard average on 44 kickoff returns ... earned a scholarship his sophomore season but was then converted to a safety after a coaching change ... saw playing time on defense and on special teams as a true freshman.

Personal:

Full name Roderick Hood ... attended Carver (Columbus, GA) High School ... a quarterback, wide receiver and cornerback, Hood's high school football career was marred by injuries his junior and senior season ... lettered in basketball and in track, making it to the state finals in the 4x100 ... public administration major at Auburn.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

The "Rod Hood Foundation" was started in the summer of 2008 to assist in changing mindsets that will foster characteristics synonymous with success. The foundation is committed to bridging the gap amongst youth with health or education disparities while focusing on diversity and the betterment of the human race.

Hood's main focus in his community work has been on giving back to his hometown of Columbus, GA. Over the past year, Hood spoke with 12 Columbus schools where he stressed the importance of education and character while also visiting local families with a financial contribution whose homes had been devastated in a tornado. He also hosted a "One Community, One God, One Christ" conference to help heal wounds caused by racial tension and racial divide. At that conference, Hood gave a $10,000 scholarship to a high school senior who wrote an essay on how those principles would better the community.

Each year in his hometown, Hood also hosts the "Rod Hood/United Way Football Camp" for kids ages 8-18 which provides hands-on training in all aspects of the game while emphasizing the values of hard work, perseverance, and teamwork. The fourth annual camp took place this past June hosted by Hood along with Cardinals teammates and other players from around the NFL.

ROBBIN' HOOD

The Rams were having success throwing the ball against the Cardinals on 10/7/07. That was, until Rod Hood began swiping passes and giving the ball back to the Arizona offense—or just cashing in himself.

In a performance that earned him his first career NFC Defensive Player of the Week award, Hood had two interceptions for the first time in his career when he stepped in front of a pair of Gus Frerotte passes in the second half at St. Louis (10/7). He returned the second 68 yards for the go-ahead touchdown in the fourth quarter to give the Cardinals a 27-20 lead. The return was the 13th longest in franchise history.

It was the first touchdown of Hood's NFL career and his first since high school when he was a quarterback and wide receiver at Carver High School in Columbus, GA.

Hood wasn't done there though. Seven games later, vs. Cleveland (12/2), Hood picked off two more passes, returning one 71 yards for a touchdown, the eighth longest return in franchise history.

In the season's second-to-last game, Hood picked off his fifth pass of the season, this one in the Arizona's endzone.

Hood's five interceptions in 2007 match the total from his first four seasons in the NFL and beat his previous season-high of three, established in 2005 with Philadelphia.

NOTE CARDS

- Came to the Cardinals as an unrestricted free agent when he signed a four-year deal on 3/12/06.
- Rushed for 1,222 yards in 2007, becoming only the second running back in franchise history with back-to-back 1,000 yard seasons (Otis Anderson—1979-81, 83-84).
- His 1,222 rushing yards in '07 marked the fifth-highest total in franchise history.
- Finished 2006 with 1,159 rushing yards, becoming the first Cardinal running back to rush for 1,000 yards in a season since Adrian Murrell in 1998 and the first 1,100-yard rusher since Otis Anderson in 1984. Also set a Cardinals franchise record for carries in a season with 337.
- Enters 2008 ranked 13th on the NFL's all-time rushing yardage list and with 55 career 100+ yard rushing games, the 8th most in NFL history.
- One of just 12 players in NFL history to earn back-to-back rushing titles (1999 and 2000); also one of only five players to do it in his first two pro seasons.
- Has topped 1,000 rushing yards in seven of his nine career seasons (including the last five straight).
- Spent the first seven years of his NFL career with the Colts, who took him with the fourth overall selection in 1999 draft behind Cleveland's Tim Couch, Philly's Donovan McNabb and Cincy's Akili Smith. Left Indy as the franchise's all-time leading rusher and earned four Pro Bowl selections in his seven seasons there.

Pro Bowl Selection:

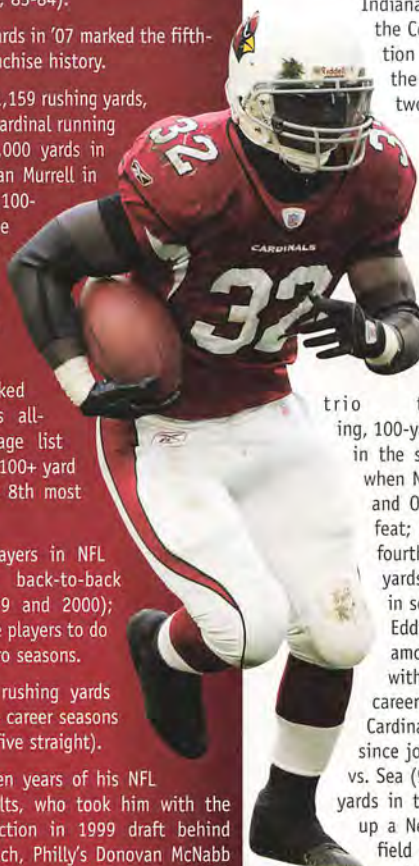

1999, 2000, 2004, 2005

Pro Career:

A four-time Pro Bowl selection, James signed a four-year contract with the Cardinals on 3/12/06 after spending seven seasons with the Indianapolis Colts. Originally drafted by the Colts with the fourth-overall selection in the 1999 NFL Draft, James was the NFL's leading rusher in his first two seasons in the league.

2007: Named a Pro Bowl alternate; started all 16 games recording 1,222 yards rushing, the fifth highest total in team history, while joining Otis Anderson as the only Cardinal running backs to record a season with 1,200+ yards; in the final game of the season (vs. StL) teamed with Larry Fitzgerald (178) and Kurt Warner (300) to become the first trio to record at least 100-yards receiving, 100-yards rushing and 300-yards passing in the same game since 10/7/84 @ Dal when Neil Lomax (354), Roy Green (189) and Otis Anderson (110) achieved the feat; finished the 2007 season ranked fourth in the NFC in rushing ... with 92 yards on 26 carries and one touchdown in season opener @ SF (9/10), passed Eddie George (10,441) to rank 17th amongst all-time NFL rushing leaders with 10,477 yards ... registered 53rd career 100-yard game and fourth as a Cardinal rushing for the most yards (128) since joining Arizona in the home opener vs. Sea (9/16); James ran four times for 22 yards in the final two minutes to help set up a Neil Rackers 42-yard game winning field goal with one second remaining ... had season-long run of 27 yards @ Bal (9/23) and his 5.7 yards per rush average was his highest as a Cardinal ... hauled in 400th career reception tion vs. Pit (9/30) ... registered a 23-yard touchdown vs. Car (10/14), his longest as a Cardinal and longest since he recorded a 30-yard touchdown @ Ten (9/19/04) ... in his 120th career game, recorded 75th rushing touchdown of career and went over 11,000 career rushing yards @ TB (11/4) ... registered one touchdown @ Cin (11/18) ... recorded fifth 100-yard rushing game as a Cardinal and 54th of career with 114 yards on 24 carries vs. Cle (12/2); passed O.J. Simpson (11,236) and Corey Dillon (11,241) to move up to 14th on the NFL all-time rushing list ... passed John Riggins to move into 13th place on the NFL's all-time rushing list with 11,353 yards @ Sea (12/9) ... hauled in 11-yard reception while rushing for 84 yards on 16 carries @ NO (12/16) to give him 1,052 yards on the season; marked seventh 1,000-yard season of his career and his second straight as a Cardinal; joined Ottis Anderson (1979-81, 1983-84) as the only Cardinal running backs to record multiple 1,000-yard seasons ... registered 55th 100-yard rushing game of career, third of the season and sixth as a Cardinal with 102 yards on 24 carries with one touchdown while also recording a 26-yard reception (longest as a Cardinal) vs. STL (12/30); James' teams are now 49-6 in games he rushes for 100+ yards (6-0 with Arizona).

2006: Started all 16 games in his first year in Arizona, becoming the first Cardinal back to rush for 1,000+ yards in a season since Adrian Murrell in 1998 ... in his Cardinal debut ran for 73 yards, including a one-yard TD in the season opener vs. SF (9/10) ... led the team in receptions with five for 31 yards while rushing for 41 yards @ Atl (10/1), marking his 100th career game ... tied the franchise record for carries in a game when he rushed 36 times for 55 yards and caught one pass for seven yards in the Monday Night contest vs. Chi (10/16) ... rushed 24 times for 84 yards and his third touchdown of the season while catching three passes for 25 yards @ GB (10/29) putting him over 3,000 career receiving yards ... recorded his first 100-yard game as a Cardinal and the 50th of his career @ STL (12/3) when he rushed for 115 yards on 26 carries... became the third fastest player in NFL history (108 games) to reach 50 100-yard games and became the Cardinals first 100-yard rusher since Nov. 24, 2004 when Emmitt Smith rushed for 106 yards vs. Seattle; reached 10,000 career rushing yards ... became the

GAINING GROUND

In 2006, James moved in the Top 20 on the NFL's all-time rushing list. He made another significant jump in 2007, moving from 18th to 13th on the list.

James began the 2007 season in 18th place but it didn't take long for him to get to 17th on the list, as he only needed 65 yards to pass both Eddie George and Tiki Barber. Against Seattle in week 14, James moved past John Riggins into the 13th spot, where he stands now with 11,607 career yards.

With another 1,000-yard season, James would move past legendary Jim Brown into eighth place on the list.

NOTE CARDS

- The Cardinals first free agent signing of 2007, agreed to a four-year contract on 3/5/07.
- Part of a line that allowed just 24 sacks in 2007, the lowest total for the franchise since 1978 (22) and also led Edgerrin James to a total of 1,222 rushing yards, the fifth-highest total in franchise history.
- Part of a line that did not allow a sack in five games in '07 with the team going 4-1 in those games.
- In 2008, purchased WSRG-FM, Star 97.7, a 6,000-watt music radio station in Sturgeon Bay (WI) near his hometown of Brussels.
- Started 31 consecutive games at center between 2004-05 for the Dallas Cowboys.

Pro Career:

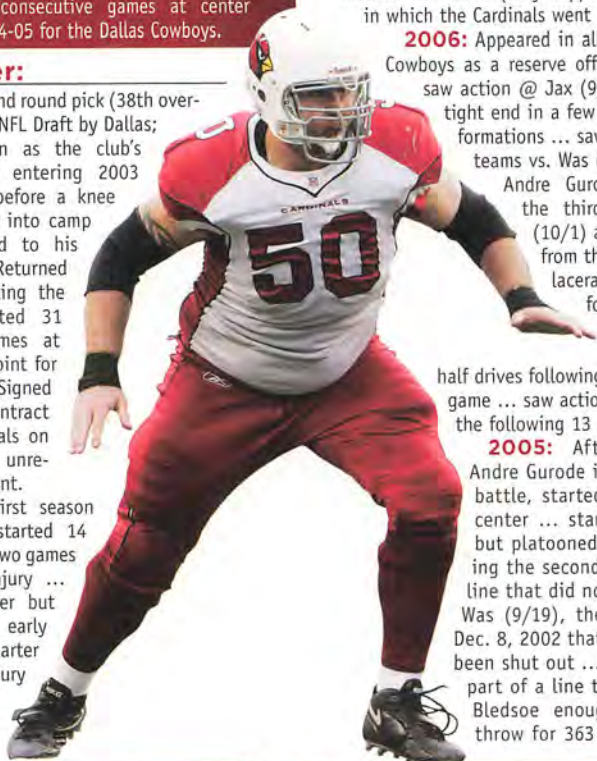

Originally a second round pick (38th overall) in the 2003 NFL Draft by Dallas; was penciled in as the club's starting center entering 2003 training camp before a knee injury one week into camp brought an end to his rookie season. Returned after rehabilitating the knee and started 31 consecutive games at center at one point for the Cowboys. Signed a four-year contract with the Cardinals on 3/5/07 as an unrestricted free agent.

2007: In first season as a Cardinal started 14 games, missing two games with a knee injury ... started at center but left the game early in the third quarter with a knee injury during the season opener @ SF (9/10) ...

returned to the starting lineup vs. Pit (9/30) for the first time since suffering a knee injury in week one ... started @ Cin (11/18) and helped team to second highest point total (35) of the season ... made 40th career start vs. SF (11/25) and helped offense rack up 552 total yards, the most by a Cardinals offense since 1949 (Chicago Cardinals, 572 yards, 11/13) ... started vs. Cle (12/2) and helped not allow a sack for the third time this season while helping Edgerrin James to his second 100+ yard rushing performance of the year ... helped Edgerrin James eclipse 1,000-yards on the season @ NO (12/16) becoming only the second Cardinal running back to record back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons (Otis Anderson 1983 and 1984) ... helped not allow a sack in the final two games of 2007 (vs. Atl 12/23, vs. StL 12/30) and a total of five times (only happened once in 2006) in which the Cardinals went 4-1.

2006: Appeared in all 16 games for the Cowboys as a reserve offensive lineman ... saw action @ Jax (9/10) as a blocking tight end in a few multiple tight end formations ... saw action on special teams vs. Was (9/17) ... replaced Andre Gurode at center in the third quarter @ Ten (10/1) after he was forced from the game with facial lacerations; the club ran for 98 yards and two touchdowns on the five second-half drives following his entry into the game ... saw action on special teams the following 13 contests.

2005: After beating out Andre Gurode in a training camp battle, started all 16 games at center ... started @ SD (9/11) but platooned with Gurode during the second half ... part of a line that did not allow a sack vs. Was (9/19), the first time since Dec. 8, 2002 that an opponent had been shut out ... @ SF (9/25) was part of a line that gave QB Drew Bledsoe enough protection to throw for 363 yards, the eighth best performance in club history, while racking up 443 yards of total offense ... the offense gained 456 yards vs. Phi (10/9), the most since gaining 541 yards on Sept. 12, 1999 @ Washington ... played his second complete game of the season vs. Ari (10/30), helping lead the way for Marion Barber who rushed for 127 yards and two scores; the Cowboys' first 100-yard rusher of the season; behind the line's protection, Bledsoe was able to post a career-best 79.2 completion percentage against the Cardinals on 19-of-24 passing ... started @ NYG (12/4) just days after undergoing knee surgery following the Denver game to clean up loose cartilage, but left in the second quarter and did not return ... again platooned with Gurode vs. KC (12/11) as the offense piled up 445 total yards, the second-best total of the season ... helped spring Julius Jones who rushed for 194 yards @ Car (12/24), the fourth best rushing performance in club history.

2004: Made his NFL debut in the second quarter @ Min (9/12), following a knee injury to Tyson Walter; the Cowboys went on to rack up 423 yards of total offense ... got the starting nod in place of Walter (knee) and helped Dallas rack up 441 yards of total offense vs. Cle (9/19) ... was again the starter, alternating quarters with Walter against NYG (10/10) as the run game amounted to 166 yards and a 5.5 yard-per-carry average ... QB Vinny Testaverde threw for 308 yards, the club's record-tying third 300-yard passing day of the season @ GB (10/24) ... the line allowed just one sack in 25 pass plays vs. Det (10/31), who entered the game as the league's top ranked defensive unit in sacks-per-pass play ... on Thanksgiving Day vs. Chi (11/25), was part of an offensive unit that led the way for Julius Jones to rush for 150 yards, the first 100-yard rushing performance of the season for a Cowboys' back; also tied for the third best mark rushing mark ever by a Dallas rookie ... in a come-from-behind victory Monday Night @ Sea (12/6), the offensive line paved the way for Jones' 198 rushing performance, the third best in club history and the second best ever by a Cowboys rookie ... @ NYG (1/2/05), the line provided Jones with enough space to rush for 149 yards on 29 carries (5.1 avg.) and a touchdown while Testaverde finished with a season-high 109.2 quarterback rating.

2003: Moved into the starting lineup at center at the beginning of training camp but then suffered cartilage damage in his right knee during practice against Houston on 8/2 ... underwent micro fracture surgery on 8/8 and was placed on injured reserve on 8/26.

College:

A three-year starter at Wisconsin, was part of a team that won 32 games and posted a 3-0 record in bowl games during his time in Madison ... as a senior captain was a consensus All-Big Ten second-team choice while garnering third-team All-America honors from The Sporting News and honorable mention from CNN/SI ... started every game at center as a junior and earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors ... originally took over the starting center duties in the second game of his sophomore season, earning honorable mention All-Big Ten honors ... the play of the Badgers offensive line helped the team average 196.1 rushing yards-per-game while leading the way for Michael Bennett to rush for 1,598 yards on 294 carries (5.4 avg.) ... Bennett's 159.8 rushing yards-per-game was the third best average in the country.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Travis LaBoy Foundation for Supporting Autistic Causes and Kids (S.A.C.K.) was created in 2004 to support a combination of educational, recreational and physical activities designed to support children with autism and families of children with autism. The foundation strives to enhance the quality of life of youth who are afflicted with autism and to promote the understanding, aid, education and treatment of autism.

To honor LaBoy's trainer, whose son was diagnosed with non-verbal autism, LaBoy donated the seed money for the foundation from his NFL signing bonus. He believes their unique contributions are valuable and should be acknowledged. LaBoy's "Sack Champion Belt" program raised $11,000 for autism causes in 2007. For more information on the foundation, visit www.travislaboyfoundation.org.

NOTE CARDS

- The second quarterback taken in the 2006 Draft (Titans, Vince Young, 3rd overall), selected by the Cardinals with the 10th overall pick.
- Took over the starting QB spot in week 5 of his rookie campaign and started the next 11 games; missed the season finale at San Diego after injuring his left shoulder in game 15.
- In his second NFL season in 2007, started the first five games before suffering a season-ending collarbone injury at St. Louis (10/7).
- Threw for 200 yards or more in eight of his first 11 starts in 2006; completed 60% or more of his passes in five of his final six starts.
- In 2006, became the first Cardinals quarterback since Jake Plummer in 2001 to have three games in a season with a 100+ quarterback rating (all were in his final six starts of '06).
- Became the first rookie in NFL history to throw for over 400 yards in a game when he passed for 405 at Minnesota on 11/26/06. The previous league record belonged to Plummer who threw for 388 yards against the New York Giants on 11/16/97.
- Leinart's 2,547 yards passing in 2006 also broke Plummer's franchise rookie record of 2,203 yards, set in 1997.
- Became first QB in NFL history to throw two TD passes in the first quarter of each of his first two games when he did it vs. Kansas City and Chicago.
- Recorded a 37-2 record as a starter at USC, a 94.8% winning percentage.
- Led U.S.C. to National Championships in 2003 and 2004, becoming only the third quarterback in the last 30 years to lead his team to back-to-back National Championships.
- Holds the USC and Pac-10 record for career TD passes with 99, shattering the previous school record of 72 set by Carson Palmer and the conference record of 77 set by Stanford's John Elway.

Pro Career:

The Cardinals first pick in the 2006 NFL Draft (10th overall), Leinart took over as the starter in week five of his rookie season, starting in 11 of the 12 games in which he appeared and only missed the final game of the season after being deactivated with a left shoulder injury. Threw for 200 or more yards in eight games while completing 60% or more of his passes in five of his final six games. Suffered a fractured collarbone in game five in 2007 at St. Louis that forced him onto injured reserve for the remainder of the season.

2007: Started first five games of 2007 before suffering a season ending collarbone injury at St. Louis ... in season-opening start, rushed for career-high 35 yards on six carries with a career-long of 20 yards @ SF (9/10) ... registered second-most passing yards of his career with 299 yards in the home opener vs. Sea (9/16); 30-yard touchdown pass to Leonard Pope was third-longest scoring toss of his career ... registered 3,000th career passing yard @ Bal (9/23) ... while sharing time with Kurt Warner for the second week in a row, Leinart completed 7-of-14 passes for 93 yards vs. Pit (9/30), including leading the Cardinals on a 13-play 82-yard drive in the fourth quarter that took up over seven minutes and resulted in a two-yard Edgerrin James touchdown to put the Cardinals up 21-7 with 4:14 to play ... after completing seven of 13 passes for 100 yards and one interception, suffered season ending collarbone fracture in the second quarter @ StL (10/7) when sacked by LB Will Witherspoon ... placed on injured reserve on 10/9/07.

2006: Took over as the starting quarterback in game five of his rookie season and started 11 games before sitting out the season finale with a

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Established in 2006, the "Matt Leinart Foundation" contributes to communities in Arizona and his home state of California. The foundation's efforts help children facing severe economic, physical and emotional hardships which limit the achievement of their dreams. It is committed to granting funds and opportunities to support disadvantaged young people through creating/building new activity and learning centers that will provide an uplifting outlet to foster development and build character.

The "Matt Leinart Foundation" seeks to open the doors of opportunity and advancement for children who need a helping hand guiding them to a better tomorrow.

The foundation has pledged $500,000 over the next five years to fund the new children's wing at Banner Children's Hospital in Phoenix while also creating the LA Urban Football League (UYFL). The UYFL was created in April of 2008 and is a full contact football league targeting 8th grade students who were either too large to participate in Pop Warner football and/or lacked the financial resources to participate. The league will consist of six teams with each team having an owner who is a current or former NFL player.

Over the past two years, Leinart has been active in a variety of activities in Arizona. He has been a frequent visitor to hospitals around the Valley to visit with children at St. Joseph's Hospital and Phoenix Children's Hospital as well as making time to visit the kids at the Ronald McDonald House in Phoenix.

Once again in 2007, Matt took part in the JC Penney's "Take a Player to School" program. Last December, Leinart joined 4th grade student Riley Graham at school in Glendale to help read announcements, take part in gym class and speak to the students about the value of education.

Leinart is also the Cardinals spokesman for the NFL's "What Moves U" campaign to promote a healthy lifestyle in today's youth. He also spread the NFL's "Play 60" campaign message throughout the year and at Super Bowl XLII to encourage kids around Arizona to get at least 60 minutes of exercise a day.

At Super Bowl XLII, Leinart hosted a welcome to Arizona party for his NFL friends and Hollywood celebrities at Olive & Ivy in Scottsdale with all of the money raised going towards his foundation. He also joined rapper Snoop Dogg to face off in Snoop Bowl VI in Chandler with all of the money raised through ticket sales being donated to the foundation as well.

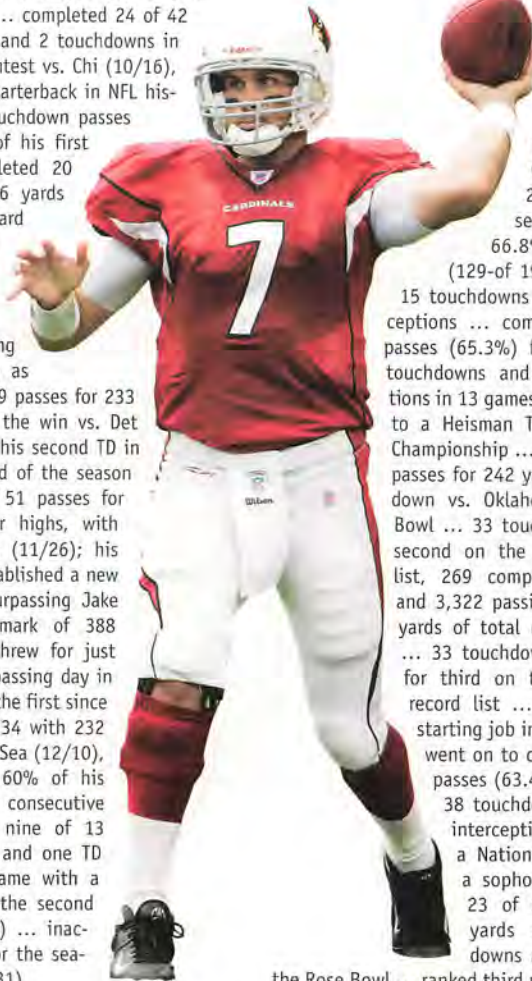

In June, 2008, he hosted the Second Annual Matt Leinart Football Camp on the campus of Cal State - Long Beach. The camp was open to boys and girls ages 7-14, which each participant receiving 20-30 hours of on-field instruction, classroom review of workout sessions as well as individual evaluation for coaches and weight training classes.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Lutui, a Mesa, AZ native, always told himself that if he became a professional football player in the NFL he would give back to the community in which he was raised. Entering his third season as a professional, Lutui is one of the most active Cardinals players giving back their time in the community. Aside from being a regular visitor at Gatorade Junior Training Camps, school visits as part of the "SRP Milk and Cookies" program and sponsored Kids Camps, Lutui has taken part in numerous community visits through a variety of programs.

The Cardinals 2007 "Walter Payton Man of the Year," Lutui had a busy year in the community. In the spring of 2007, he spoke to a group of rehab patients at "Inspiration Day" at HealthSouth in Glendale about the importance of being mentally strong while facing challenges as well as hosting a kids camp at the team's facility for a group of children from Mexico as part of the "Hands Across the Border" Foundation. He also signed autographs at the 14th annual "Phoenix American Heart Walk and One Mile Stroke" Walk in Tempe in addition to hosting a kids camp for 200 special needs kids at Greenfield Junior High in Gilbert. During the summer, Lutui along with teammate Marcel Shipp took part in "Operation Backpack" to pass out 2,500 backpacks to benefit less fortunate kids in the Valley.

During the 2007 season, Lutui joined teammates to participate in the annual NFL and United Way "Hometown Huddle" event to host 100 students and 25 kids from the Special Olympics of Arizona to a kids camp at the Cardinals training facility.

For the second consecutive season, Lutui participated in "12 News Turkey Tuesday" to help collect frozen turkeys for St. Vincent de Paul. He once again joined a group of teammates to visit children at Phoenix Children's Hospital as part of the Cardinals "Teddy Bear Express." Players visit the children each holiday season and hand out personalized teddy bears to help brighten the holidays. He also joined a group of teammates for Nathan Hodel's "Shop with a Jock" to shop with less fortunate children from the Homeward Bound organization.

In the 2008 offseason, Lutui stayed busy by joining teammates Ben Patrick, Neil Rackers and Marcel Shipp to visit children at Phoenix Children's Hospital for "Child Life Week." Finally, he hosted the second annual "Deuce Lutui Kids Camp." Along with teammate Shane Boyd, Lutui instructed 100 kids from Lindbergh Elementary, the school Lutui attended as a child. Each participant received on-field football instruction while also getting lunch following the camp.

"MAKING THE CUT"

Arizona Cardinals players and cheerleaders participated in "Making the Cut" on November 4, 2007 at the Rolf's Salon at Gainey Village in Scottsdale with proceeds benefiting Cardinals Charities.

A ticket for the event included a haircut, style and luxury Redken treatment by an expert Rolf's Stylist with Cardinals players and cheerleaders assisting. The event also featured a silent auction, food and beverages courtesy of Taneko Japanese Tavern, Budweiser, Alliance Beverage and Coca-Cola. Each participant also received a gift bag.

Founded in 1990, Cardinals Charities supports programs designed to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children, women, and minorities in the state of Arizona. Since its inception, Cardinals Charities has distributed nearly $3 million dollars to over 300 worthy Arizona charitable organizations on behalf of the Arizona Cardinals and the NFL.

CARDINALS CHEERLEADERS VISIT ASIA

On January 28, 2008 members of the Cardinals Cheerleading Show Team began a three week tour that traveled across Asia to Korea, Japan and Guam before ending in Hawaii. The squad visited 23 military bases putting on shows and cheer camps.

The journey began with four days in Korea where the squad visited 18 bases and performed four shows. They were in the area on the border of North Korea and South Korea known as the demilitarized zone and learned about the United States' history in Korea.

The next stop was Japan for one day. The cheerleaders were separated into four groups and each traveled to a different base for a Super Bowl party.

The cheerleaders continued on to Guam for four days where they stayed on the Navy base and visited a Navy ship, submarine and the Air Force base where they got to learn what the different departments on the base do. One evening the group went to Chumorro Village and got to try some of the native food and dancing and even got some souvenirs.

The trip concluded with eight days in Hawaii where they visited two bases. They also held two cheer camps and incorporated the participants into their show for Mahalo Fest at Pearl Harbor. While on the islands the cheerleaders went to the Pro Bowl and were able to relax as well as do some sky diving and parasailing.

IT'S THE NFL IN A LANDSLIDE

The people have spoken and, yet again, the NFL has been voted as America's favorite sport according to most recent Harris Poll. The NFL has proved not only to be the nation's most popular sport over the years, it continues to grow in popularity. 30 percent of those surveyed chose the NFL as their favorite sport, doubling the ratings of baseball, which came in second place with 15 percent of the vote.

The NFL has annually topped the Harris Poll since they started polling the public on their favorite sport in 1985 and it has grown from 24 percent of respondents claiming the NFL as their favorite to its current status as the number one choice of 30 percent of Americans.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Leonard Pope's bond with his hometown of Americus, GA didn't end when he was drafted by the Cardinals in 2006. Following a tornado that devastated Americus in March of 2007, Pope has continued to be active in trying to raise money to repair the damage at Sumter Regional Hospital. The hospital was severely damaged in the tornado and 700 Sumter employees were temporarily displaced.

He has visited the hospital and staff on numerous occasions and hosted a celebrity basketball game in Americus in 2007 to assist in raising money for the fundraising process. Pope along with current NFL players from the Georgia area helped campaign for the hospital to receive a brand new MRI machine in 2008 in addition to helping raise money for other brand new state-of-the-art equipment for the facility.

In June of 2008, he hosted the second annual Leonard Pope All-Star Weekend for his new non-profit organization, the Leonard Pope C.H.A.M.P. Foundation. The Foundation will promote programs for children and families in Americus.

Personal:

HOW ACQUIRED: FA-03YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 9/6COLLEGE: IllinoisDOB: August 16, 1976HOMETOWN: St. Louis, MO1*KICKER / 6-1 / 207

NOTE CARDS

- Entered the league as a sixth-round draft pick by Cincinnati in 2000; spent three seasons with the Bengals but was released on the final roster cut in 2003. He signed with the Cardinals two months later following an injury to Bill Gramatica and has been with Arizona ever since.
- Recorded 110 points in 2007 to give him at least 100 points for the third season in a row, tying Pat Harder (1947-49) for the franchise record; also moved into second place on the franchise career points list with 495 points.
- In the midst of his sensational 2005 season, signed a four-year extension on 11/8/05 that keeps him under contract with the Cardinals through 2009.
- Selected to his first career Pro Bowl in 2005, joining Jim Bakken as the only Cardinal kickers honored.
- In '05 established an NFL record by connecting on 40 field goals, breaking the previous mark of 39 set by Miami's Olindo Mare in 1999 and matched by St. Louis' Jeff Wilkins in 2003.
- Also connected on 31 consecutive field goal attempts in 2005 to shatter the previous franchise record of 11 set by Bill Gramatica in 2001 (NFL record: 42 by Indy's Mike Vanderjagt, 2002-04).
- Scored 140 points in 2005, the third-most in the NFL and a new franchise record, passing Neil O'Donoghue (1984) and Jim Bakken (1967) who had 117 points.
- Despite not kicking off in the final five games of 2005, led the NFL with 22 touchbacks. Set the Cardinals franchise record for touchbacks in a season with 23 in 2004, the previous record was 19 set in 1997 by Joe Nedney and Kevin Butler.
- Established new franchise records for field goal percentage (95.2), field goal attempts (42) and field goals made (40) in 2005.
- The Pro Football Hall of Fame received the shoes worn by Rackers on 10/24/04 when he earned a spot in the NFL record books. By connecting on field goals of 55, 55 and 50 yards in the Cardinals 25-17 win vs. Seattle (10/24), Rackers earned a share of the NFL's all-time record for most field goals of 50+ yards in a single game, tying Morten Andersen who set the record in 1995. The Hall of Fame also received the shoes and ball from his record setting 40th field goal of the 2005 season.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Neil Rackers had another banner year in the community during 2007-08 as he was active in a variety of community programs and appearances. Rackers once again participated in "12 News Turkey Tuesday" helping to collect turkeys for the Thanksgiving holiday for the less fortunate. As part of the program, he joined teammate Deuce Lutui to encourage people to donate turkeys to those less fortunate.

At another holiday community event, Rackers joined long snapper Nathan Hodel and 15 other teammates at "Shop-O-Rama" to shop with children from Homeward Bound, allowing the children to spend money on themselves or family members for the holiday season. He participated at Bertrand Berry's "B-Train Express" Holiday shopping event last December to shop with kids from ChildHelp to brighten their holiday season.

During the offseason, Rackers once again participated in the annual "Just for Kids Fishing Festival" to help provide children with the opportunity to learn how to fish and enjoy the outdoors. He joined teammates last spring to visit kids at the Phoenix Children's Hospital as part of "Child Life Week" while also helping to raise money for charity by modeling for the third consecutive year in a fashion show last spring with all of the proceeds going to the East Valley Assistance League.

RACKERS FOR THE WIN

In 2007, Neil Rackers recorded his first two game-winning kicks as a Cardinal to give him five for his career. He had previously registered three game winners while he was with Cincinnati:

2007: ARIZONA

- Game 2, September 16 vs. Seattle
Rackers connected on a 42-yard field goal in the final seconds to beat the Seahawks 23-20.
- Game 15, December 23 vs. Atlanta
Rackers sent a 31-yard field goal through the uprights in overtime for a 30-27 win.

2001: CINCINNATI

- Game 15, December 30 vs. Pittsburgh.
Rackers drove home a 31-yard field goal in overtime to beat the Steelers 26-23.
- Game 16, January 6 at Tennessee
Rackers hit a 34-yard field goal with 20 seconds remaining in regulation for a 23-21 win.

2000: CINCINNATI

- Game 15, December 17 vs. Jacksonville

record with a 28-yard field goal in the second quarter and broke the record with a 42 yarder in the fourth quarter ... scored 11 points for the NFC in the Pro Bowl, leading the conference to a win.

2004: Re-wrote the Cardinals record books by kicking 23 touchbacks in 2004, the most in team history ... missed only three attempts from inside of 50 yards and nailed five from beyond 50 yards, including three in one game (vs. Seattle 10/24) ... kicked a league long 57-yarder against Denver in the preseason ... hit two field goals from beyond 50 yards vs. NE (9/19), nailed attempts from 51 and 52 yards but came up short on a 58-yard attempt that was deflected ... scored the only points of the day for the Cardinals on a 30-yard field goal @ Atl (9/26) ... tied the NFL record for most 50+ yard field goals in a game with three vs. Sea (10/24), connected on attempts from 55, 55, and 50 yards out tying Morten Andersen's record set in 1995; entering the season, had attempted five field goals of 50+ yards and connected on only three of them; named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance ... connected on two of three field goals vs. SF (12/12) and nailed four kickoffs for touchbacks to tie the individual record of 17 set by Joe Nedney in 1997 ... scored all 12 Cardinals points and set a then career-high in field goals made and attempted, connecting on four-of-six attempts in the season finale vs. TB (1/2), connected from 40, 45, 39 and 31 yards out while missing attempts of 35 (WL) and 47(WL).

2003: Joined the Cardinals in mid-season and handled kicking duties for final seven contests ... made nine-of-12 field goal tries, perfect on eight PATs, for 35 points ... first action in Cardinal uniform @ Cle (11/16) and connected on 42-yard field goal in second quarter, 26-yarder in third period for Cards only points ... remained perfect as a Cardinal with field goals of 22 and 27 yards and three PAT conversions in addition to his first touchback on kickoff vs. StL (11/23) ... saw 35-yard try in fourth quarter sail wide right in bid to tie game vs. Car (12/14), atoned with 44-yarder for the tie with 1:09 left in regulation; the ensuing kickoff sailed three yards deep into end zone for touchback ... in season finale vs. Min (12/28) converted first half field goals from 22 and 26 yards ... after Cards pulled within 17-12 with two minutes left in game, completed a successful onsides kick recovered by Damien Anderson as ensuing possession resulted in game-winning touchdown and 18-17 victory.

2002: Accounted for 75 points on 15 field goals (18 attempts, 83.3 percent) and 30 PATs (32 attempts) for the Bengals ... made 12 of his final 13 field goals, only a missed 52-yarder prevented him from tying a Cincinnati record of 13 consecutive successful field goals ... perfect 13-for-13

RACKERS MAKES IT THREE IN A ROW

Rackers' 110 points in 2007 made it three years in a row with at least 100 points, tying the franchise record he now shares with Pat Harder, who had 100 points per season from 1947-49. Rackers also moved into second place on the franchise career points list with 495 points since coming to the Cardinals in 2003. Cardinal great Jim Bakken holds the Cardinals career points record with 1,380.

TEAM CAPTAINS WERE PICKED FOR EACH NFL TEAM

At the league meeting in May of 2007, the NFL decided that teams were going to reinstate team captains, an idea suggested by players during a meeting of Commissioner Roger Goodell's six-member Player Advisory Council.

The purpose of the program is to support and recognize the importance of team leadership through the role of the captains. Captains traditionally serve as a link between players, coaches and management to help foster cohesion within the teams.

The Cardinals 2007 captains were wide receiver Anquan Boldin on offense, strong safety Adrian Wilson and middle linebacker Gerald Hayes on defense, and kicker Neil Rackers and safety Aaron Francisco on special teams.

All captains were selected in a team vote and each player wore a captain's patch on their game jerseys for both home and road contests.

NOTE CARDS

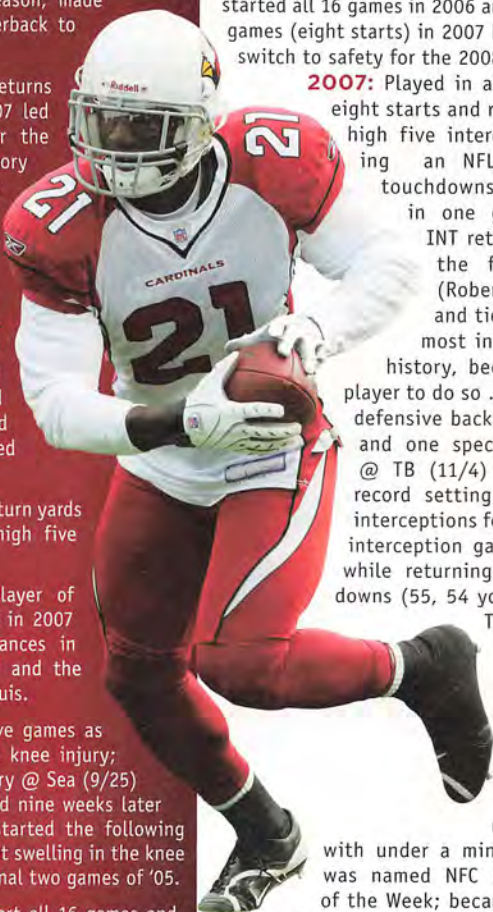

- Arizona's first-round selection in 2005 and the draft's eighth overall; was the second cornerback taken behind Dallas' Adam Jones who was taken with the sixth pick by Tennessee.
- Following the 2007 season, made the switch from cornerback to safety.
- His three interception returns for touchdowns in 2007 led the NFL and tied for the second-most in NFL history for a single season; he became the 22nd player to accomplish the feat.
- His two interception returns for touchdowns in week 11 of the 2007 season at Cincinnati tied the NFL record for a single game (had another TD return called back on a penalty).
- Led the NFL with 231 return yards in 2007 on a career-high five interceptions.
- Won NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors twice in 2007 following his performances in Week 11 at Cincinnati and the season finale vs. St. Louis.
- Rolle played in just five games as a rookie due to a left knee injury; after suffering the injury @ Sea (9/25) he returned to the field nine weeks later vs. Was (12/11) and started the following week @ Hou (12/18) but swelling in the knee sidelined him for the final two games of '05.
- Returned in 2006 to start all 16 games and finished fourth on the team with 87 tackles.

Pro Career:

The Cardinals first pick in the 2005 NFL Draft (eighth overall), Rolle was impressive in the first three games of his rookie season before suffering a left knee injury which required surgery and kept him on the sidelines for nine games. With his knee finally healthy, he came back and started all 16 games in 2006 and played in all 16 games (eight starts) in 2007 before making the switch to safety for the 2008 season.

2007: Played in all 16 games with eight starts and recorded a career-high five interceptions, returning an NFL-high three for touchdowns including two in one game; his three INT returns for TDs tied the franchise record (Robert Massey, 1992) and tied for the second most in a season in NFL history, becoming the 22nd player to do so ... led all Cardinal defensive backs with 10 tackles and one special teams tackle @ TB (11/4) ... registered a record setting day with three interceptions for the first multi-interception game of his career while returning two for touchdowns (55, 54 yds.) while a third TD was called back on a penalty; also registered six tackles @ Cin (11/18); ended Bengals last hope with an interception near midfield with under a minute to play and was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week; became just the fifth player in NFL history with two INT

ROLLE TIES NFL RECORD

Rolle made a huge splash on defense for the Cardinals in 2007, becoming a dangerous playmaker once he got the ball in his hands. The third-year pro intercepted three passes, returning two for touchdowns in week 11 in Cincinnati. He also returned the third pick for a touchdown but the score was negated by an erroneous personal foul penalty called on the run back. As it stands, Rolle merely earned a share of the NFL's all-time record for INT touchdowns in a game. He became the 24th player in NFL history to accomplish the feat and the fifth Cardinal to do so.

RECEIVER AT HEART?

Rolle showed an incredible knack for finding the endzone when he got his hands on the ball in 2007. He turned in one electric run after another following his five interceptions this season, piling up yards and points at a record pace. Rolle was the anchor for a defense that led the NFL in TD returns and return yardage following interceptions in 2007.

With Rolle's 47-yard interception return for a touchdown in the season finale vs. St. Louis, he finished with three INT returns for TDs on the season, tying the Cardinals single season record.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Scottsdale native Lyle Sendlein returned to his home state of Arizona in 2007 and was very visible in the community. The second-year player was one of the most active participants in the Cardinals and SRP "Milk and Cookies" program throughout the entire season. Sendlein read to students all over the Valley and made sure that on Tuesdays, he was spending his time reading to children in the community.

He also took part in the Cardinals and United Way "Hometown Huddle" to coach 100 students as well as 25 kids from the Special Olympics of Arizona to a kids camp at the Cardinals training facility. Sendlein also participated in teammate Bertrand Berry's "B-Train Express" event last holiday season to help shop with needy children as well as taking part in teammate Nathan Hodel's "Shop-O-Rama" to shop with children from Homeward Bound. This past spring, Sendlein volunteered for the "Read Across America" program at the Cardinals Preparatory Academy to help promote kids to read.

- Re-signed with the Cardinals on 3/3/07, inking a two-year deal that keeps him under contract through 2008; initially made the team as an undrafted rookie free agent in 2001 out of UMass.
- In recent years, has seen majority of his action as a back-up and in short yardage situations.
- Was used as a goal-line specialist late in 2006 and finished the year with four rushing TDs on just 17 attempts.
- Had not reached the end zone since 12/15/02 but scored a career-high three rushing TDs at St. Louis on 12/3/06; he entered the game with just three rushing attempts for the season.
- Was an 11-game starter and the team's leading rusher in both 2003 and 2005.
- Missed the entire 2004 season after suffering a broken leg and ankle in an intra-squad scrimmage at training camp on 8/6/04.
- Had back-to-back 100-yard rushing games in 2003 – a 165-yard effort vs. SF (10/26) and a 141-yard game vs. Cin. (11/2).
- Grew up as a neighbor to Cardinals linebacker Gerald Hayes in Paterson, NJ.

Pro Career:

An undrafted rookie free agent signed by the Cardinals in 2001, Shipp spent the entire 2004 season on injured reserve (leg) after sharing the running back responsibilities with Emmitt Smith in 2003. Returned in 2005 to lead the team in rushing and had a solid 2006 season, both rushing and on special teams. Agreed to a two-year contract with the team on 3/3/07.

2007: Played in all 16 games, converting numerous short yardage situations and contributing on special teams ... left game in first quarter with a rib injury vs. Pit (9/30) ... on only carry, gained 10 yards on 3rd and 18 to set up Neil Rackers 50-yard field goal to tie the game at three in the first quarter @ StL (10/7) ... in 80th career game, registered an eight-yard reception and three carries that included converting a third and one with a three-yard run in the second quarter to sustain the Cardinals longest touchdown drive (15 plays, 90 yards) of the season vs. Det (11/11) ... registered first touchdown of the season while recording season-high five carries for 14 yards including three carries that went for first downs vs. SF (11/25); marked first time in career he recorded at least one touchdown in back-to-back seasons (4 TDs in 2006).

2006: Logged time in 15 games, becoming a goal line threat with four rushing touchdowns in the final four games ... appeared on special teams with three unassisted tackles in the season opener vs. SF (9/10) ... made two key third down plays vs. Det (11/19), one coming on a 22-yard reception on third-and-one in the third quarter and a seven-yard run on third-and-three on the final drive that iced the game for the Cardinals ... scored on touchdown runs of one, six and nine yards @ StL (12/3) to establish a personal single game high; became the first Cardinal to rush for three TD's in a regular season game since Jake Plummer accomplished the feat on 11/22/98 @ Washington; one-yard run in first quarter marked his first TD since 12/15/02, a span of three years and 11 months ... inactive due to a rib injury vs. Den (12/17) ... turned in another good performance spelling Edgerrin James, rushing five time for 13 yards and a TD and catching one pass for five yards @ SF (12/24).

2005: Led the team in rushing with 451 yards on 157 attempts ... made his first start for the Cardinals since 12/28/03 vs. Min when he stepped in for the deactivated J. J. Arrington ... rushed 16 times for 42 yards vs. SF (10/2) while catching five balls out of the backfield for 52 additional yards ... met the team in Detroit after attending his father's funeral; rushed only four times for three yards @ Det (11/13) ... inactive @ SF (12/4) due to a neck injury ... rushed 13 times for 42 yards vs. Phi (12/24) ... rushed 16 times for a season-high 57 yards @ Ind (1/1); also caught three passes for 19 yards.

2004: The team's leading rusher in 2003 ... suffered an ankle and leg injury in an intrasquad scrimmage at training camp on 8/6 ... placed on the injured reserve list on 9/1 (leg).

2003: Shared running-back chores with future Hall of Famer Emmitt Smith ... Smith began the season as the starter, gaining 192 yards on 65 carries until fracturing his scapula and separating his shoulder in his return to Dallas in the season's fifth contest ... while Smith mended over the next six weeks, Shipp laid claim to the position ... the starter over the final 11 outings, gained 830 yards on 228 attempts overall to fall just four yards short of his 2002 single-season best of 834 rushing yards ... back-to-back 100-yard rushing efforts, a Cardinal first since 1992 included his 35-attempt, 165-yard effort vs. SF (10/26) which was the best performance by a Cardinal running back since 1993; the 35 carries were the NFC's 2003 single-game high ... came off the bench for Smith (shoulder) @ Dal (10/5) and gained 31 yards on nine carries, including a 16-yard burst in the third quarter ... with Smith inactive for next six games, handed first starting role of season vs. Bal (10/12) and collected 108 yards from scrimmage with 61 yards rushing on 14 carries and five pass receptions for 47 yards ... exploded for career-best 35 carries and 165 yards rushing to key 221-yard ground effort in 16-13 overtime win vs. SF (10/26); 35 rushing attempts most by a Cardinal since Ronald Moore's club-record 36 carries (160 yards) vs. Phi (11/7/93); piled up 50 yards on five carries on Cards first possession of the game, a 12-play, 70-yard scoring drive ... became first Cardinal running back to log consecutive 100-yard rushing games since 1992 (Johnny Johnson) with 141 yards on 29 carries in win vs. Cin (11/2) ... left game @ Cle (11/16) in fourth quarter with knee contusion ... despite limited practice time while nursing forearm and knee injuries, netted 95 yards on 24 carries and caught two passes for two yards vs. StL (11/23).

2002: Finished the season with 1,247 total yards from scrimmage on 226 touches (188 rushes, 38 receptions) to finish with a 5.5-yard average, second in the NFC to Minnesota running back Michael Bennett (5.6-yard average) and fifth in the NFL ... 5.52-yard average also was best by a Cardinal since fullback Larry Centers averaged 5.54 yards in 1996 (116 rushes for 425 yards, 99 receptions for 766 yards) ... also on receiving end of 80-yard scoring play on screen pass @ StL (12/15), the team's longest play from scrimmage since 1988; added two rushing touchdowns against the Rams for three overall, a Cardinal first since quarterback Jake Plummer rushed for three scores @ Was (11/22/98) ... @

Was (9/8) made fine block as kick returner MarTay Jenkins took fourth quarter kickoff off 95 yards for a score; on ensuing Cards kickoff made the tackle downfield ... scored first career touchdown vs.

SD (9/22) with 31-yard catch on third-and-four midway through fourth quarter by out-running Charger linebacker Junior Seau to the endzone ... came off the bench for Jones vs. NYG (9/29) and was a one-man show with 92 rushing yards and a touchdown on 17 carries; added five receptions for 39 yards and a score for 131 yards total offense, nearly one-half of the Cards' team total of 263; later scored on a 10-yard touchdown run on his sixth consecutive carry of the drive ... rushed for over 100 yards vs. Oak (11/24) in his first NFL start — 122 yards on 12 carries in the first half — with 16 attempts for 135 yards with one touchdown ... career-best seven receptions @ KC (12/1) ... split 158 yards total offense in half @ StL (12/15) with 26 carries for 79 yards and two scores, two pass receptions for 79 yards, including an 80-yard scoring play on third-quarter screen pass, the Cards' longest play from scrimmage in 223 games and longest scoring connection for both he and quarterback Plummer.

2001: Played in 10 games, exclusively on special teams, as a rookie in 2001 ... inactive for four contests ... finished season with 12 special-teams tackles, and returned six kickoffs for 118 yards ... first kick return duty resulted in one kickoff return for 21 yards @ SD (11/25) ... returned two more kickoffs for 36 yards @ Oak (12/2), one return for 22 yards with two tackles on coverage units @ NYG (12/15) ... returns of 26 yards vs. Dal (12/23) and 13 yards in season finale @ Was (1/6).

Shipp is easily one of the most active Cardinals players in the Arizona community. Along with being a year-round participant and coach at the many Gatorade Jr. Training Camps that the team offers, Shipp remained busy in the community this past season by taking part in various community projects.

In 2007, Shipp joined teammate Deuce Lutui to pass out 2,500 backpacks for less fortunate kids in the Valley for the "Operation Backpack" event. He also joined Neil Rackers to visit Gompers Habilitation Center for the annual "Teddy Bear Express" event where Cardinals players pass out personalized teddy bears to sick children during the holiday season.

Shipp also joined other Cardinals player and took part in teammate Bertrand Berry's annual "B-Train's Holiday Express" event to shop with needy children from ChildHelp to help make the holiday season a better one for everybody and took part in Nathan Hodel's "Shop With a Jock" event to shop with kids from Homeward Bound.

Over the past few years, Shipp has been active with programs such as the NFL and United Way's Hometown Huddle program and with helping out with Habitat for Humanity Valley of the Sun's house building project in south Phoenix, along with acting a celebrity bartender at a fundraiser for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.

For the third straight summer prior to the beginning of training camp, Shipp and team mascot Big Red hosted the "Marcel Shipp Kids Camp" in Flagstaff. In 2007, the camp hosted 100 children from the City of Glendale Parks and Recreation program. Each child at the camp had the chance to interact with Shipp and receive a replica jersey.

NFL DONATES $1 MILLION TO ARIZONA YOUTH EDUCATION TOWN AS PART OF SUPER BOWL LEGACY PROGRAM

The National Football League donated $1 million to the Arizona NFL Youth Education Town (YET) to fund expansion and support community outreach efforts.

For the past 15 years, the NFL has constructed YET Centers in Super Bowl host cities, aimed at positively impacting youth in at-risk neighborhoods. The NFL has donated close to $20 million toward YET Centers since the program began in 1993 as a legacy of Super Bowl XXVII. YET Centers are state-of-the-art facilities offering tutoring, mentoring, career training, computer education, and access to recreational activities. Steve Young's Forever Young Foundation, a long-time partner of the NFL YET initiative, assists with the funding of technology centers at each location.

Established as a legacy of Super Bowl XXX, the Arizona NFL YET Center, located in Phoenix, opened in 1996. The facility is the only YET Center that operates as a charter school, called NFL YET Academy. The school serves 1,000 students from kindergarten through 12th grade.

Joined by Phoenix government officials, Arizona Super Bowl XLII Host Committee Chairman Michael Kennedy, Arizona Cardinals Owner Bill Bidwill, Arizona Cardinals President Michael Bidwill, Pro Football Hall of Famer and former San Francisco 49ers quarterback Steve Young, and children who attend the YET Academy, NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell announced the $1 million donation at a press conference on January 31, 2008.

This year, funds donated by the NFL will be used to support expansion of the YET Center campus in Phoenix and to support outreach efforts to reach underprivileged families in the community.

CARDS "GRIDIRON CHEF" CHARITY DINNER

The annual Cardinals Charities dinner took place on Friday, November 9th at University of Phoenix Stadium.

The 2007 theme was a "Gridiron Chef" competition. A takeoff on the hit TV show, "The Iron Chef," the event featured three teams, each consisting of a Valley chef and two Cardinals players. The three squads included Darnell Dockett & Gerald Hayes; Bertrand Berry & Neil Rackers; and Larry Fitzgerald & Marcel Shipp.

Each team had an hour to see which could create the best meal, working with a "secret ingredient" that was announced the evening of the event. The team then had to create an appetizer, entrée and dessert. The final product was critiqued by a team of judges and a winner was selected. Each team competed on behalf of a local charity.

The event began with a reception and silent auction in the Cardinals locker room followed by dinner and the event program. All Cardinals players and coaches were in attendance and all proceeds benefited Cardinals Charities.

CARDINALS AND GILA RIVER HOLIDAY FOOD DRIVE

The Arizona Cardinals Football Club and Gila River joined forces for a holiday food drive benefiting St. Mary's Food Bank Alliance prior to the Cardinals November 11th victory over the Detroit Lions at University of Phoenix Stadium.

Wives and girlfriends of players and front office personnel teamed with 35 volunteers from St. Mary's Food Bank Alliance and Cardinals Cheerleaders at collection points outside of all five stadium gates.

St. Mary's Food Bank Alliance sold a football themed plush turkey stuffed animal as part of their "Buy A Bird" program at the Gila River booth (Section 117) during the game. For $20, a donor could help feed Arizona families in need and receive an adorable plush turkey as a reminder of their generous holiday gift. For more information, log onto www.BuyABird.org.

The 2007 food drive kicked off with a 1,000 can donation from the Campbell Chunky Soup "Click for Cans" promotion. For more information about "Click for Cans" log onto www.chunky.com.

St. Mary's Food Bank Alliance, the world's first food bank, is a non-sectarian, nonprofit organization that alleviates hunger by efficiently gathering and distributing food to 675 sites that serve the hungry in 13 of Arizona's 15 counties, the organization is committed to volunteerism, building community relationships, and improving the quality of life for Arizonans in need. Visit online at www.FirstFoodBank.org for more information.

CARDINALS PRACTICE FACILITY SHOWS VERSATILITY

In 2007 the Cardinals' practice facility in Tempe played host to two other NFL teams, the San Diego Chargers and the New York Giants, who needed the practice facility for far different reasons.

The Chargers were left without a home in late October as wildfires engulfed much of southern California. At the time Arizona was entering its bye week and let the Chargers practice at the facility Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. This was the second time the Cardinals had helped San Diego out after similar circumstances in 2003 forced a Chargers game against Miami to be played at Sun Devil Stadium.

"Whenever you have a team that is going through the issues they are going through, you want to do whatever you can to help them out," said Cardinals Head Coach Ken Whisenhunt about the Chargers practicing in Tempe.

The second visitor to the facility was expected. With Arizona hosting Super Bowl XLII, the training facility was used by the New York Giants as they prepared to take on the New England Patriots.

CARDINALS HIGHLIGHTS

- Despite starting in only 11 games and playing much of the season with a torn ligament in his non-throwing elbow suffered in his first start of 2007, threw 27 touchdown passes and finished one shy of the franchise single-season record.
- Threw for multiple touchdowns in the last eight games of the 2007 season, the longest streak of his career.
- Threw for a career-high 484 yards vs. San Francisco in week 12 of 2007, which is also the second-highest yardage total in franchise history.
- Threw for 300+ yards in four games in 2007 and had five starts where he finished with a passer rating of 100.0 or higher.
- His 10 multi-touchdown games in 2007 were the most since he recorded 10 in his MVP season of 2001.
- After recording the highest completion percentage in Cardinals history in 2005 (64.5%), returned in 2007 to post the second-highest completion percentage in franchise history, completing 62.3% of his passes (281-451).
- Playing in his 76th career game on 9/24/06 vs. St. Louis, became the second fastest quarterback to reach 20,000 yards in NFL history (Dan Marino, 74).
- In 2005, helped the Cardinals rank as the league's #1 ranked passing offense for the first time in team history.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- A two-time NFL MVP (1999 and 2001); was also named Super Bowl XXXIV MVP after leading the Rams to a victory over the Tennessee Titans (1/30/00).
- A three-time Pro Bowler, has led the NFL in passing yardage, completion percentage and average gain per attempt three times each, has had the highest quarterback rating and led the league in touchdown passes twice.
- Career completion percentage of 65.1% entering 2008 ranks #2 in NFL history behind only Chad Pennington (65.5%).
- Entering 2008, his career QB rating of 93.2 ranks #3 in NFL history behind only Steve Young (96.8) and Peyton Manning (94.7).
- Warner's 4,830 passing yards in 2001 represent the second-highest single-season total in NFL history (Dan Marino, 5,084 in 1984).
- Recorded nine 300-yard passing games in both 1999 and 2001 (NFL single-season record is 10 by Oakland's Rich Gannon in 2002).
- Holds a share of the NFL record for most consecutive 300-yard passing games with six in 2000 (shares with Rich Gannon, 2002, and San Francisco's Steve Young, 1998).
- Has twice posted a perfect passer rating of 158.3 (10/1/00 vs. SD and 10/3/99 @ Cin); became the first player in NFL history to record two "perfect" games with a minimum of 20 passes attempted. Peyton Manning has accomplished the feat three times.
- Became the fastest player in NFL history to reach 10,000 passing yards, accomplishing the feat in his 36th career game.
- Has 41 career 300-yard passing games including three 400-yard passing games.

Pro Bowl Selection:

Pro Career:

One of the greatest success stories in NFL history, Warner signed a one-year deal with the Cardinals as an unrestricted free agent on 3/6/05 and inked a three-year pact with the Cardinals on 2/14/06 following the 2005 season. Originally signed by the Green Bay Packers as an undrafted free agent on 4/28/94 but was released on 8/17/94. Warner went on to play in the Arena Football League with the Iowa Barnstormers (1995-97) before being signed as a free agent by the St. Louis Rams on 12/26/97. Signed as an unrestricted free agent by NY Giants on 6/3/04. A two-time NFL Most Valuable Player (1999 and 2001) and the MVP of Super Bowl XXXIV, led the Rams to 23-16 victory over the Tennessee Titans. Warner also led St. Louis to Super Bowl XXXVI where the Rams lost to New England 20-17.

Kurt and his wife Brenda established "First Things First" in the spring of 2001 as a foundation dedicated to promoting Christian values, sharing experiences and providing opportunities to encourage everyone that all things are possible when people seek to put first things first. Some of the projects through which the foundation has enriched the lives of those less fortunate have included trips to Disney World for ill children, building recreation centers in children's hospitals, rewarding single parents who achieve the dream of homeownership and teaching Special Olympians football basics. The target outreach areas for "First Things First" include Arizona, Missouri and Warner's home state of Iowa.

The work of "First Things First" kept Kurt busy in 2007. Nine families from Make-A-Wish and Dream Factory spent a weeklong vacation at Disney World with the Warner family in June. Prior to that trip, Disney families from the previous five years met in St. Louis for a "Family Reunion." Two single parents and their families were surprised with "Homes for the Holidays," a partnership with Aaron's Rents to reward a first-time homeowner by completely furnishing the home. Over 5,000 coats were collected in greater St. Louis during the seventh annual "Warner's Warm-up Coat Drive." Special Olympics Punt, Pass & Kick clinics were hosted in Phoenix and St. Louis, each for up to 50 athletes. Throughout the season, the Warners made monthly visits to St. Joseph's Hospital in Phoenix to deliver Baskets of Hope filled with toys, games, music, books and inspirational materials for pediatric patients.

First Things First also purchased 250 game tickets in 2007 (both home and away) for kids of faith-based social service agencies. The kids participated in a Bible study, completed a community service project and met with Kurt following each game for autographs, pictures and prayer time. Last year saw the introduction of two new programs to the "First Things First" line-up: The America's Team Ball Drive was a Valley-wide collection of new and gently-used sporting equipment for soldiers serving overseas. The drive resulted in 15,000 pounds of equipment and raised $25,000. "First Things First" also kicked off C.H.E.E.R. (Consciousness Helps Encourage Equal Respect) at Chaparral High in Scottsdale. Designed to open the eyes of students to the daily challenges of those with disabilities, several students adopted disabilities for a day and then discussed their experiences at a school-wide assembly with Kurt and Brenda. At the end of the season, Warner and the Cardinals teamed up to fulfill a wish for a "Make a Wish" teen from Massachusetts.

Warner also took part in Cardinals community outreach programs. He and his family served dinner at the Cardinals Thanksgiving event "Help Feed the Hungry" at the Phoenix Rescue Mission. Throughout the season, Warner greeted special practice visitors such as cancer patients, HopeKids, High School Players of the Week and would take pictures, sign autographs, and give away gloves and wristbands.

as the fifth-highest total in team history while his 62.3 completion percentage is the second highest percentage all-time on the franchise single-season list trailing only the 64.5 percentage he posted in 2005; 27 touchdowns is the second highest single season total in team history and 281 completions is sixth best in franchise history ... threw for multiple TDs in eight consecutive games, a new career-high ... saw action in his 80th career game as part of no huddle package and registered 258 yards on 15-of-20 passing with two TDs and a passer rating of 150.0 @ Bal (9/23), his highest passer rating as a Cardinal; 12 consecutive completions in the second half are second most in franchise history, three shy of Jake Plummer's record against Was (11/8/98) ... shared time with Leinart for the second straight week recording a team-high 132 yards and one TD vs. Pit (9/30) ... against former team came on in relief of Leinart, who left the game in the second quarter with a season ending collarbone injury and totaled 190 yards, one TD and one INT on

RISEING FAST

Kurt Warner hasn't been in Arizona that long but he has definitely made an impression in the desert. His four 300-yard passing games in 2007 gave him 11 total with the Cardinals. That marks the fourth highest total in franchise history despite the fact that he has only started 26 games with the Cardinals.

week @ Was (10/21) with heavily braced arm and completed 27-of-41 passes for 282 yards with two TDs and two INTs ... completed 26-of-36 passes for 259 yards with three TDs, one INT and a quarterback rating of 108.4 vs. Det (11/11) ... recorded 211 yards on 16-of-28 passing with two TDs @ Cin (11/18); for second straight week recorded a passer rating over 100.0 which marked the first time he had done that since 2001 when he was over 100.0 for three straight games ... totaled a career-high 484 yards (2nd most in franchise history) on 34-of-48 passing with two TDs and two INTs vs. SF (11/25); 34 completions are tied for the third-most in franchise history behind only Kent Graham and Neil Lomax (37) and Jake Plummer and Boomer Esiason (35); 484 passing yards were the highest single-game total in the NFL in 2007 ... in 90th career game eclipsed 23,000 career passing yards and recorded career-high five INTs @ Sea (12/9) ... recorded 233 yards, three TDs and a quarterback rating of 106.7 @ NO (12/16); marked his 34th career

PROTECTING HIS PLACE

Kurt Warner has always been an accurate passer. After all, he is ranked second on the NFL's all-time completion percentage list at 65.1 percent (behind only Chad Pennington, 65.6).

Warner was accurate again in 2007, completing 281 of the 451 passes he attempted for a 62.3 completion rate. Warner was so accurate in 2007, his percentage is the second highest in franchise history, behind only the 64.5 percentage he posted in 2005. So, in three seasons in Arizona, Warner has posted the two best completion percentages in team history.

COMPLETION PERCENTAGE—SEASON

%	Player (Year)	Comp-Att
64.5	KURT WARNER (2005)	242-375

59.4	Neil Lomax (1987)	275-463
59.3	Chris Chandler (1992)	245-413

There have been only three quarterbacks in franchise history to finish the season with a completion percentage of 60.0 or higher and Warner is now the only Cardinals quarterback to post two seasons with a completion percentage of 60.0 or better.

2001: Started all 16 regular season and three postseason games for the Rams ... earned NFL Most Valuable Player honors for second time in three seasons, edging teammate Marshall Faulk by one vote ... led the NFL in completions (375), completion percentage (68.7), passing yards (4,830), touchdown passes (36), average yards per attempt (8.85), passer rating (101.4), third down passing (109.5), and was third in the NFC and fourth in the NFL in fourth quarter passing (101.4) while throwing a career-high 564 passes ... became third quarterback in Rams history to earn three or more consecutive

THE GREAT REPLACEMENT

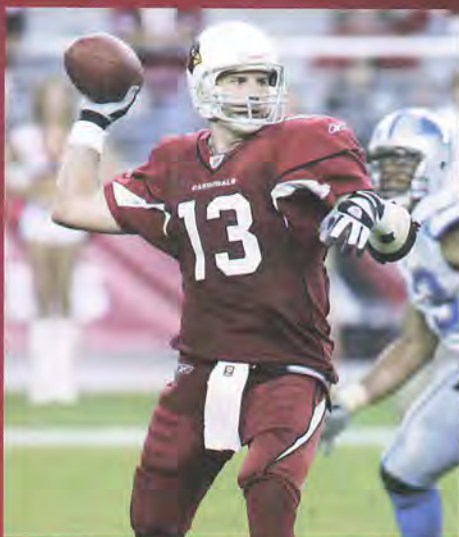

Kurt Warner threw for 27 touchdown passes in 2007, despite starting in only 11 games. It was the second-highest passing touchdown total in team history, behind only the 28 of Neil Lomax (1984) and Charley Johnson (1963).

Pro Bowl berths (Norm Van Brocklin 6, 1950-55; Roman Gabriel 3, 1967-69) ... set team records for completions, completion percentage, passing yards, most seasons with 4,000 or more passing yards (two), and most games with 300 or more passing yards in career (26) ... tied NFL record for 300-yard passing games in a season (nine) and tied a team record for most games with four or more TD passes in career (6) ... became the fastest player to reach 10,000 passing yards in NFL history, accomplishing the feat vs. Car (11/11), (his 36th game) ... number of completions ranked 6th on NFL's all-time single-season list ... had one of the best games of his career vs. Mia (9/30), completing 24-of-31 passes (77.4 percent) for 328 yards, four TDs and no INTs (150.3 rating) ... in three postseason games, completed 68-of-107 passes for 793 yards, four TDs and three INTs ... led Rams from 14-point deficit in Super Bowl XXXVI vs. NE (2/3), directing two TD drives in fourth quarter to tie score at 17-17 before the Rams lost on a last-second field goal by the Patriots' Adam Vinatieri.

2000: Started all 11 games in which he played, helping Rams set NFL records for passing yards and total yards ... earned second straight Pro Bowl berth ... led NFL in completion percentage (67.7) and average gain (9.88) ... set NFL record for most passing yards after two games with 827 (old record was 823 by Frank Tripucka, Denver, 1962) and after three games with 1,221 (old record was 1,166 by Drew Bledsoe, New England, 1994) ... his 1,557 passing yards after four games set NFL record for most passing yards in four consecutive games, surpassing mark of 1,417 by Bledsoe in 1994 ... Warner's 2,260 passing yards after six games were the most in NFL history (Bledsoe, 2,072 in 1994) ... completed 25-of-35 passes while passing for career-high 441 yards with three TDs and three INTs vs. Den (9/4) in leading Rams to first Monday Night Football win since 1988; his passing yardage was the third highest opening-game total in NFL history and fourth-highest total in team history ... set career-high and tied team record with 35 completions (in 47 attempts) for 386 yards @ Sea (9/10) ... became first player in NFL history to record perfect passer rating of 158.3 twice vs. SD (10/1); completed 24-of-30 passes for 390 yards, four TDs and no INTs in earning NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors ... it was the first time in team history and only third time in NFL history a team had a 300-yard passer (Warner), a 100-yard rusher (Justin Watson, 102 yards), and three 100-yard receivers (Isaac Bruce, 167 yards; Marshall Faulk, 116 yards; Az-Zahir Hakim, 104 yards) in the same game as Rams gained 614 yards, second-highest total in team history ... tied NFL record with sixth consecutive 300-yard passing game vs. Atl (10/15), when he completed 24-of-40 passes for 313 yards and three TDs; it was the 1st time in NFL history a team had 300-yard passer (Warner) and 200-yard rusher (Faulk, 208 yards) in same game ... broke pinky finger on right hand on center snap on last play of 1st half @ KC (10/22) ... started NFC Wild Card Game @ NO (12/30) and completed 24-of-40 passes for 365 yards, three TDs and three INTs ... led the Rams to 21 consecutive points in fourth quarter in which he completed 11-of-14 passes for 198 yards for two TDs.

WARNER REACHES THE TOP FIVE

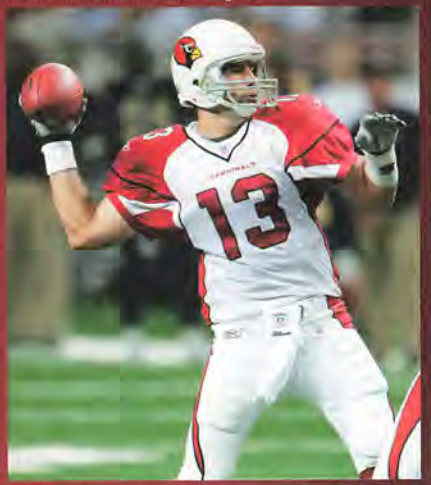

Warner's path to 3,000 passing yards in 2007 was undoubtedly unlike any of the other quarterbacks who are on the franchise's career list. Not too many QBs start the season as a backup, start only 11 games and play almost all of those 11 games with a torn ligament in their non-throwing arm.

That is the way Kurt Warner did it though. In week 16 vs. Atlanta, his 10th start of the season, Warner reached 3,000 passing yards on the season, something only 13 other QBs had done in Cardinals history.

Warner finished the season with 3,417 passing yards, the fifth highest total in franchise history despite the fact that he started in only 11 games in 2007.

1998: (NFL Europe): Started all 10 games for the Amsterdam Admirals ... led league in passing yards (2,101), attempts (326), completions (165) and touchdowns (15).

1995-97 (Arena Football): Passed for 10,486 yards and 183 touchdowns in three seasons with the Iowa Barnstormers (now New York Dragons) ... led Iowa to two straight Arena Bowl appearances named one of the top-ten players in Arena Football history to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the league.

College:

Gateway Conference Offensive Player of the Year as a senior at Northern Iowa ... led the conference in total offense and passing efficiency ... passed for more than 300 yards four times ... two-time Gateway Player of the Week ... started only as a senior.

EVEN HE HAD NEVER DONE IT

Warner's 484 yards against the 49ers in 2007 marked the highest total of his career and the second highest total in Cardinals history. He ranks behind only Boomer Esiason, who threw for 522 yards at Washington on 11/10/96.

There have been only nine games in franchise history that featured a Cardinals QB throwing for 400+ yards.

The 484 yards bettered the 441 yards he threw for on 9/4/00 vs. Denver.

Warner's yardage total ranked as the NFL's best 2007 passing performance (in yardage), topping the 446 yards Detroit QB Jon Kitna threw for at Philadelphia on 9/23.

In week 16 vs. Atlanta, Warner completed 35 passes, tying him with Jake Plummer and Boomer Esiason for second place on the franchise single game list behind only Neil Lomax (37).

KURT WARNER SELECTED AS FINALIST FOR "HOME DEPOT NFL NEIGHBORHOOD MVP" AWARD

Arizona Cardinals quarterback Kurt Warner was selected as a finalist for the "Home Depot NFL Neighborhood MVP" award. On Tuesday, December 4, 2007, Warner was honored with a field refurbishment in his name at the City of Phoenix Parks and Recreation Department at Monterey Park.

The Home Depot Neighborhood MVP program is designed to recognize players who are making a positive impact in their local communities.

Home Depot, the NFL, and Players Inc. selected 17 players from NFL markets and then narrowed the list down to eight finalists. The selected players stand out from their peers through their dedication to community service, commitment of both time and dollars to local charities and an overall desire to improve the lives of people less fortunate than themselves.

Each finalist selected received a field refurbishment valued at $50,000, a $2,500 donation to the charity of their choice and $2,500 Home Depot gift card.

Atlanta Falcons running back Warrick Dunn was honored as the "Home Depot NFL Neighborhood MVP of the Year". He received a $25,000 donation to a charity of his choice and a $25,000 Home Depot gift card as well as an all expense paid trip for two to Super Bowl XLII.

- Arizona's sixth-round selection in the 2003 Draft, Wells was a restricted free agent following the 2005 season; Cardinals matched an offer sheet from the Buffalo Bills, resulting in the five-year deal Wells signed on 3/21/06 that keeps him under contract through 2010.
- Has started the last 58 games he has appeared in with the Cardinals, dating back to the final game of the 2003 season.
- In 2007, started all 16 games for the third time in his career (2004, 2006).
- His 58 career starts have come at three different positions: left guard (46), right tackle (10) and left tackle (2).
- Scored the first touchdown of his NFL career when he recovered an Edgerrin James fumble in the endzone @ St. Louis on 10/7/07. It was his first touchdown since his senior year of high school when, as a defensive end, he picked up a fumble that was forced on a sack by his brother Ryan, and returned it for a touchdown.
- On May 10, 2008 both Reggie and his father earned their degrees from Clarion, completing a family tradition, as both his mother, Diane (1990), and his brother, Ryan (2005) also received degrees from Clarion.

Pro Career:

Arizona's first selection in the sixth round (177th overall) of the 2003 NFL Draft, Wells started every game for the Cardinals in 2004 after making his first career start in the dramatic 2003 season finale vs. Min (12/28). Started nine games for the Cardinals at left guard in 2005 before suffering a broken ankle @ Det (11/13) and was placed on the injured reserve on 11/15. A restricted free agent following the 2005 season, he remained a Cardinal when the club matched Buffalo's offer sheet.

2007: Starting all 16 games at left guard and joined Mike Gandy as the only offensive linemen to start every game in 2007 ... was the only Cardinal offensive player to play every snap in '07 ... helped Arizona gain 161 yards on the ground on 38 carries in the season opener @ SF (9/10) ... was part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack and helped Edgerrin James run for 128 yards on 24 attempts in the home opener vs. Sea (9/16) ... showed flexibility by starting at left guard and moving to right tackle when starter Elton Brown got injured in the second quarter @ STL (10/7); recovered a James fumble in the endzone to tie the game at 10 in the second quarter; it was his first touchdown since his senior year of high school ... led the way for the offense to rack up 552 total yards vs. SF ((11/25), the most by a Cardinals offense since 1949 (Chicago Cardinals, 572 yards, 11/13) ... started vs. Cle (12/2) and helped not allow a sack for the third time in '07 (only happened once in 2006) while helping James to his second 100+ yard rushing performance of the year ... helped James eclipse 1,000-yards on the season @ NO (12/16) becoming only the second Cardinal running back to record back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons (Otis Anderson 1983 and 1984) ... line allowed zero sacks in the final two games of 2007 (vs. Atl 12/23, vs. StL 12/30) and a total of five times in which the Cardinals went 4-1.

2006: Started all 16 games and played every offensive snap while switching between left guard and right tackle throughout the season ... part of an offensive line that allowed just 24 sacks in '07, the lowest total since 1978 (22) ... started at left guard in the season opener vs. SF (9/10) ... switched to his second position on the offensive line in as many weeks, starting at right tackle @ Sea (9/17) ... switched back to left guard vs. StL (9/24) where he stayed through the game @ Oak (10/22) ... switched to right tackle for the start @ GB (10/29) and would stay there for the remainder of the season ... helped lead Edgerrin James to his first 100-yard rushing game as a Cardinals and led the way for Marcel Shipp to run for a career high three TDs @ StL (12/3) ... played an inspired game after waking up with the flu and having to take intravenous fluids to play vs. Sea (12/24); led Edgerrin James to his second consecutive 115-yard performance and was part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack; for his efforts was given the game ball following the contest ... @ SF (12/24), helped lead James to 105 yard rushing, becoming the first Cardinals running back since Adrian Murrell in 1998 to rush for 1,000 yards in a season.

2005: Continued his streak of consecutive starts for the Cardinals in 2005, starting the first nine games of the season before a broken ankle suffered @ Det (11/13) landed him on the injured reserve list on 11/15 ... started the first two games of the season at LG and snapped in shotgun formations in the home opener vs. StL (9/18) and @ Sea (9/25).

2004: Started at LG in each of the first 15 games of the season ... shifted to LT for the final game of 2004 due to an injury to Leonard Davis and was part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack vs. TB (1/2).

2003: Appeared in 15 games with one start, primarily on special teams ... recorded first pro start at LT in place of L.J. Shelton (ankle) vs. Min (12/28) in dramatic season ending 18-17 win ... prior to game-winning touchdown pass from quarterback Josh McCown to Nate Poole, recovered a McCown fumble on previous play when Vikings defensive lineman Chris Hovan batted the ball away from McCown and Wells made the recovery to set up the dramatic finish.

College:

Four-year starter at Clarion (PA) State ... two-time NCAA Division II All-America and all-Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) choice ... hours of commitment to strength program saw him add over 50 pounds to his frame after arriving on Clarion campus as a freshman ... father Reggie, Sr. was a basketball All-America at Clarion and was inducted into the Clarion Sports Hall of Fame in 1990.

NOTE CARDS

- Received long-overdue recognition and earned his first Pro Bowl berth in 2006 when he was selected as a starter to the NFC squad.
- Selected as one of five team captains (defense) by his teammates prior to the 2007 season.
- Had made 59 consecutive starts (and appeared in 73 straight games) before sitting out at Cincinnati (11/18/07) with a heel injury that would eventually need surgery and land him on injured reserve for the first time in his career. Before the Bengals game, the last game Wilson had missed was in 2002 and he was the only Cardinal player to start every game since the beginning of the 2004 season.
- In 2006, returned both an interception and a fumble 99 yards for touchdowns, becoming the first defensive player in NFL history with two touchdowns of 99+ yards in the same season; also only NFL player ever with multiple 99-yarders without the benefit of a kickoff return.
- In 2006, led the Cardinals in interceptions (4), forced fumbles (4), fumble recoveries, tackles for a loss (8) and was third in tackles (87) and fourth in sacks (5.0).
- His 8.0 sacks in 2005 were the most in NFL history by a defensive back since sacks became an official statistic in 1982 and also led the team. The previous record belonged to Chicago's Dave Duerson (7.0 in 1986).
- Opted not to become an unrestricted free agent following the 2004 season and instead signed a five-year extension on 12/22/04 that will keep him under contract with the Cardinals, through the 2009 season.

Pro Bowl Selection:

Pro Career:

The Cardinals third-round draft choice in 2001 (64th overall), Wilson has emerged as a defensive leader and signed a five-year contract extension on 12/22/04. In 103 career games with the Cardinals he has recorded 566 tackles, 16.0 sacks, 16 interceptions and scored four TDs.

2007: Started the first nine games of '07, registering 54 tackles with two interceptions before suffering season ending heel injury vs. Det (11/11) ... second on the team with season-high 10 total tackles and eight unassisted tackles as well as one tackle for loss @ Bal (9/23) ... registered five total tackles (three solos) and two tackles for loss while intercepting Ben Roethlisberger in the end zone in a critical play following a Cardinals fumble that gave the Steelers the ball at the AZ four-yard line with the score tied in the third quarter vs. Pit (9/30) ... recorded five tackles, an interception and one pass defense @ StL (10/7); marked the first time in his career with an interception in consecutive games ... registered six tackles @ Was (10/21) as part of defense that held Washington to 160 total net yards, the lowest output by a Cardinals opponent since the L.A. Rams had 152 yards on 9/4/94 ... recorded one tackle for loss and one quarterback pressure that resulted in a Karlos Dansby interception before leaving the game in the third quarter due to a heel injury vs. Det (11/11) ... had made 59 consecutive starts while appearing in 73 straight games before being inactive with a right heel injury @ Cin (11/18) ... inactive vs. SF (11/25) and placed on injured reserve on 12/1/07.

2006: Selected to his first Pro Bowl after starting all 16 games, returning both a interception and fumble 99 yards for touchdowns ... had a solid all around game with seven tackles, two sacks and an interception of QB Matt Hasselbeck @ Sea (9/17); the two sacks gave Wilson, who set an NFL record for defensive backs with eight sacks in 2005, eight sacks in his last nine games ... intercepted a Michael Vick pass near the Cardinals endzone and returned it a franchise record 99 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter to help temporarily give the Cardinals the lead @ Atl (10/1); also recorded five tackles ... on Monday Night Football vs. Chi (10/16) recorded six tackles, a sack of Rex Grossman, one pass defended and a forced fumble ... totaled nine tackles and recovered a fourth quarter Chester Taylor fumble at the Cardinals one-yard line and ran in back 99 yards for a TD @ Min (11/26); 99-yard TD return was his second of the season; became the first player in NFL history to record two TD's of 99+ yards in the same season without the benefit of a kickoff return TD, a feat that has been accomplished only five times since the 1970 merger, the other four accomplishing the feat with kickoff returns ... came up with another big game, tying for the team high with nine tackles while adding an interception, two pass defenses and a forced fumble @ StL (12/3); the interception, his fourth of the season tying his career high, came as the Rams were driving in Arizona territory minutes before halftime helping to set up a Neil Rackers 23-yard FG ... continued his push for the Pro Bowl with six tackles and a fumble recovery vs. Sea (12/10); fumble recovery came after Robert Griffith knocked the ball loose from Seattle RB Shawn Alexander and led to a Cardinals TD on the ensuing possession; also made the key tackle on fourth down that stopped Seattle's potential game winning drive ... voted to his first career Pro Bowl on 12/19/06.

2005: Selected as a Pro Bowl alternate ... recorded eight sacks, a team-high and the most by a defensive back in the NFL since sacks became official in 1982 ... recorded 11 tackles, the second highest total on the team @ Sea (9/25) and broke up one pass ... recorded a career-high 17 tackles @ Det (11/13) and defended one pass ... had a career game @ StL (11/20) sacking the Rams QBs three times and forcing Marc Bulger out of the game with a shoulder injury; recorded eight stops, also recorded a forced fumble and recovered a fumble ... recorded another outstanding day as he notched seven tackles, two for a loss, a sack on Alex Smith, a forced fumble, recovered a fumble and deflected a pass @ SF (12/4) ... recorded seven solo tackles and intercepted Mark Brunell for his first pick of the season vs. Was (12/11) ... recorded

Entering 2006, Pro Bowl safety Adrian Wilson had two touchdowns in his previous five NFL seasons – a 61-yard INT return at Washington on 1/6/02 and a 35-yard fumble return vs. New Orleans on 10/3/04.

He not only matched that figure in 2006, but nearly went the length of the field on each.

The second of those two TDs came at Minnesota on 11/26 when he scooped up a fourth quarter fumble by Chester Taylor and raced 99 yards for a TD. Wilson also had a franchise record 99-yard INT return for a TD off Michael Vick in Arizona's game at Atlanta on 10/1/06.

According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Wilson is the first player in NFL history to record two touchdowns of 99+ yards in the same season without the benefit of a kickoff return TD.

Wilson became just the fifth player since the 1970 NFL merger to record two 99+ yard scores of any kind in the same season. The four others all scored on kickoff returns.

The Vikings game began when Arizona's J.J. Arrington returned the opening kickoff 99 yards for a TD. When Wilson later scored on his 99-yard fumble return, it marked just the second time in NFL history that teammates scored touchdowns of 99+ yards. According to Elias, the other time was a Cowboys-Eagles game on 10/14/62 when Dallas' Amos Marsh returned a kickoff 101 yards and Mike Gaechter had a 100-yard INT return.

DOMINIQUE RODGERS-CROMARTIE

COLLEGE: Tennessee State

DOB: April 4, 1986

HOMETOWN: Bradenton, FL

CORNERBACK / 6-2 / 182

ROUND 1:
16th Overall

NOTE CARDS

- The Cardinals first-round selection in the 2008 draft and the 16th overall pick; was the second cornerback taken in the draft after Troy's Leodis McKelvin went to Buffalo with the 11th overall selection.
- Became the first Tennessee State player taken in the first round since 1974 when both DE Ed "Too Tall" Jones (Dallas, 1st overall) and LB Raymond Bryant (Bears, 4th overall) were both selected.
- Is the second cousin of Chargers All-Pro cornerback Antonio Cromartie, who led the NFL with 10 interceptions in 2007.
- Of his 11 career interceptions at Tennessee State, he returned four for touchdowns and averaged 28.5 yards per interception return. In addition to his four interceptions for touchdowns, he also returned a fumble and a kickoff for touchdowns and blocked eight kicks in his career.
- In 39 career starts at Tennessee State, quarterbacks completed just 55 of 161 passes thrown in his direction for a completion percentage of 34.2%. He held the opposition to just 3.54 yards per pass attempt, the best of any collegiate defensive back in the last three years in the NCAA.
- Had a non-functioning kidney removed as a youngster and has played his whole life with just one.
- Attended four different high schools in his prep career, moving in with his father, who was a coach, as a freshman. The following year he attended a private school which dropped its scholarship program at the end of that year, moving him back into public school as a junior. For his senior year, he moved back in with his mother, attending his fourth school in four years.
- Last name is derived from both his mother, Melissa Rodgers, and his father, Stanley Cromartie.

College Career:

A two-time All-American and three-time All-Ohio Valley first-team selection at Tennessee State, Rodgers-Cromartie appeared in 44 games with 39 starts after earning the starting job midway through his freshman season. He showed a knack for making big plays as, of his 11 career interceptions, he returned four for touchdowns and averaged 28.5 yards per interception return. In addition to his four interceptions for touchdowns, he also returned a fumble and a kickoff for touchdowns and blocked eight kicks in his career.

As a special teamer, he returned 36 kickoffs for 859 yards and six punts for 44 yards and on the offensive side of the ball, he caught two passes for 46 yards and rushed twice for 16 yards. An all-around athlete, Rodgers-Cromartie was also a track star in college, qualifying for the NCAA Mid-East Regionals after he captured the Ohio Valley Conference long jump title with a jump of 25' 0.75". At the 2007 OVC Indoor Track Championship, he won the Top Male Athlete award after winning the 60-meter dash (6.89), long jump (25' 0.75") and high jump (6' 9.5") and finished second in the triple jump (48' 8").

2007: Earned third-team All-America honors from the NFL Draft Report and was an All-Ohio Valley Conference first-team selection for the second consecutive season ... in addition to his duties as cornerback, saw action on offense and served as the team's kick-off returner ... recorded 37 tackles, 11 passes defended, two interceptions (both of which he returned for touchdowns) and recovered two fumbles ... established a school season-record by blocking four kicks and gained 806 yards and a touchdown on 33 kickoff returns ... of the 60 passes thrown in his direction, allowed only 22 receptions on the season.

2006: Was an All-America first-team pick by the NFL Draft Report and garnered All-Ohio Valley Conference first-team accolades after recording career-highs in tackles (47) and interceptions (six), adding seven passes defended and two blocked kicks ... did not allow an opponent to catch a pass in three separate contests ... of the 45 passes thrown in his direction, opposing quarterbacks completed just 12 of them (26.7 completion percentage) as he allowed quarterbacks to average just 3.56 yards per pass attempt, the best figure of any cornerback in any level of college football.

2005: As an All-Ohio Valley first-team selection, started all eleven games and did not allow an opponent to catch a single pass in four of those games ... allowed just ten receptions for 52 yards on the season as opponents averaged a paltry 1.86 yards per pass attempt ... finished fifth on the team with 41 tackles, adding one interception and five passes defended ... blocked a punt that he returned 17 yards and added three tackles for a loss of five yards.

2004: Was named the Ohio Valley Conference Defensive Newcomer of the Year by the Gridiron Report after taking over the starting cornerback duties for six games, including the last five of the season ... recorded 33 tackles, two interceptions (both of which he returned for touchdowns), two fumble recoveries (one of which he returned for a touchdown) and three passes defended ... blocked one punt, which he also recovered and returned 11 yards ... allowed just 11 receptions for 146 yards and a touchdown while yielding just 5.03 yards per attempt.

Personal:

Full name Dominique Reshard Rodgers-Cromartie ... attended Lakewood Ranch (FL) High School where he was an All-Area, All-Class 5A and All-District 11 defensive back and wide receiver ... named the most underrated prospect in the state of Florida by the High School Recruiting Report as Lakewood Ranch became the fourth high school he attended and first where he received playing time ... also competed as a jumper and sprinter on the school's track team ... born with a non-functioning kidney that was removed when he was eight years old ... psychology major at Tennessee State.

NOTE CARDS

- As a senior, was the leading receiver on LSU's National Championship team, catching 57 passes for 525 yards and five touchdowns despite playing much of the year with a groin injury.
- Joined future NFL receivers Dwayne Bowe and Michael Clayton as the only three players in LSU history with 20+ career touchdowns. Bowe finished with 26 touchdowns and Clayton finished with 21.
- Coming out of high school, was ranked as the best receiver in the country and the top recruit in the state of Louisiana by College Football News. An all-around exceptional athlete, Doucet played quarterback, wide receiver, running back and returned kicks at St. Martinville H.S., finishing his prep career with 7,104 all-purpose yards and 79 touchdowns.
- Doucet made his only trip to Arizona on September 10, 2005 as a member of the LSU team whose home game vs. Arizona State was moved to Arizona and was the Tigers first game following Hurricane Katrina. In a roller coaster game, the Tigers were down 17-7 in the fourth quarter before coming all the way back to eventually win 35-31 on a 39-yard game winning TD pass from JaMarcus Russell to Doucet on fourth down.

College Career:

Played in 47 games during his career (24 starts) and caught 160 passes for 1,943 yards and 20 TDs, ranking third in LSU history in career receiving TDs (20), fourth in career receptions (160), and ninth in career receiving yards (1,943). Will go down in LSU lore as having one of the greatest catches in school history with his 39-yard TD reception from JaMarcus Russell late in the fourth quarter against Arizona State in the 2005 season opener; the catch came on a fourth-and-10 situation and sent the Tigers to the victory over the Sun Devils in what was LSU's first game since Hurricane Katrina hit the Louisiana coast.

2007: Led LSU's National Championship team with 57 receptions for 525 yards and five touchdowns despite missing five games with a groin injury ... appeared in 10 games (nine starts) ... earned All-SEC second-team honors from The Sporting News ... finished off his college career in grand fashion, leading the Tigers with seven receptions for 57 yards and a touchdown in the BCS title game vs. Ohio State.

2006: Played in 13 games (six starts) and combined with current NFL receivers and first-round picks Craig Davis (Chargers) and Dwayne Bowe (Chiefs) to form one of the nation's premier receiving corps ... finished the season ranked second on the team with 59 catches for 772 yards and eight touchdowns ... carried the ball eight times for 59 yards and two TDs and his 10 combined touchdowns ranked as the sixth most in the SEC ... was named to the All-SEC second team by the league coaches as a return specialist and accounted for a team-best 1,032 all-purpose yards (772 receiving, 202 kickoff returns, 59 rushing) for an average of 79.4 per game.

2005: Played in 12 games (five starts) and finished the season with 26 catches for 389 yards and five touchdowns ... had at least one reception in 11 of the Tigers' 12 games ... caught the game-winning TD with just over a minute left in 35-31 win over Arizona State, hauling in a 39-yard TD reception from JaMarcus Russell on a fourth-and-10 situation against the Sun Devils ... caught a season-high five passes in consecutive games against Mississippi State and Vanderbilt.

2004: Was a consistent contributor at wide receiver as a true freshman and was named to the Freshmen All-SEC team by the league's coaches after catching 18 passes for 257 yards and two TDs ... appeared in all 12 games with three starts ... caught at least one pass in 10 of LSU's 12 games, including a career-best five receptions for 86 yards against Troy ... first career TD came on a 12-yard reception from JaMarcus Russell against Mississippi State.

NFL ROOKIES VISIT PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME IN NEW ORIENTATION PROGRAM

As an expanded element of their annual orientation program, all NFL rookies visited the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. The trips to the Hall were designed to teach incoming players about the history of pro football and give them a greater appreciation of the NFL and the opportunities and responsibilities ahead.

"We got to see how some of the past players paved the way," 2008 third round pick Early Doucet said. "You definitely think about yourself, how your decisions now can affect later on, how maybe one day you could be inducted - or just how you will be remembered on and off the field."

Each team's tour was headed by its player development director and included speakers representing former NFL players, Pro Football Hall of Fame personnel and others. The Arizona rookies were guided by Cardinal Hall of Famer Larry Wilson and Arizona's Senior Director of Player Relations Anthony Edwards when they took the tour on May 30, 2008.

NFL Player Development and the Pro Football Hall of Fame coordinated the visits to Canton, which took place from May 28-June 23. Rookies got to learn about the NFL's history and heritage, focusing on the achievements of NFL greats who paved the way for today's players. This experience helped prepare rookies for their own careers while stressing the importance of their role as NFL players.

- Became the first player from Northern Iowa ever drafted by the Cardinals. The Cardinals do have ties to Northern Iowa however, as QB Kurt Warner and assistant coach Dedric Ward are both alumni of the University.
- After not having anyone from the school drafted since TE Ryan Hannam went to the Seahawks in the fifth-round (169th overall) in 2002, Keith became the second Northern Iowa alumni drafted in 2008. His fellow offensive line mate, OT Chad Rinehart, was taken by the Redskins in the third-round (96th overall).
- The selection of Keith gave the Cardinals three draft picks from schools outside Division I-A in 2008, the first time that has occurred since the draft went to seven rounds in 1994.

College Career:

The biggest player ever to compete at Northern Iowa, Keith enrolled at the University of Oklahoma in 2003 but left before the season. Enrolled at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M junior college after leaving Oklahoma and earned NJCAA All-American second-team honors. He returned to Oklahoma in 2005 but left without ever suiting up for the team. After transferring to Division I-AA Northern Iowa, played in 18 games of the next two years, earning All-Gateway Conference first-team and Associated Press third-team All-America honors in 2007.

2007: Started 11 of 13 games at right tackle as a senior and was named to the Associated Press All-America third-team ... helped lead the Panthers to a perfect 11-0 regular season as the team was ranked No. 1 in nation for six weeks during the season ... rush offense averaged 227.4 yards-per-game which was second-best in the Gateway Conference and 15th best nationally ... was named to the Texas squad in the Texas vs. The Nation all-star game.

2006: Appeared in seven games (two starts) and missed four games with a bone bruise in his knee ... was a part of the Panthers offense that ranked No. 1 in the Gateway Conference and fourth in the nation in total offense.

2004: Attended Northeastern Oklahoma A&M junior college where he was a second-team NJCAA All-American selection and first-team All-Southwest League.

2007 TEAM MILESTONES

- The Cardinals finished the season with an 8-8 record, their best finish since 1998 when they finished 9-7. It marked the third time since moving to Arizona that the team finished with a .500 record or better (1994 and 1998).
- Arizona finished the season with a home record of 6-2, the best home record for the team since they finished 6-1 in 1976.
- The team established a new franchise record for passing touchdowns in a season with 32 in 2007, two more than the previous record of 30 established in 1963.
- Arizona finished with the NFL's fifth rated passing offense, totaling 4,065 net yards through the air.
- The Cardinals scored a total of 404 points on the year, an average of 25.3 points per game, and the second-highest point total in franchise history (423 in 1984). Arizona scored 30+ points in a game six times in 2007, the highest number since they accomplished the feat seven times in 1984.
- The Cardinals scored 20+ points in the final eight consecutive games, the longest streak since 1983-84 when the team scored 20+ points in 11 consecutive games.
- Arizona scored 49 total touchdowns in 2007, the fourth highest total in franchise history, including a new franchise record six touchdowns scored on interception returns.
- The Cardinals established a new franchise record and led the NFL in 2007 with 551 interception return yards.
- Arizona finished the season with a 94.0 scoring percentage inside the redzone in 2007, the second-best total in the NFL behind only New England's 94.4 percent.

2007 INDIVIDUAL MILESTONES

Head Coach Ken Whisenhunt

- Led the team to an 8-8 record in his first season in Arizona, the first coach to do so since Buddy Ryan in 1994.
- Improved the Cardinals record by three wins over their 2006 total, the biggest improvement of any of the five rookie head coaches in 2007.

WR Larry Fitzgerald

- Earned his second Pro Bowl invitation after leading the NFC in both receptions and receiving yards.
- Recorded the second 100-catch season and second 1,000-yard season of his career, hauling in 100 receptions for 1,409 yards and 10 touchdowns.
- Joined Anquan Boldin as the only receivers in franchise history with two 100-catch seasons.
- Recorded four 100-yard receiving games, giving him 13 for his career.
- Tied the franchise record with at least one touchdown in five consecutive games.

WR Anquan Boldin

- Became the fastest receiver in NFL history to record 400 receptions, doing it in his 67th career game.
- Set a new career-high with 14 receptions vs. Baltimore in week three, totaling 181 yards, the second-highest total of his career.
- Established personal high with nine TD receptions despite playing in only 12 games.

QB Kurt Warner

- Despite starting in only 11 games in 2007, threw 27 touchdown passes, the second-highest total in franchise history.
- Threw for multiple touchdowns in the last eight games of the season, the longest such streak of his career.
- Threw for a career-high 484 yards vs. San Francisco in week 12, which is also the second-highest yardage total in franchise history.
- Threw for 300+ yards in four games in 2007 and had five starts where he finished with a passer rating of 100.0 or higher.

RB Edgerrin James

- Rushed for 1,222 yards in 2007, becoming only the second running back in franchise history with back-to-back 1,000 yard seasons.
- Moved into 13th place on the NFL's all-time rushing list.
- His 1,222 rushing yards marked the fifth highest total in franchise history.

CB Antrel Rolle

- His three interception returns for touchdowns in 2007 led the NFL and tied for the second-most in NFL history for a single season.
- His two interception returns for touchdowns in week 11 at Cincinnati tied the NFL record for a single game.
- Totalled 231 interception return yards in 2007 which led the NFL.

FIVE CARDINALS NAMED NFC PLAYER OF THE WEEK IN '07

In 2007 the Cardinals earned Player of the Week honors five times, the highest total since 1998 when Arizona had six players garner Player of the Week honors and the second-highest total since the award was created in 1984.

Rookie wide receiver Steve Breaston started the season strong after being named "NFC Special Teams Player of the Week" following a victory in week four against Pittsburgh. In that game, he returned a Steelers punt 73 yards for a touchdown to put the Cardinals ahead 14-7 in the fourth quarter. Breaston's return was the first Cardinals punt return touchdown since September 12, 1993.

The following week, cornerback Roderick Hood was named "NFC Defensive Player of the Week" after recording a career-high two interceptions in the Cardinals victory at St. Louis, including one that he returned 68-yards for a touchdown to put the Cardinals ahead 27-20 in the fourth quarter.

In his first game back after missing the previous two contests due to a knee injury, linebacker Karlos Dansby was named "NFC Defensive Player of the Week" for his performance in a week 10 victory over Detroit. He led the way by collecting two interceptions, a forced fumble, four tackles and two passes defended.

Converting turnovers to points was the key to cornerback Antrel Rolle becoming the first Cardinals defensive player since the "Player of the Week" award was created to win it twice in one season. Rolle earned his first "NFC Defensive Player of the Week" award at Cincinnati in week 11 by registering three interceptions, two of which he returned for touchdowns, tying the NFL record for a single game. He earned his second honor in a season ending victory over St. Louis in which he collected two interceptions and returned one 47 yards for a touchdown.

2007 GAME SUMMARIES

49ERS 20, CARDINALS 17

SEPTEMBER 10, 2007
MONSTER PARK (68,111)

The Cardinals opened the 2007 season with a Monday night match at San Francisco and were seconds away from victory before a late Niners rally sent them home 0-1.

In the first half, each team had a FG and converted a turnover into a TD to make it 10-10 at intermission. On Arizona's first offensive play of the game, QB Matt Leinart was INT'd by Walt Harris, who returned it to the AZ 6. Two snaps later, Frank Gore ran up the middle and scored on a 6-yard run. Early in the second, the Cardinals got on the board when Neil Rackers' 35-yard FG ended a 13-play, 53-yard drive. On the next drive, LB Karlos Dansby blitzed up the middle and sacked Alex Smith, forcing a fumble that DE Antonio Smith recovered at the SF 36. That set-up a 7-yard Edgerrin James TD run that made it 10-7. James led a Cardinals ground attack that was very productive and he opened his second Cards season by rushing 26 times for 92 yards. Meanwhile the AZ defense again did an outstanding job containing SF back Frank Gore, limiting the Pro Bowl RB to 55 yards on 18 carries. They also held talented TE Vernon Davis to 2 catches for 4 yards. After the James TD, the Niners responded with a long drive that reached the AZ 16 before settling for a 33-yard Joe Nedney FG that tied it at the half.

A 30-yard Nedney FG on SF's opening drive of the second half gave the Niners a 13-10 lead they took midway through the fourth. Arizona then went ahead when Leinart connected with WR Anquan Boldin on a 5-yard TD pass to cap a 58-yard drive. One of the key plays came on 3rd-n-3 from the SF30 when Leinart scrambled 20 yards for the first down. Nursing the lead, the Cards were forced to punt it back to SF, who took over at its own 14 with 2:58 left and needing a TD to win. Smith quickly completed passes to get SF near midfield. Facing a 4th-n-1 at the AZ45 with 1:43 left, Smith eluded the Cards rush and ran 25 yards for a 1st down. Three plays later on 3rd-n-13 at the 23, Smith lofted it down the middle to Azeem Battle who caught it at the 1 before fumbling into the end zone. CB Eric Green had a chance to recover but could not and the ball returned to the spot of the fumble when SF recovered. On the next play Battle took a handoff on a reverse and scored from a yard out. Arizona's comeback hopes were officially dashed when Leinart's deep pass on the next snap was intercepted.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (64,542)

The Cardinals followed a heart-breaking loss in the closing moments at San Francisco in week one with an equally dramatic last-second victory in the home opener vs. Seattle. After the Seahawks erased a 17-0 first half deficit to take a 20-17 lead with 9:52 left, Arizona tied it on the ensuing possession with a 52-yard Neil Rackers FG. The Seahawks then seemed well on their way to a game-winning FG try after advancing to the AZ 36 with 1:55 left but QB Matt Hasselbeck and RB Shaun Alexander collided in the backfield and LB Gerald Hayes knocked the ball loose. OT Darrell Dockett ultimately recovered at the SEA 46 with 1:48 to go. Four straight Edgerrin James runs moved the ball to the 24 and Rackers nailed the 42-yard game winner with 0:01 left on the clock to give Ken Whisenhunt his first victory as head coach.

Arizona dominated much of the first half. On Seattle's 2nd drive of the game, Sean Morey blocked a Seahawks punt and that led to a 28-yard Rackers FG. After a Seattle 3-n-out, Matt Leinart capped the next drive with a 30-yard TD to TE Leonard Pope on 3rd-n-1 early in the 2nd. Later in the quarter, James scored on a 17-yard run to put the Cards up 17-0 with 5:43 to play in the first half. The Seahawks offense crossed midfield for the first time on the next drive (their 6th of the game) and capped it when Hasselbeck found WR Nate Burleson with a 24-yard TD pass. Arizona scrambled for a 53-yard FG try but Rackers' 53-yarder hit the left upright as the half ended.

On the opening drive of the 2nd half, LB Lofa Tatupu halted Arizona when he INT'd Leinart and returned it 16 yards to the SEA 48. That set-up a 16-yard Alexander TD run that trimmed the AZ lead to 17-14. Josh Brown then kicked 28-yard FGs on the next two possessions to put Seattle ahead for the first time. On the next AZ drive, a 35-yard catch-n-run by Anquan Boldin took it to the 25 but a holding penalty then backed them up. Rackers saved the scoring chance with his game-tying 52-yarder. With 1:55 left, Seattle was at the AZ36 and close to Brown FG range when the game-changing fumble took place.

James' 128 rushing yards were his most with the Cardinals. Leinart finished 1-yard shy of a 300-yard passing day.

RAVENS 26, CARDINALS 23

M&T BANK STADIUM - (71,372)

In a wild week 3 contest at Baltimore, the Cardinals battled back from a 17-point 4th quarter deficit to tie the game late. However, the Ravens escaped with the win thanks to a 46-yard FG to time expired on a drive that was significantly aided by a suspect personal foul call. Each team utilized its back-up QB and each executed when needed. Kurt Warner initially replaced Cards starter Matt Leinart for a series in the 2nd quarter to run a pre-planned, no-huddle package better suited for the veteran. Warner returned late in the third when AZ went to the set exclusively and engineered the comeback.

Early on, the AZ offense had trouble finding a rhythm but the defense kept things close. Each of Baltimore's first 2 drives went deep into Cards territory and while lengthy (14 plays and 70+ yards per), each ended with a Matt Stover FG. Warner entered the game for the first time midway thru the 2nd quarter and quickly moved the ball with passes to Anquan Boldin and Larry Fitzgerald to set-up a 48-yard Neil Rackers FG that made it 6-3. The Ravens answered on the next drive with a 13-yard scoring pass from Steve McNair to Derrick Mason just after the 2:00 warning. A 3-n-out forced a Cards punt that Yamon figueroa returned 75 yards for a score that made it 20-3. While Leinart put AZ in position for a 47-yard FG try with :23 left, Rackers' try sailed about a foot right.

Early in the 3rd, OT Darrell Dockett forced a McNair fumble and Bertrand Berry recovered at the Ravens 35, leading to a 3-Rackers FG. AZ then recovered a surprise outside kick and Warner re-entered the game. The next play saw him hit Fitzgerald for 27 yards to the Ravens 27 but the WR fumbled at the end of the play and CB Corey Ivy recovered. A Stover FG (43) made it 23-6 late in the 3rd. Warner responded by completing 6 passes for 72 yards and hit Boldin with a 5-yard TD pass. Kyle Bolter then entered the game in relief of McNair but the AZ D forced a 5-yard TD pass. Warner then struck again with a 2-play scoring drive - a 22-yard pass to Fitzgerald and a 32-yard TD to Boldin that made it a 3-point game. After forcing a punt, AZ took over at its own 13 with 5:33 left and Warner led a drive that ended with Rackers' game-tying 41-yarder. With 0:47 left, TE Todd Heap caught a 12-yard pass at the Ravens 46 before being leveled on a clean hit by SS Adrian Wilson that back judge Bob Wagoner inexplicably penalized, moving the ball to the AZ 39 and setting up Stover's game-winner.

In addition to Warner's outstanding performance, Boldin set a career-high with 14 catches (2nd-most in team history) for 181 yards and 2 TDs for his 20th career 100-yard day.

CARDINALS 21, STEELERS 14

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (64,844)

In a week 4 match-up rife with subplots, the Cardinals scored 21 second half points against the NFL's 82 ranked defense to upset the previously unbeaten Steelers and move to 2-2. The Arizona sideline featured many ties to Western PA and the Steelers, most notably head coach Ken Whisenand and top assistant Russ Grimm who were once Steeler assistants. Playing without Pro Bowl WR Anquan Boldin, the Cardinals relied on Larry Fitzgerald (10-120 receiving) and a QB rotation of Matt Leinart & Kurt Warner. Defensively, they limited league-leading RB Willie Parker to 17 yards on 19 carries while halting his 100-yard game streak at 4. They also picked off Ben Roethlisberger twice and forced punts on 7 of Pittsburgh's other drives.

From the outset, it was clear it would be a hard-hitting affair and points would be hard to come by. Pittsburgh notched the game's first score late in the opening quarter when Roethlisberger hit WR Antonio Holmes with a 43-yard TD pass on a 3rd-n-26 play. None of the next 7 Steeler drives, however, produced points and ended in punts (6) and an INT (1). While Leinart QB'd the first 3 drives, Warner entered with 4:56 to go in the 2nd quarter to run the no-huddle as he had the week before in Baltimore. On the 2nd play of the series he hit Larry Fitzgerald with a 20-yard pass to the PIT37 but the WR fumbled at the end of the play and 5 Troy Polamalu returned the recovery to midfield. The AZ defense answered and OT Darrell Dockett recorded the 2nd of his 2.5 sacks on the day to force a punt. Warner & Co. ran the 2:00 offense well enough to yield a FG try but Neil Rackers' 52-yarder was wide left at the 2:00 expired.

On Arizona's opening drive of the 3rd quarter, Warner led a 9-play, 70-yard drive on which he was 6-7 passing for 45 yards (4-28 to Fitzgerald) and capped it with a 6-yard pass to WR Jereme Urban, who saw extended action in Boldin's absence. With the game tied at 7 late in the 3rd, the Cards gave Pittsburgh a golden opportunity when Warner mishandled a shotgun snap and the Steelers recovered at the A24. After stopping Parker on the first two downs, S Adrian Wilson halted the threat by stepping in front of TE Heath Miller in the endzone and recording the INT. The game was still tied early in the 4th when rookie Steve Benetton fielded a Steelers punt at the A27 and took it 73 yards for Arizona's first punt return TD since 1993. Leading 14-7, the Cards D forced another Pittsburgh punt and when the offense took over at its own 18 with 11:33 left it was with Leinart back at QB. On his first snap he hit Fitzgerald on a 38-yard pass to the PIT44 and despite leaving for 1 play after a violent but unpenalized hit, engineered a long (13-82, 7:19) drive that ended with a 2-yard Edgerrin James run that made it 21-7. James was 7-20 on the drive and Leinart was 3-4-56 passing but his biggest play may have been with his legs. Facing a 4th-n-1 at the PIT24, the Cards passed on a FG try that could have made it a 10-point game and Leinart picked up the 1st down on a sneak. Roethlisberger then made it a one score game on the next drive when he hit Holmes with a 7-yard TD pass with 1:54 but Fitzgerald recovered the ensuing inside kick and that, along with a Ralph Brown INT 89 second later sealed the win.

CARDINALS 34, RAMS 31

EDWARD JONES DOME - (61,788)

The Cardinals moved to 3-2 and recorded their first red win of '07 thanks to a 3-point victory at St. Louis that put them in a first place tie in the NFC West. The Cardinals again employed the 2-0B rotation of Matt Leinart and Kurt Warner before Leinart suffered a fractured collarbone late in the 1st half and Warner went the rest of the way against his former team. Playing a 2nd straight week without Pro Bowl WR Anquan Boldin, fellow all-pro Larry Fitzgerald recorded his 2nd consecutive 100-yard game (9-136) and had a pivotal TD late in the 4th.

Winless and minus several starters, the Rams gave the Cardinals everything they could handle. Back-up Gaius Fretotte started at QB and ran a no-huddle set that produced a FG and TD on the first two St. Louis drives while Arizona's Neil Rackers hit a 50-yard FG in between. Warner entered the game midway thru the 2nd quarter and ran the Cards no-huddle package that netted the team's first TD when G Reggie Wells scored his first career TD by faling on an Edgerman James fumble in the end zone. On the 2nd play of the next Arizona drive, Leinart suffered the collarbone injury on a sack by LB Will Witherspoon. Jeff Wilkins then hit a 35-yard FG with 1:17 left in the first half to put the Rams at 13-10 but Warner followed with a drive punctuated by several bold calls. With 0:36 left and facing a 4th-and-6 at the SL 41, the Cards went to it and Warner hit Fitzgerald for 6. Two plays later the two connected on a 34-yarder to the one and used their final timeout with 0:14 left. When James was stopped for no gain on the next play, time expired before the Cards could get a snap off but the Rams were flagged for intentionally kicking the ball and on the untimed down, Warner dove up and over for the TD putting Arizona up 17-13 at the half.

The Rams reclaimed the lead on the opening drive of the 2nd half when Fretotte hit Tony Holt with an 11-yard TD pass. St. Louis' next drive ended when a pass glanced off Holt's hands to Cards CB Rod Hood. The INT set the Cards up at the Rams 14 but two plays later Fakhr Brown recorded his second INT of the game when he picked off a Warner pass in the end zone. The Cards tied it with a 32-yard Rackers FG on their next drive, then took a 27-20 lead early in the 4th when Hood snapped a Fretotte pass and returned it 68 yards for his first career TD. A 31-yard Wilkins FG made it 27-23 midway thru the 4th and the Rams soon got the ball back after a Cards 3-out. However, SS Adrian Wilson killed the threat with an amazingly athletic play on a 34-yard Fretotte pass attempt that he broke up with his left hand, batting it to himself for an INT that he returned to the Rams 39. That drive ended with Warner's perfect pass on 3rd-and-goal from the 7 that Fitzgerald caught for his first TD of the season. The Rams added a TD and 2-point conversion on the next drive but Fitzgerald recovered the on-side kick to seal the win.

PANTHERS 25, CARDINALS 10

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (64,403)

The Cardinals fell to 3-3 and dropped their first home game of the year with a 25-10 loss to the Panthers. However, they stayed in a first-place tie atop the NFC West with Seattle, who lost at home to the Saints. It was a battle of the battered as both teams began the week by placing their starting quarterbacks on I.R. - Arizona's Matt Leinart (collarbone) and Carolina's Jake Delhomme (elbow). The Panthers were further hampered when #2 man David Carr (back) was unable to go and in a game-time decision turned to 43-year-old Vinny Testaverde, who had joined the team midweek. Arizona was soon in a similar position when starter Kurt Warner injured his left (non-throwing) elbow midway through the opening quarter on a sack by Julius Peppers. The Cards turned to their own recent squire, Tim Rattay, who had just joined the team on Tuesday.

Carolina's John Kasay kicked FGs of 33 and 43 yards on consecutive drives at the end of the first quarter and start of the second to give the Panthers a 6-0 lead. On the next possession, the Cards answered by moving 80 yards in 12 plays and capped it with Edgerman James' longest TD run as a Cardinal (23 yards). James was 7-43 rushing on the drive while Rattay was 4-4 for 28 passing. Neither team was able to record a first down on the next 5 combined possessions and the half ended with Arizona leading 7-6.

Kasay's 24-yard FG on Carolina's 2nd possession of the 2nd half put the Panthers ahead 9-7 but Arizona again responded on the next series. WR Larry Fitzgerald - playing for the 3rd straight game without fellow all-pro Anquan Boldin (hip) - outleapt a Carolina defender to come down with a 36-yard completion from Rattay and that was key in setting up a 50-yard Neil Rackers FG that gave Arizona a 1-point lead. Kasay's miss on a 45-yard attempt early in the 4th allowed the Cards to hold onto that lead further into the final quarter. With 5:52 to play, Carolina took over at its own 10 but a 25-yard pass interference penalty on 1st down moved it to the 35 and on the next snap, Testaverde hooked up with Steve Smith on a 65-yard TD that gave Carolina a 15-10 lead after the 2-point try failed. On the very next play from scrimmage, Rattay's pass attempt went off the hands of TE Leonard Pope and was INT'd by CB Ken Lucas at the AZ 36. That led quickly to a 45-yard Kasay FG which made it 18-10. With 3:26 to go and the Cards needing a TD and 2-point conversion to tie, the offense had advanced to midfield. Rattay seemed to have WR Jerheme Urban open down the middle but the receiver bobbled the pass and Deke Cooper corralled the loose ball for an INT. On the next snap, DeAngelo Williams raced 75 yards off left tackle to the 14 and shortly thereafter he scored from 13 yards out to put Carolina up 25-10 and put the game out of reach.

REDSKINS 21, CARDINALS 19
FED EX FIELD - (85,640)

The Cardinals dug themselves an early hole at DC but battled back in thrilling fashion. They scored 13 fourth quarter points to pull within two but were unsuccessful on both a 2-point try with 0:21 left that would have tied it and a 55-yard FG in the closing seconds that they would have won it. Instead the team fell to 3-4 and out of first place.

QB Kurt Warner turned in a gutsy performance for the Cards. Starting a week after learning a ligament in his left elbow, he played the entire game with a heavily braced arm and was instrumental in leading Arizona's comeback. He also showed tremendous resiliency in battling back from a pair of INTs that led to Washington's 2 first-half TDs. On the Cards 2nd drive, FS Sean Taylor returned a Warner INT 48 yards to the AZ25 setting up a 2-yard Clinton Portis run. Midway through the 2nd quarter, MLB London Fletcher picked Warner off at the AZ27 and returned it for a TD. Late in the 1st half, the Cards went for it on 4th-n-2 at the WASH48 but came up short, turning it over on downs. The Arizona 2D then came up with one of its many huge plays on the next snap. DE Bertrand Berry sniffed out a screen and batted Jason Campbell's pass into the arms of LB Calvin Pace who returned his first career INT 14 yards to the WASH23 with 1:46 to play. The Cards ultimately faced a 4th-n-goal at the 2 with 0:06 left when Warner hit WR Anquan Boldin for a TD that made it 14-6 after the PAT was blocked. After missing the previous 3 contests with a hip injury, Boldin finished with a game-high 8 catches and 2 receiving TDs.

Redskins Rock Cartwright returned the opening kickoff of the 2nd half 71 yards to the AZ21 but a Pace sack on 3rd down backed the Skins up and kicker Shaun Suisham missed from 41. The Redskins didn't miss on their next drive, moving 59 yards in 11 plays and took a 21-6 lead on Portis' 1-yard TD run. Arizona then narrowed it to 21-13 early in the 4th thanks to a 10-yard Warner-to-Boldin connection. The 12-play, 72-yard drive was aided by a pair of Redskins personal fouls (S LaRon Landry & Fletcher). Arizona's next drive reached the WASH5 thanks to completions of 22 and 43 yards to TE Leonard Pope and WR Larry Fitzgerald, respectively. However, DE Andre Carter's sack of Warner forced a fumble that DE Phillip Daniels recovered at the WASH13 to kill the drive midway thru the 4th. Arizona's D kept the comeback hope alive by forcing 3-n-outs on the next two Washington drives and overall did not allow a first down in the entire 4th quarter. With 2:37 left, the Cards took over at their own 29. A 22-yard pass to WR Jerame Urban was followed 2 plays later by a 29-yard catch-n-run to the WASH2 by RB JJ. Arrington. After 2 runs failed to reach the end zone, back-up QB Tim Rattay was inserted for a 3rd-n-goal play from the 1 with 0:26 left. On a play action pass, he found Pope for a TD. On the tying 2-point try, Boldin took a direct snap in shotgun and tried a pass to Fitzgerald that was short. The Cards had life when Urban recovered the on-side kick at the AZ41 with 0:20 left and one timeout. Consecutive catches of 15 and 7 yards by WR Bryant Johnson set-up a game-winning FG try but Neil Rackers' 55-yarder with 0:02 left was just wide.

BUCCANEERS 17, CARDINALS 10
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM - (65,267)

The Cardinals returned from the bye week with a road game at Tampa against the 4-4 Bucs. A win would have upped Arizona's record to 4-4 at the season's midway mark but the Tampa defense proved to be too formidable a foe. After notching a FG on their opening drive of the game, Arizona failed to record another first down the rest of the half. The 3rd quarter was also all Tampa as the Bucs held a 13-13 tie at 1:47 edge in time of possession and took a 17-3 lead into the final stanza. The Cards scored a TD midway through the 4th to make it a one score game at 17-10. They would get the ball back twice more but were unable to find the end zone either time.

Arizona's day got off the a fast start when Kurt Warner connected with Larry Fitzgerald for a 44-yard pass play on the game's second play from scrimmage. The completion looked like it might go the distance but Fitzgerald stepped out at the TB 33. The play did set up a 47-yard Neil Rackers FG that gave AZ its only lead of the day at 3-0. Tampa responded on the next series with a 10-play, 77-yard drive. The score came when WR Joey Galloway wrestled the ball from FS Terrence Holt for a 37-yard TD from Jeff Garcia. On the first play of the 2nd quarter, the Cards were backed up to their own 5 after a Tampa punt when Warner was INT'd by FS Tanard Jackson setting the Bucs up at the AZ17. The Cards defense forced them to settle for a 32-yard Matt Bryant FG. The only other chance for points by either team came just before intermission when Bryant missed from 58 yards as the half expired.

Tampa opened the 2nd half with an 11-play, 64-yard drive that ended with a 2-yard. Ernest Graham TD run that made it 17-3. The Bucs then chewed up a large part of the 2nd half on their next drive that consumed 11:59 in 19 plays. They moved from their own 6 to the AZ 8 but Arizona caught a break when TE Alex Smith dropped a pass in the end zone on 3rd down and then Bryant missed a 26-yard FG try. The Cards then embarked upon an 80-yard, 11-play drive and Edgerman James made it 17-10 with 7:50 to go with a 3-yard TD run. The drive's key play was a 16-yard completion to Fitzgerald on 3rd-n-15 from the TB 22. After forcing a punt on the next TB drive, the Cards could not move the chains and punted back to the Bucs with 3:13 left. After Arizona's D sent the Bucs 3-n-out on the next series the Cardinals offense took over at its own 16 with 2:39 left, no timeouts and needing a TD to tie. The comeback try quickly ended when Kurt Warner's first down pass was ruled an INT by Jermaine Phillips even though replays showed he failed to get two feet in bounds. Because the Cards were out of timeouts they could not challenge.

CARDINALS 31, LIONS 21

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM • (64,753)

After two road games sandwiched around the bye, the Cards played a home game for the first time in nearly a month when they hosted the Lions. While Arizona looked to snap a 3-game losing streak, Detroit entered at 6-2 and riding the momentum of 3 straight victories. Thanks to an all-around solid performance from the offense, special teams and especially the defense, the Cards earned a 10-point win that upped their mark to 4-5 (3-1 at home). Leading the way was LB Karlos Dansby, who returned from a 2-week injury hiatus (knee) to record 2 INTs and a forced fumble. Arizona also held Detroit to minus-18 rushing yards (8 attempts), the lowest total in the NFL's modern era (post-1947). Offensively, WR Larry Fitzgerald and TE Leonard Pope each caught a pair of TDs.

On the game's first drive, Detroit created the first break when SS Kenoy Kennedy hit Kurt Warner and returned the pick 38 yards to the A25. That set-up a 4-yard Kevin Jones TD run 3 plays later. The first play of Detroit's next drive saw Dansby drive in front of a Jon Kitna pass and that INT resulted in a 23-yard Neil Rackers FG. After trading punts on the next 5 drives, a 46-yard Steve Breaston punt return to the DET13 set-up a 1-yard Warner TD pass to Fitzgerald that made it 10-7 midway through the 2nd. The next drive was Arizona's longest of the year as they moved 90 yards in 15 plays. It was engineered mostly by Warner but back-up Tim Rattay entered at the goal-line and tossed a 3-yard TD pass to Pope with 0:18 left in the first half. As the Cards built a 17-7 lead, the Lions offense had no success. At intermission, AZ led 21-17 to 8-43 in T.O.P. and had limited Detroit to 2 first downs and 46 total yards of offense.

On the opening series of the 2nd half, Detroit advanced to the A26 when Dansby snuffed out a reverse by WR Shaun McDonald and not only tackled him for a 15-yard loss but forced a fumble that Antonio Smith recovered near midfield. Pope scored his 2nd TD of the day on a 16-yard pass from Warner that gave AZ 24 unanswered points. Detroit ended the run when Kitna connected with WR Roy Williams on a 7-yard TD pass late in the 3rd quarter, making it 24-14. Breaston returned the ensuing kickoff 52 yards to the DET 43 but Arizona turned it over to start a series of giveaways by both sides (6 total in the final 15:19 of play). Lions DT Langston Moore blew up a Warner handoff to Edgerman James in the backfield forcing a turnover. Two plays later, Cards DT Darnell Dockett pounced on a loose ball from a failed center exchange, recovering at the DET36. With 13:37 left, Fitzgerald hauled in a pass from Warner and took it for a 20-yard TD. The teams then traded turnovers on the next 4 possessions but the only additional scoring came with 75 seconds left in the game when Williams and Kitna hooked up for a 7-yard TD.

CARDINALS 35, BENGALS 27

PAUL BROWN STADIUM • (65,403)

The Cardinals won their 2nd straight game and upped their record to 5-5 thanks to a hard-fought road win at Cincinnati. The Bengals led in almost every statistical category but for the 2nd week in a row, Arizona forced 5 takeaways and that 5-0 plus/minus edge was the difference. Nickel CB Antrel Rolle, who entered the game with 2 career picks, recorded 3 of Arizona's 4 INTs off Carson Palmer (a career-worst) and returned a pair for TDs tying the NFL record. He also went the distance on his 3rd pick but a suspect penalty on the return wiped out the score.

On their first drive of the game, the Bengals capitalized on a short field when Palmer hit WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh with a 19-yard TD. Arizona's next series ended when Neil Rackers was wide left on a 54-yard FG try. Two plays later though, Rolle stepped in front of a Palmer pass intended for Houshmandzadeh on the left side and cut across field en route to a 55-yard TD that tied the score. Cincy, which was effective throughout the game with its no-huddle offense, added a 41-yard Shayne Graham FG on its next drive. AZ answered when WR Anquan Boldin beat S Dexter Jackson deep down the middle and Kurt Warner hit him with a 44-yard TD strike. Graham's 38-yard FG then cut Arizona's lead to 14-13. Late in the 1st half, Warner led an impressive 9-play, 75-yard drive that included a pair of crafty plays from the veteran QB. On successive snaps he was under heavy duress when he first flopped it underhand to RB J.J. Arrington for 3 yards and then tossed a pass with his left arm (still heavily braced due to a torn ligament) to TE Leonard Pope, who gained 22. That led to a more conventional 5-yard Warner TD pass to Larry Fitzgerald with 0:13 left in the half that made it 21-13 at intermission.

The 3rd quarter was a wild one and saw the teams combine for 28 points. On the 2nd half's 1st play from scrimmage, LB Karlos Dansby picked off Palmer at the A23 and returned it 28 yards to the 24. That set-up a 3-play Edgerman James TD run that made it 24-13. Cincy then marched deep into AZ territory but after a reception to the 9-yard line, WR Chad Johnson fumbled and FS Terrence Holt recovered to end the threat. The next Bengals drive though saw them pull to within 8 when Palmer connected with WR Chris Henry deep down the left side for a 37-yard score. Just 1:41 later, James's DeDe Dorsey blocked a Mike Barr punt and returned it 19 yards for a TD that made it a 1-point game. In the final minute of the 3rd quarter, Cincy had it near midfield when on 3rd-3-3 Rolle jumped Johnson's route for an INT and raced 54 yards down the right sideline for his 2nd score of the day, ending the jaunt with a cartwheel and flip in the end zone. That TD put AZ up 8 at 35-27 with a full quarter to play. Arizona's offense was unable to salt the game away with any sustained drives and Cincy would get the ball 4 times in the final quarter. The first ended with the lone Bengal punt of the day while AZ halted the next 2 with 4th down stops (Henry dropped pass on 4th-n-6 at the A237/0:00 mark and Calvin Pace knocked down a pass on 4th-n-5 at the A234/0:02 left). The final Cincy drive reached the A236 with 0:55 left but after a holding penalty backed them up, Rolle ended their hopes with his 3rd theft of the day.

CARDINALS 27, BROWNS 21

 UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (64,791)

The Cardinals had a chance to move to 6-5 and avenge a week 1 loss to the Niners but instead San Fran snapped its 8-game losing skid in a back-and-forth overtime thriller. In a game of big plays, each side seemed to have made the game-winning one at different times. In the end it was the 49ers who came up with the biggest and ultimately decisive one with a sack and fumble recovery in the end zone in OT. Kurt Warner played admirably for the Cards and finished with 484 passing yards while Larry Fitzgerald hauled in 9 passes for 156 yards and 2 TDs. Penalties (10), turnovers (4) and other miscos proved costly for the Cards.

AZ took the game's opening drive 92 yards and capped it with a 28-yard Warner TD pass to Fitzgerald. Later in the first, CB Walt Harris INT'd a Warner pass at the A232 which led to a 2-yard TD pass from Trent Dilfer to TE Vernon Davis. Michael Lewis' 51-yard punt return to the A219 setting up a 19-yard Joe Nedney FG. On the next snap, Anquan Boldin caught a 9-yard pass before fumbling and SF safety Mark Roman returned it 43 yards to the A26. Two plays later, Frank Gore ran 11 yards to put SF up 17-7. On the next AZ drive, Marcel Shipp scored on a 1-yard run to cut the 49er lead to 2. When SF's Joe Nedney missed a 55-yard FG in the half's final moments the Cards took over at their own 45 with 0:06 left. A 7-yard pass to Sean Morey left AZ time for a Hail Mary heave as time expired and it was answered when Fitzgerald came down with Warner's 48-yard pass in the end zone.

The opening drive of the 2nd half saw SF fall on a fake punt but the next 49er drive netted a 57-yard Dilfer-to-Amarz Battle TD that put SF up 24-21. AZ answered with its own TD drive to re-claim the lead. The score came when goal-line sub QB Tim Rattay found rookie TE Ben Patrick with a 2-yard pass on 4th-n-1 at the 2. The AZ defense then seemed to make a game-changing play on the next drive. After reaching the A227 with 5:40 left, SF went for it on 4th-n-1 but Gore was stopped for no gain. The Cards went 3-n-out and Gore ended the next drive with his 35-yard TD run that put SF up 31-28 with 85 seconds left. After the kickoff, AZ took over at its own 15 with 1:11 to play and 1 timeout. Warner then completed 5 straight passes for 81 yards, the last of which was a 30-yarder to Bryant Johnson to the 1. After a timeout and a shot at the end zone, Rackers hit a 19-yarder to force OT.

On the 2nd play of AZ's 2nd drive in OT, Warner connected with Morey on a 62-yard pass to the SF 24. On 2nd down from the 9, AZ sent Rackers over for a 27-yard FG that turned into a 32-yard following a delay of game penalty but the game-winning try sailed a foot left. San Fran again punted on the next drive but after a block in the back, AZ took over at its own 3. The game ended on the next snap when DT Ronald Fields sacked Warner in the end zone, forcing a fumble that LB Tully Banta-Cain recovered for the game-winning TD.

Facing the 7-4 Browns, Arizona took advantage of 4 Cleveland turnovers and converted 3 of them into touchdowns en route to a 27-21 win. The victory ended the Cardinals record at 6-6 and put them in a 3-way tie for the second wild card spot with Detroit and Minnesota. Edgerlin James joined 75 of his 114 rushing yards in the 2nd half. The Cards could not avenge, though, until referee Jerome Boger confirmed that Browns TE Kellen Winslow failed to come down in bounds in the end zone on the game's final play. The Cards were missing several key players due to injuries. Earlier in the week they placed two defensive starters on IR - Pro Bowl SS Adrian Wilson (heel) and CB Eric Green (groin). On offense, WR Larry Fitzgerald was inactive with a groin injury and fellow all-pro WR Anquan Boldin exited in the 3rd quarter with a toe injury.

Cleveland opened the game with a drive to the A241 but CB Rod Hood INT'd a Derek Anderson pass and took it 71 yards for his 2nd TD of the season. Three plays later, Anderson fumbled a center exchange and DE Antonio Smith recovered at the Browns 43. An incompletion on 3rd-n-4 at the 37 appeared to halt the drive but DB Leigh Bodden was flagged for delay of game when he kicked the loose ball giving AZ a first down. Four plays later Kurt Warner found TE Leonard Pope for a 5-yard TD pass to make it 14-0. Cleveland then advanced to the A239 but had to settle for a 37-yard Phil Dawson FG. The Browns next drive also reached Cards territory but ended when Hood again picked Anderson at the A24. Later in the 2nd quarter, Cleveland capped an 80-yard drive with a 6-yard Anderson pass to Jamal Lewis. In the half's final minute, AZ had reached Browns territory when DB Sean Jones dove for a Warner pass that was tipped at the line of scrimmage. Ruled an INT on the field, the ball appeared to hit the ground and come loose but Boger did not overrule after the assistant requested review.

After exchanging punts on the first 3 series of the 2nd half, the Cards got another break when Browns return man Joshua Cribbs muffed a Matt Berger punt and Ralph Brown recovered at the Cleveland 22. Warner ended the drive with a 1-yard TD pass to Bryant Johnson, the team's #3 WR who took a leading role in the absence of Fitzgerald and Boldin. With AZ up 21-10 late in the 3rd the game suddenly tightened on another unusual play. WR Braylon Edwards caught a pass near the A230 where he was tripped by FS Terrence Holt but popped up and went the rest of the way for a 57-yard TD. AZ challenged and replays appeared to clearly show Holt contact. Edwards got the A230 TD stand. After a 2-point conversion, Cleveland had cut it to 21-18 to start the 4th. A 58-yard NDB by rookie Steve Breaston led to a 33-yard Rackers FG that made it 24-18. With 6:21 to go, Cleveland had reached the A26 but came away with only a 22-yard Dawson FG. Leading by 3, AZ took over at its own 20 with 6:10 to go. Eight James runs and a 19-yard completion to Breaston chewed up 4:28 on a drive that netted a 19-yard Rackers FG and 27-21 lead. After the kickoff, Cleveland took over at its own 18 with 1:48 to play and no timeouts. With 2:22 left, he reached the A27. After two timeouts, they faced a 4th down with :06 left. Anderson lofted it to the left sideline just inside the pylon and Winslow came down with it between Antrel Rolle and Oliver Celestini but failed to get both feet in. Boger looked at the replays and agreed the on-field assessment.

SEAHAWKS 42, CARDINALS 21

QWEST FIELD - (68,193)

The 6-6 Cardinals traveled to Seattle for a pivotal late season showdown with the 8-4 Seahawks. After the hosts took a commanding 24-0 lead in the first half by scoring on their first 4 possessions, Arizona faced an uphill battle. The Cards narrowed the gap to 27-14 late in the 3rd and recovered an on-side kick. However, they turned it over on the next snap and never re-gained the momentum. The Seahawks scored 15 straight 4th quarter points to put the game away and clinch their 4th straight NFC West crown.

The Cards opened the game by moving to the SEA36 before SS Deon Grant INT'd Kurt Warner and returned it to the AZ33 to set-up a FG. Seattle then capped its next 3 possessions with Matt Hasselbeck TD passes, each set-up by a 25+ yard play. On 4th-n-1 at the AZ38, Shaun Alexander ran for 35 and that led to Nate Burleson's 7-yard TD. A 31-yard Delon Branch grab on the next drive took it to the AZ15 and a Bobby Engram TD followed a play later. Then a 46-yard screen pass to FB Leonard Weaver set up a 17-yard Branch TD on the next snap. AZ got on the board late in the 1st when Bryant Johnson made a diving catch of a Warner pass on 3rd-n-2 from the 5 to make it 24-7. However a 41-yard Josh Brown FG in the half's closing seconds gave Seattle a 20-point lead.

The 2nd half was scoreless until Jerheme Urban's 2-yard pass from Warner made it a 27-14 game late in the 3rd. In the absence of all-pro WR Anquan Boldin (inactive), Urban posted a game-high 7 catches for 123 yards, both career-bests. After that TD, Neil Rackers recovered his own on-side kick to set the Cards up at the SEA42 with less than a minute to go in the 3rd and down 13. On the very next play, however, Warner was INT'd by CB Marcus Truitt. The Seahawks capitalized on the takeaway when Hasselbeck tossed a 3-yard TD to TE Marcus Pollard. The Cards appeared to have forced Seattle into a FG try but DT Darnell Dockett was flagged for a 15-yard facemask penalty following a 3rd down stop and multi-player scum. Arizona's next two drives ended with Seattle scores. First punter Mitch Berger could not handle a snap and was forced out of the end zone for a safety. Then Warner was picked off by Truitt who returned the theft 84-yards for a TD. WR Larry Fitzgerald, who returned to action after a 1-game absence (groin) then caught an 11-yard TD pass late for the game's final points. With the Cards trailing much of the game, Warner had little choice but to pass often and Seattle knew it. He was INT'd a career-high 5 times and sacked 5 other times, including 3 by DE Patrick Kerney.

SAINTS 31, CARDINALS 24

LOUISIANA SUPERDOME - (70,007)

The Cardinals closed the road portion of their 2007 season at New Orleans in a crucial match-up of 6-7 teams. The winner would stay alive in the NFC Wild Card race while the loser would be all but eliminated. Led by the passing of Drew Brees (26-30, 315 yds, 2 TDs, 0 INTs) and the rushing of RB Aaron Stecker (95 yds, 2 TDs), the Saints scored on its 9th offensive possessions to edge the Cardinals by 7. Kurt Warner kept Arizona in it with 3 TD passes and Edgerrin James averaged 5.25 yards on his 16 rushing attempts but two Cardinal turnovers proved costly with each leading to a New Orleans TD.

Early on it was a Saints turnover that gave Arizona the game's first break when Stecker fumbled at the end of a run on the second snap of the game. LB Darryl Blackstock scooped up the loose ball and returned it 34 yards to the M08. That led to a 1-yard Warner TD pass to TE Troy Brienemann on 4th-n-goal. The Saints answered with long TD drives on their next two possessions. First Brees capped an 11-play, 81-yard drive with a 19-yard scoring pass to Marques Colston. Then Stecker's 1-yard drive ended a 13-play drive that gave New Orleans a 14-point lead early in the 2nd. Arizona tied it on the next series when Warner and Larry Fitzgerald connected on an 18-yard TD pass. Late in the first half, Warner went deep down the middle for Brienemann but the ball bounced from the TE's hands, hit a defender's foot and bounced to SS Roman Harper who returned the INT 31 yards to the N045. The Saints converted the takeaway into points when David Patrick hauled in a 32-yard TD pass that put New Orleans up 21-14. They took that lead into the locker room after Neil Rackers missed on a 54-yard FG as the half expired.

On the opening drive of the 2nd half, Warner was sacked by LB Scott Fujita forcing a fumble that LB Scott Shanley recovered and returned to the A27. Shortly thereafter, Stecker ran it in from 6 yards out to put the Saints up 31-21. Arizona responded by driving 80 yards in 10 plays and the Cards cut the lead in half when Warner tossed a 3-yard TD pass to rookie TE Ben Patrick. Martin Gramatica's 31-yard FG on the next Saints drive made it 31-21 at the end of the 3rd. On Arizona's next possession, the Cards executed a successful fake punt on 4th-n-7 at their own 25 when Steve Moryk picked up 13. That drive ultimately reached the N06 but the Cards could not get it in the end zone and had to settle for a 26-yard Rackers FG that made it a 7-point game with 9:11 to play. Arizona then got it back when Patten fumbled on the next series and LB Calvin Pace recovered at the A243. The Cards could not capitalize and went 3-n-out. After the punt, the Saints took over at their own 4 with 5:54 to go. Arizona could not get them off the field as they were able to run 10 plays and pick up 4 first downs to run the clock out entirely.

WR Anquan Boldin returned to the lineup and played thru a toe injury to catch 6 passes for 83 yards, while Fitzgerald continued to battle through a groin injury to record his 5th straight game with a TD reception.

CARDINALS 30, FALCONS 27 (OT)DECEMBER 23, 2007
UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (64,159)

The Cardinals led Atlanta 24-14 through 3 quarters but allowed the visiting Falcons to score on their final 3 possessions of the 4th quarter (FG, TD, FG) to take a 27-24 with 1:38 to play. Arizona then rallied for a 29-yard game-tying field goal as regulation ended and a 31-yarder that won it on the first possession of OT. The win upset AZ to 7-8 while Atlanta dropped its 6th straight to fall to 3-12. WR Anquan Boldin starred for the Cards, finishing with 13 catches for 162 yards and 2 TDs. Kurt Warner completed a career-high 35 passes for 369 yards and 3 TDs and engineered the game-tying and winning drives late.

On their first drive of the game Falcons advanced to the A26 thanks in part to a 23-yard pass interference call against CB Rod Hood that took it to the 11. However, 3 plays later Hood picked off Chris Redman's 3rd down pass in the end zone to halt the drive. The Cards responded by moving 80 yards in 10 plays and ended the drive with a 4-yard Warner TD pass to Boldin, whose 3 catches accounted for 43 of the drive's 80 yards. The next Falcons possession saw them execute a successful fake punt when LB/ up-back Travis Williams ran 37 yards to the A29. Five plays later, rookie RB Jason Snelling scored on a 3-yard run to tie the game. In the 2nd quarter, the Cards came up with a key 4th down play of their own when they went for it on 4th-and-4 at the ATL28. Warner converted with a 7-yard pass to Boldin and 2 plays later the pair connected on a 13-yard TD pass. The 4th down catch was Boldin's 400th career reception and by reaching the plateau in his 57th career game, he became the fastest player in NFL history to do so. Arizona's 7-point lead was short-lived as Atlanta tied it on the next play from scrimmage when Redman connected with rookie WR Laurent Robinson deep down the middle on a 74-yard scoring pass. Arizona's Sean Morey returned the ensuing kickoff 40 yards to midfield and that set-up a 32-yard Neil Rackers FG. Just before halftime, Warner executed the 200 drill to perfection and ended the 53-yard drive with his 3rd TD pass of the day, a 4-yarder to RB J.J. Arrington with 16 ticks on the clock.

The 2nd half was scoreless until Morten Andersen hit a 23-yard FG with 8:52 left in the 4th, making it a 7-point game. After AZ went 3-and-out, Redman capped Atlanta's next drive with a 7-yard game-tying TD pass to TE Alge Crumpler. Another 3-and-out by the Cards gave it back to the Falcons at their own 41 with 3:00 to go. With 1:56 left, a pass interference call set Atlanta up with a 1st-and-goal at the 7. After 3 Warner Dunn runs netted just 4 yards, Atlanta took the lead on Andersen's 21-yard FG. Arizona got the ball back at its own 26 with 1:38 to play, down 3 and out of timeouts. Warner then deftly moved the Cards 53 yards with completions to 4 different receivers and put the team in position for Cardinals' 29-yard game-tying FG at 0:00. Arizona won the toss in OT and on the 2nd play of the extra period Warner hit Boldin with a 25-yard pass. Boldin had 3 catches for 34 yards on the drive but it was Larry Fitzgerald's 19-yarder that was the final completion before Cardinals' game-winner.

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (64,671)

In the season finale, the Cards produced their highest point total since 1977 and largest margin of victory since 1993 with a dominant performance vs. St. Louis. The win ended Arizona's record at 8-8 and gave the team a final mark of .500 or better for just the 3rd time in 20 seasons in AZ. The Cards scored 2 TDs on interception, including Antrel Rolle's 3rd INT-TD of the season and produced a 100-yard rusher, receiver and 300-yard passer for the first time in a regulation game since 1984. The biggest star was Pro Bowl WR Larry Fitzgerald who had 11 catches for 171 yards and a pair of TDs. At halftime, he had a franchise record 168 receiving yards on 8 catches. The win also gave AZ a 6-2 home record in '07 and its first-ever season sweep of the Rams.

On the game's opening drive, the Rams advanced to A218 but on 3rd-and-inches SS Aaron Anderson on the next drive with a 23-yard Neil Rackers FG that evened the score. The drive was extended when Fitzgerald caught a 20-yard pass on 4th-and-5 at the SL37. Early in the 2nd quarter, the Rams went for it on 4th-and-4 at the A243 but failed when Marc Bulger's pass was incomplete. Edgerman James then scored on a 2-yard run that put AZ up 10-7. On the 2nd play of the next Rams drive, Rolle picked off a Bulger pass and returned it 47 yards for his 3rd TD of the season, tying the team record and one shy of the NFL mark. Back-to-back sacks by Joe Tafafo and Darrell Dockett ended the next Rams drive and Arizona then capped its next possession with a 21-yard Warner pass to Fitzgerald. A 42-yard Jeff Wilkins FG with 0:09 left made the score 24-6 at the half.

On the 3rd play of the 2nd half, Warner was INT'd by CB Jonathan Wade who returned it to the A237. That set-up a 36-yard Bulger TD pass to TE Joe Klopstein that made it 24-13. Arizona extended the lead to 31-13 on the next series when Warner and Fitzgerald connected on a 6-yard TD pass to cap a 12-play, 80-yard drive that also included a 4th-and-4 conversion. Late in the 3rd, S O.J. Atogwe picked off Warner and returned the INT 52 yards for a TD. The Cards again answered when Warner hit Anquan Boldin with a 20-yard scoring pass that made it 38-19. St. Louis' next drive advanced deep into AZ territory but Rolle again picked off Bulger and returned the INT 57 yards to the SL40. That led to a 33-yard Rackers FG and on the next series Gu Fretette replaced Bulger. On his 3rd snap, MLB Gerald Hayes INT'd Fretette and took it 30 yards for his 1st career TD and the game's final score.

PFWA'S ARIZONA CHAPTER HONORS FITZGERALD

Cardinals wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald was honored in 2007 by the Arizona Chapter of the Pro Football Writers Association.

Fitzgerald was given the Lloyd Herberg MVP Award for his outstanding performance. In 2007, he earned his second Pro Bowl invitation while recording his second 100-catch season and second 1,000-yard season of his career, hauling in 100 receptions for 1,409 yards and 10 touchdowns. The annual awards are sponsored by Oregon's Pizza Bistros.

The MVP award was named after Lloyd Herberg, the former Cardinals beat writer for The Arizona Republic. Herberg covered the Cardinals from 1988, when the team moved to Arizona, until his death in May of 1994 after a courageous battle with cancer.

CARDINALS LAUNCH SPANISH LANGUAGE VERSION OF AZCARDINALS.COM

In 2007 the Arizona Cardinals Football Club announced the launch of a Spanish language version of the team's web site www.azcardinals.com/espanol.

Features of the Spanish language Cardinals homepage include translations of feature articles written for www.azcardinals.com as well as ticket and schedule information and a link to the Spanish Radio broadcast for each Cardinals game heard on ESPN Deportes 710 AM.

Former Cardinals guard and current Spanish radio analyst Rolando Cantu provides a Spanish language blog as well as writing feature stories for the website.

PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL PLAYERS MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION PRESENT CHECK TO CARDINALS PREPARATORY ACADEMY

The Professional Football Players Mothers' Association (PFPMA) selected the Arizona Cardinals Preparatory Academy as their 2008 Super Bowl Charity of choice and presented a check to representatives from the academy on February 1, 2008.

The check presentation was held at the Cardinals Preparatory Academy (2021 W. Alice, Phoenix) and included 20 mothers of NFL players including: Charlene McNabb (Donovan), Denise Wayne (Reggie), Linda Harrison (Marvin), Felecia Young (Vince), and Joy Freeman (Dwight Freeney). Mothers of Cardinals players and members of the Cardinals Women's Club Diane Wells (Reggie), Mable Berry-Stamps (Bertrand Berry), and Dianne Bailey (Rodney) were also in attendance for the presentation.

PFPMA is a non-profit organization comprised of mothers whose sons play professional football. The mission of the organization is to provide financial support to charities for at-risk youth and disadvantaged communities with revenue generated each year in fund raising events, organizational sponsorships and volunteer representation at local community events.

The Arizona Cardinals Preparatory Academy opened with 40 fifth and sixth graders in August of 2007. It will reach its full capacity in grades five through eight in 2009. The Academy was formed as a community partnership with the Arizona Cardinals Football Club, Cardinals Charities, the Washington Elementary School District, founding partner University of Phoenix, and Communities in Schools with a mission to offer accelerated instruction and service learning to help students focus on learning and achieving success.

DRAFT DAY PARTY AT UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

The Arizona Cardinals 2008 Draft Party presented by Alltel Wireless, took place on Saturday, April 28 at the Insight Club in University of Phoenix Stadium as fans were able to watch the Cardinals select Tennessee State cornerback Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie with the 16th overall selection.

Fans also had the opportunity to meet Cardinals players, cheerleaders and mascot Big Red while watching live television coverage of the draft. Concession stand offerings were available and admission was free.

A Kids Zone with face painting and balloon artists was featured, an Xbox 360 interactive area was offered and autographed Cardinals memorabilia was raffled off to benefit Cardinals Charities.

CLUB HISTORY

FRANCHISE HISTORY

The Cardinals were founded in 1898 and in 1920 became a charter member of the National Football League, then known as the American Professional Football Association. The club holds the distinction of being the United States' oldest professional football franchise still in existence.

The Early Days

The team boasts a colorful history. Fans have known the club as the Arizona Cardinals, Phoenix Cardinals, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cardinals, Racine Cardinals, the Normals, and the Morgan Athletic Club.

The franchise began as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football in a predominantly Irish area of Chicago's South Side, playing under the name Morgan Athletic Club. The team later was acquired by Chris O'Brien, a painting and decorating contractor, and soon its playing site changed to nearby Normal Field, prompting the new name Normals.

In 1901, the team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien bought used jerseys from the nearby University of Chicago. The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare, "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!" The club's permanent nickname had been born.

The jersey color and the location of the field (61st and Racine) led to a new and obvious name, the Racine Cardinals.

In Chicago at the time, football competition was exclusively amateur, but opposition became increasingly hard to find, so in 1906, the team disbanded.

In 1913, O'Brien reorganized the Cardinals. By 1917 they were able to buy new uniforms and hire a coach, Marshall Smith. That year they lost only two games and were champions of the Chicago Football League.

The war in Europe and a flu epidemic in the United States forced the team to suspend operations again in 1918. Following Armistice Day that officially ended World War I in November of 1918, O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time. From that day forward, the Cardinals have been a permanent part of the professional football landscape in America.

The colorful history of the Cardinals, a charter member of the National Football League and the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation, began humbly in 1898 as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football as the Morgan Athletic Club in Chicago's South Side.

The Cardinals and Chicago Bears are the only two of the 11 charter members of the NFL still in existence. The Bears were originally based in Decatur, IL and known as the Decatur Staleys (after their sponsor, the Staley Starch Company). The team moved to Chicago in 1921 and was known as the Chicago Staleys for a year before becoming the Chicago Bears in 1922.

Post World War I

Shortly after the Cardinals joined the American Professional Football League in 1920 for the $100 franchise fee, O'Brien lured great halfback John "Paddy" Driscoll to the Cardinals for $3,000 a year, a sum considered outlandish at the time. But Driscoll was an authentic superstar, a superior runner, blocker, punter, and possibly the finest drop kicker in the history of football. He would coach the team from 1921-22.

One of Driscoll's young running backs was Ralph Horween, a former star at Harvard, who played under the assumed name of B. McMahon. A Cardinal from 1921-22, Horween scored two rushing touchdowns during his three-year career in the days of leather helmets without face masks, numberless sweater jerseys, and $40 paychecks. Horween would gain further acclaim many years later. In 1996, the retired lawyer who was born in Chicago on August 3, 1896, became the National Football League's first centenarian. He died in 1997.

In 1922, a team from Racine, Wisconsin joined the NFL, prompting the Cardinals to change their name to the Chicago Cardinals. The same year the Cardinals also moved into their new home in Comiskey Park, which they would share with baseball's White Sox for 37 years.

Under new Head Coach Norman Barry, the Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL championship in 1925 by virtue of the league's best record (the NFL did not begin postseason play until 1933).

A Chicago physician, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his first year of ownership, he coaxed legendary running back Ernie Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored an NFL-record 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in an historic 40-6 victory over the cross-town Chicago Bears on Thanksgiving Day, 1929.

After guiding the Cardinals to a 16-14-3 combined record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

a new club owner. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Bears, purchased the Cardinals for Jones' asking price of $50,000. Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings and in 1932, the franchise began a continuous period of family ownership that continues to this day.

The team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field and the Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930s and early '40s. World War II hit the team heavily. The Cardinals lost their top passer, receiver, and lineman—Johnny Clement, Billy Dewell, and Joe Kuharich, respectively—to military service. In 1944 as a war-time emergency measure, the Cardinals combined with the Pittsburgh Steelers to play as one team. It was called Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals' Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Comiskey Park and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh, failing to win an outing in 10 tries.

Success finally returned following the war. In 1945, the arrival of University of Missouri quarterback Paul Christman trumpeted the team's conversion to the "T" formation. Fullback Pat Harder and halfback Elmer Angsman were added in 1946.

THE 1947 CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

In the flush of post-World War II, the 1947 Cardinals stormed to the Western Division title and took the NFL championship.

But the title season was bittersweet for the Cardinals' organization. In April, the death of Bidwill, the club's leader since taking over as owner in 1933 who helped shepherd the NFL through "The Great Depression," deprived the owner of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years.

But he still earned credit for fitting the final crucial piece into place to complete the Cardinals' famed "Million-Dollar Backfield." It was Bidwill's unprecedented signing of University of Georgia all-America running back Charley Trippi, for the then-unheard of sum of $100,000, that finally put the Cardinals over the top.

To appreciate the accomplishment of the 1947 squad, consider the following:

Just two seasons earlier in 1945, the Cardinals as a team were outscored for the entire season by Philadelphia's premier running back, Steve Van Buren, 110-98. But the following year, the third-winningest coach in Cardinals' history, the omni-talented Jimmy Conzelman, led Chicago out of the wilderness to a 6-5 mark, the club's first winning season since 1935.

Several key Cardinals were already in place for the championship run. In 1945, the organization drafted Christman, a talented passer from Missouri, before adding churning Wisconsin fullback Harder, Angsman of Notre Dame, and brilliant end/defensive back Mal Kutner from Texas in '46. Another great end, Bill Dewell, had returned from military service for the '45 season. The staple of Conzelman's ensemble was a relic from the late '30s, versatile Marshall "Biggie" Goldberg, an intuitive defensive back who was the first real free safety in pro football and the "dean" of the "Million-Dollar Backfield." Also a running back, Goldberg, a two-time all-America at Pittsburgh, had enjoyed many productive days offensively, too, but they were mostly behind him when Conzelman began his second reign as the Cards' head man in '46.

Chicago started quickly in 1947 by winning its first three outings, a run that included a 31-7 trouncing of the hated cross-town rival Bears. In week four, the Cardinals headed to Los Angeles on a trip heavy with fate. They incurred their first loss of the season, 27-7 to the Rams, but lost something far more precious than a game.

Rookie punter Jeff Burkett suffered an appendicitis attack and missed the game as well as the team plane back to Chicago. He spent several days recuperating after an appendectomy before boarding a United Airlines DC-6 bound for home. He never made it. The plane crashed in Bryce Canyon, Utah, killing the young star who was the NFL's leading punter at the time of the tragedy.

Under the pall of the loss of Burkett, the Cardinals climbed to 7-3 but were in the throes of a two-game losing streak heading to Philadelphia on December 7 for a critical game against the Eagles. Trailing 7-3 at the half, Chicago exploded for six second-half touchdowns, including two by Trippi, and held the powerful Van Buren to just 44 yards rushing to grab a crucial 45–21 road win.

The victory deadlocked the Cards with the Bears, who, ironically and poetically, stood as the only remaining obstacle between the Cardinals and their first Western Division crown. A showdown loomed for the regular-season finale the following Sunday at hostile Wrigley Field on Chicago's North Side.

If the '47 Cardinals' miracle season could be summarized in a single moment, the opening play of that division decider unquestionably would receive the vote. It was the creation of mastermind Conzelman, a pass play designed to give the Cardinals an advantage at the outset. In a best-case scenario, the strategy would isolate Bears' left-side linebacker Mike Holovak one-on-one with Boris "Babe" Dimancheff, a blistering speedster who was Trippi's replacement. Conzelman eagerly looked forward to rehearsing the play all week before the big game, but nature did not cooperate. Dimancheff's wife was expecting, and he missed the entire week of practice to be at her side. He did not rejoin the team until the day before the game.

The biggest play of the season for the soon-to-be-champion Cardinals never had a single dry run.

The stunning game-opening play worked to perfection anyway. Dimancheff ran a flare pattern, turned outside the end, then raced down the center of the field. He outdistanced Holovak, caught Christman's perfect pass, and galloped into the end zone despite stumbling over the baseball pitcher's mound.

The Cardinals also intercepted four passes by legendary Bear quarterback Sid Luckman, converting two into touchdowns en route to a 30–21 win. Victories over the Bears were especially sweet. A sore spot with the Cardinals was their inescapable status as Chicago's "other" team.

The Western Division crown now in hand, the Cardinals prepared to play host to the league championship game a fortnight later against Eastern Division powerhouse Philadelphia.

The NFL's 15th championship game opened with a surprise controversy and was studded with more big-play touchdowns on the ground than any NFL title game or Super Bowl since.

On December 28, 1947, a grim, frozen Comiskey Park gave little indication of the approaching heat of the day's upcoming war. Even the preliminaries generated sparks. Pre-kickoff controversy raged when it was discovered the Eagles, in attempts to get better gripping on the concrete-like playing surface, had sharpened and filed their cleats. A succession of penalties for the blatant rules infraction opened the game, infuriating Philadelphia Head Coach Earle "Greasy" Neale.

The Cardinals quietly had slipped into tennis shoes for the frigid affair.

The game was defined by Chicago's quick-openers, producing three devastating back-breaking long scoring runs from scrimmage—two 70-yarders by Angsman and a 44-yarder by Trippi.

In the third period, Trippi circled under a high Joe Muha punt, taking it on his own 25-yard line. Spectacularly side-stepping three Eagle pursuers, Trippi pranced 75 yards for a touchdown, getting hit three times along the way.

Angsman's thrilling fourth-quarter duplication of his second-period 70-yard touchdown strike enabled him to break the NFL championship game record for rushing yards with 159.

But Philadelphia fought evenly throughout with one-eyed quarterback Tommy Thompson setting two playoff records on 27-of-44 passing for 297 yards.

The Cardinals' 28–21 victory, however, wasn't secured until Goldberg's late-game interception.

On to St. Louis

Following her husband's passing in April of 1947, Violet Bidwill assumed control of the franchise for the next 15 years, a span that included a second consecutive Western Division championship and appearance in the 1948 NFL championship game, a 7-0 loss at Philadelphia, and the transfer of the team from Chicago to St. Louis in 1960.

Upon Mrs. Bidwill's death in January of 1962, team control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill. In 1972, the latter and his family gained sole ownership with William becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1976, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

After 14 years in the city, the Cardinals brought their first division title to St. Louis in 1974. The Big Red captured the NFC Eastern Division flag under Head Coach Don Coryell and advanced to the playoffs with a 10-4 regular-season record.

The Cardinals lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 30-14, in their first playoff appearance since 1948.

Again in 1975, Coryell provided St. Louis a division crown but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams in Los Angeles, 35-23, ended the Cards' postseason dream in their first outing.

The Cardinals next appeared in the playoffs in 1982 when Head Coach Jim Hanifan's club lost a first-round game at Green Bay, 41-16.

In 1984, an offensively explosive St. Louis team narrowly missed the playoffs—and the NFC Eastern Division title—with a 9-7 record. However, the Cardinals stumbled to a 5-11 mark in 1985, prompting Hanifan's dismissal and the hiring of long-time Dallas Cowboy assistant Gene Stallings as the team's new head coach.

Arizona

After 28 years in St. Louis, the Cardinals relocated to Arizona in the spring of 1988 and made Sun Devil Stadium on the campus of Arizona State University their new home.

Their first season in the Valley of the Sun began optimistically when the team raced to a 7-4 record and a share of the NFC Eastern Division lead. But untimely injuries struck and a five-game losing streak ensued to finish the year, dashing hopes of the club's first postseason berth since 1982.

The Cardinals' new home provided club single-game (67,139 vs. Dallas in the Arizona inaugural game) and single-season (472,937) attendance records (since broken) in the team's first autumn in Arizona.

On March 17, 1994, Bidwill announced his intention to change the name of the team to the Arizona Cardinals and it was adopted unanimously by vote of NFL owners the following week.

All the Cardinals' franchise attendance records have been established since moving to the desert. The record-setting inaugural season attendance total was eclipsed in 1994

Jim Hart and Ottis Anderson are two of the all-time greats in Cardinals history. Hart holds the franchise career record with 34,639 passing yards, 209 TDs, 5,096 pass attempts and 2,590 completions. Anderson is the franchise leader in rushing yards with 7,999, 46 rushing TDs, 1,859 attempts and 34 100-yard games.

when 497,330 fans, or 62,166 per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles. All of those attendance marks, however, have been eclipsed since the team moved into University of Phoenix Stadium.

The 1995 season marked another milestone when the Cardinals served as host team for Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996.

The 1998 Arizona squad, one of the NFL's youngest but most exciting teams, ended the franchise's 15-year playoff drought. Under head coach Vince Tobin and led by former ASU quarterback Jake Plummer, the '98 Cardinals earned a Wild Card berth by winning their last three games in dramatic fashion and each by a field goal or less – a 20-17 overtime win at Philadelphia, a 19-17 home win vs. New Orleans, and a playoff-clinching 16-13 home win over San Diego. The final game ended when Chris Jacke nailed a 52-yard field goal as time expired to win the game before a sold-out crowd at Sun Devil Stadium. The next week saw the team notch its first postseason victory since 1947 with a 20-7 win over the Cowboys at Texas Stadium. The thrilling ride ended with a 41-21 loss at Minnesota in the divisional playoffs the next week.

The 2000 season proved pivotal to the Cardinals' franchise. On Election Day, November 7, 2000, voters in Maricopa County passed Proposition 302, the Tourism and Sports Initiative, to help fund a new stadium for the Cardinals, Fiesta Bowl, and future Super Bowls, in addition to providing revenue for Cactus League spring training baseball, tourism, and youth recreation. The 454,785 "yes" votes spelled a plurality of 33,123 votes (51.89 percent).

The attention of the sports world and beyond turned to Arizona safety Pat Tillman in 2002 when he quietly and nobly walked away from a lucrative career in pro football to enlist in the Army. Moved to action by the events of 9/11, Tillman joined the elite Army Rangers and in April of 2004 was killed while serving in Afghanistan.

His jersey number 40 became the fifth in team history to be retired.

In 2005, the Cardinals made NFL history by participating in the NFL's first-ever regular season game played outside the United States. On October 2, the Cards defeated the 49ers 31-14 before a record crowd of 103,467 in Mexico City's Estadio Azteca, the largest crowd ever to see an NFL regular season game.

The 2006 season marked the team's first at University of Phoenix Stadium, recognized by BusinessWeek as one of the 10 most impressive sports facilities in the world. Since then, the world-class venue has attracted record crowds for the franchise and all 20 home games (four preseason and 16 regular season) sold out long before the first two seasons began. On February 3, 2008, the stadium hosted Super Bowl XLII between the New York Giants and the New England Patriots in the most watched sporting event in television history.

HALL OF FAMERS

The list of former Cardinals enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame reached 16 in 2007 when safety Roger Wehrli was selected. The others are Charles Bidwill, Guy Chamberlin, Jim Conzelman, Dan Dierdorf, Paddy Driscoll, Walt Kiesling, Curly Lambeau, Dick "Night Train" Lane, Ollie Matson, Don Maynard, Ernie Nevers, Jackie Smith, Jim Thorpe, Charley Trippi, and Larry Wilson.

AENEAS TO ENTER THE RING OF HONOR

SIX-TIME PRO BOWL CORNERBACK TO BE INDUCTED NOV. 10

At the end of Aeneas Williams' first training camp with the then-Phoenix Cardinals, the rookie cornerback talked to defensive backs coach Jim Johnson, wondering if he had made the team.

Johnson, now the defensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles, gave Williams the news that was obvious to everyone but Williams himself – not only had the cornerback made the team, he was a starter.

Williams held that spot for 10 seasons, 46 interceptions and six Pro Bowl appearances.

Now, the Cardinals plan to immortalize his name.

This season, Williams will become the 13th person put into the team's Ring of Honor. The induction ceremony will come Nov. 10, during halftime of the "Monday Night Football" game against San Francisco.

Williams, who said he was "surprised" by the gesture, was informed of the team's intentions in early May.

"Anytime an NFL organization decides to put your name somewhere in front of the public's eyes, it is truly surprising and truly a blessing," Williams said by phone from his home in St. Louis.

"We wanted to get a player in who recently finished his career, who looks like a Hall of Fame candidate, and we couldn't think of anyone better," team president Michael Bidwill said. "He was a fan favorite, an organizational favorite."

Williams finished his career with a four-year stint with the Rams, including a Super Bowl appearance. With 55 career interceptions, he is expected to be in the Hall of Fame discussion when he becomes eligible after the 2009 season.

Making the playoffs in 1998 was Williams' highlight as a Cardinal, he said. More than that, though, was his growth experience during his decade in the desert.

Williams could have left as a free agent after five years, but chose to remain in Arizona instead of going to Jacksonville. Both he and the team were ready to part when the Cards traded Williams to the Rams for a second- and a fourth-round pick on draft day, 2001.

"(At the end) it was time for a change, but my time in Arizona, I enjoyed it there," Williams said. "We may not have won all the games we wanted, but I met good people and always believed – and still believe – the Cardinals will be a team to reckon with."

There is some irony in Williams' date to enter the Ring of Honor. While doing it on "Monday Night Football" seems obvious – "It's the big stage, and we wanted him to have a big platform," Bidwill said – it also is the first time since 1999 that the Cards have hosted the 49ers on Monday night.

The last time, Williams played a memorable role – delivering the hit on 49ers quarterback Steve Young that produced Young's career-ending concussion.

"The thing I remember, the first thing that popped into my mind, was (unknown backup) Jeff Garcia," Williams said. "We thought when Steve went out of the game, we had an advantage, and instead the young guy comes in and sustains enough of the momentum that I think they beat us (which the 49ers did, 24-10).

"I remember exactly coming in on one side on a blitz and (defensive back) J.J. McCleskey coming from the other side and remember praying for Steve and hoping he was OK."

Young, who is part of the ESPN "Monday Night Football" crew these days, might be there for Williams' big night. So too will Mike Martz, Williams' last NFL head coach who now is the 49ers' offensive coordinator.

Williams said it was too early for him to know how much of his family will attend the ceremony or which of his former teammates he would like to see there.

Bidwill said inductions into the Ring of Honor will be on a case-by-case basis and won't necessarily be an annual occurrence. After 10 original members were put there when University of Phoenix Stadium opened in 2006, Pat Tillman was added later that season.

Last year, Roger Wehrli was inducted in the same year as his Hall of Fame induction.

Now is Williams' turn.

Williams even played a part in getting University of Phoenix Stadium built; it was his record-tying 104-yard fumble return for a touchdown against the Redskins that helped spark an upset win two days before voters approved the stadium-funding bond.

The 40-year-old Williams, a pastor at a local St. Louis church with a car dealership in his home state of Louisiana, said he hasn't thought about his chances of getting into the Hall of Fame.

"My goal has always been to play the game where I reached my potential individually and to the best of my ability help us reach it collectively (as a team)," Williams said. "After that, all the accolades, the Ring of Honor, things like that, I had no clue.

"But I believed if I worked hard and was consistent each day and had the character to match the performance, ultimately good things would happen."

NOTES

Cards sign decade-long CFL passing leader Sam Etcheverry and trade quarterback John Roach for running back Prentice Gautt and wide receiver Taz Anderson ... Gautt and Anderson enjoy productive Cardinal careers ... Etcheverry, who passed for 30,381 yards and 183 touchdowns in nine seasons for the Montreal Alouettes, hurts his arm in training camp ... coupled with running back John David Crow's broken ankle, Cards finish 7-7 ... Head Coach Frank "Pop" Ivy resigns with two games remaining ... Cards win both remaining contests as assistants Chuck Drulis, Ray Prochaska, and Ray Wilsey assume coaching reins ... during the season, Drulis and his prize pupil, second-year safety Larry Wilson, perfected the safety blitz.

NOTES

Alabama all-America quarterback Joe Namath is Cards' first-round draft pick, but the flashy passer opts to sign with rival AFL's New York Jets ... Cards win four of first five games, but injuries to quarterback Charley Johnson, starting running backs Prentice Gault and Joe Childress, and defensive backs Larry Wilson and Larry Stovall take a toll and the team slides to 5-9 ... Wilson sets team mark with 96-yard interception return for a touchdown vs. Cleveland on Dec. 19 ... a few weeks earlier, with casts on both hands, Wilson intercepts a Bill Nelsen pass against Pittsburgh on Nov. 7 ... Wally Lemm announces after the final game he will not return as head coach.

NOTES

Charley Winner named head coach ... team begins play in newly-opened Busch Memorial Stadium, featuring artificial turf and a seating capacity of 51,392 ... record crowd of 50,673 views 10-10 tie with Dallas on Oct. 16, an attendance mark that would stand for four seasons ... Cards begin season 7-1-1, but another injury to quarterback Charley Johnson, and subsequent injuries to wide receiver Sonny Randle, cornerback Pat Fischer, and offensive linemen Bob DeMarco, Ken Gray, and Irv Goode result in 8-5-1 mark ... safety Larry Wilson leads NFL with 10 interceptions and ties another mark with thefts in seven consecutive games ... Cardinals score just 52 points in final five games ... Cards are victims of Atlanta's first home victory as a new franchise, a 16-10 Falcon win Dec. 11.

NOTES

NFL expands to 16 teams ... Cards join Century Division of the Eastern Conference with Cleveland, New York, and Pittsburgh ... wide receiver Sonny Randle is traded to San Francisco ... quarterback Charley Johnson and linebacker Larry Stallings are inducted into the Army two days before the first preseason game ... kicker Jim Bakken leads NFL with 117 points (most for a kicker) on 27-of-39 field goals and 36-of-36 extra points ... he also sets NFL single-game record with nine field-goal attempts (made seven) vs. Pittsburgh Sept. 24 ... tight end Jackie Smith posts 1,205 receiving yards on 56 receptions for club record and impressive 21.5-yard average per catch ... Cards finish 6-7-1 but witness starting debut of former taxi squad free agent from Southern Illinois, quarterback Jim Hart ... John Omohundro, then an assistant to trainer Jack Rockwell, begins a tenure with the Cards that continues 30 plus years later.

NOTES

After a 1-3 start, Cards roll to 8-1-1 mark in the final 10 contests to finish 9-4-1 ... punter/defensive back Chuck Latourette sets NFL mark with 46 kickoff returns for 1,237 yards ... Cards' 22 rushing touchdowns most since 1949 ... Cards send nine players to the Pro Bowl, including four of the five starting offensive linemen—center Bob DeMarco, guards Irv Goode and Ken Gray, and tackle Ernie McMillan ... the fifth lineman—tackle Bob Reynolds—is named in '67 and again in '69 ... tight end Jackie Smith, in addition to catching 49 passes for a 16.1-yard average, perfects the end-around play, averaging 13.6 yards on 12 carries (163 yards) with three touchdowns (36, 34, 11 yards).

NOTES

Injuries decimate the team as 11 players undergo surgery ... Cards limp to 4-9-1 mark as offense manages just 193 points, fewest since 1954 (183) ... defense is particularly hobbled by injuries, allowing team-record 389 points that will stand for 15 seasons ... safety Larry Wilson sets team mark with 88-yard fumble return for a touchdown at Green Bay Dec. 21 that stands until 2000 ... Cards and Saints combine for NFL-record 12 touchdown passes in 51-42 New Orleans victory in Busch Stadium Nov. 2 ... the combined 93 points is just 10 shy of the all-time NFL combined single-game scoring mark as quarterbacks Charley Johnson (Cardinals) and Billy Kilmer (Saints) each toss six touchdown passes to set Card individual and opponent marks.

NOTES

Bob Hollway named head coach ... Cards draft cornerback Norm Thompson, offensive lineman Dan Dierdorf, and wide receiver Mel Gray ... Thompson will start for seven seasons, Dierdorf becomes six-time Pro Bowler and member of Pro Football Hall of Fame, and Gray logs 12 seasons, highlighted by a stretch of receptions in 121 consecutive games from 1973-82 ... Eagles' kicker Tom Dempsey sets then Card opponent record with 54-yard field goal Dec. 12 ... Gray completes rookie season with eye-popping averages of 28 yards on two rushing attempts, 29.7 yards on 18 pass receptions with four touchdowns, and 24.7 yards on 30 kickoff returns.

NOTES

William V. Bidwill gains full ownership of the franchise ... assistant coach Chuck Drulis collapses of a heart attack on the team charter airplane returning from a preseason game at Houston ... he is pronounced dead following an emergency landing in Little Rock, Ark. ... safety Larry Wilson doubles as player and assistant coach, then two weeks before the end of the season he announces his retirement after 13 seasons ... quarterback Jim Hart connects with Ahmad Rashad (nee Bobby Moore) for a 98-yard pass play vs. L.A. Rams Dec. 10, the longest non-scoring pass play in NFL history.

NOTES

Former San Diego State University Head Coach Don Coryell, with his fiery disposition and innovative offensive schemes, is named head coach ... he hires Joe Gibbs as running backs coach and Jim Hanifan as offensive line coach ... running back Terry Metcalf is drafted in third round ... Jim Hart is named starting quarterback ... despite 4-9-1 record, Card offense improves dramatically, boosting point output from 193 in 1972 to 286, and gains nearly 800 more total yards ... Cards complete only two of 10 passes at Atlanta Dec. 9 for single-game franchise low of nine yards as Jim Bakken kicks six field goals in 32-10 win.

NOTES

Led by Pro Bowl offensive linemen Dan Dierdorf, Conrad Dobler, and Tom Banks, Cards win a second consecutive NFC Eastern Division title with an 11-3 mark, a franchise best since an 11-1 record by the 1948 team. ... fullback Jim Otis leads the NFC in rushing with 1,076 yards, running back/kick returner Terry Metcalf—a consensus NFL, most valuable player—sets league record with 2,462 combined yards, and quarterback Jim Hart performs behind an offensive line that ties an NFL record by allowing just eight quarterback sacks ... wide receiver Mel Gray catches controversial touchdown pass from Hart with 25 seconds left in regulation, known as the "Phantom Catch," to send game into overtime as Cards win 20-17 over Washington. ... Cards travel to Los Angeles to face Rams in playoff contest and lose 35-23 after trailing 28-9 at halftime ... seven offensive players go to the Pro Bowl (Dierdorf, Dobler, Banks, Hart, Metcalf, Gray, and Otis).

NOTES

Despite 10-4 record (6-1 at home), Cards lose tie-breaker with Washington and fail to qualify for playoffs ... Cards defeat N.Y. Giants to stay alive in playoff race, needing the division-leading Cowboys to defeat Washington at Dallas later that day ... but the Redskins win 27-14 and Cards became first team in seven-year history of the NFC to go 10-4 and not gain a postseason berth ... eight Card victories by seven points or less earn "Cardiac Cards" moniker ... Cardinals and Chargers play preseason game in Tokyo, Japan, the first NFL game played outside North America ... Cards set NFL record with eight lost fumbles at Washington Oct. 25.

NOTES

Though saddled with a 1-3 start, Head Coach Don Coryell rallies his troops to six consecutive victories and a 7-7 record entering the final stretch of the season ... four losses, however, drop the Cards to 7-7 and Coryell abandons the Midwest to join the San Diego Chargers ... QB Jim Hart sets club mark with 12 consecutive pass completions vs. Chicago Sept. 25 ... FB Wayne Morris rushes for 182 yards on 27 carries on Nov. 6 at Minnesota, the fourth-highest single-game effort in team history ... Cards deal 8-0 Dallas its first defeat of the season, a 24-17 decision in Texas Stadium before a "Monday Night Football" audience Nov. 14 ... Miami quarterback Bob Griese lies Card opponent mark with six touchdown passes in 55-14 Dolphin win Nov. 24

Head Coach Bud Wilkinson resigns after 13 games and a 3-10 record, losing six games by four points or less. Larry Wilson named interim head coach.

Cards win two of last three contests to finish 5-11, promising young Tec J.V. Cain dies after collapsing from a heart condition at training camp. Ottis Anderson, the club's first-round draft choice from Miami (Fla.), turns in the finest season by a rookie running back in NFL history with 1,605 yards rushing, a 4.8-yard average per carry, 10 touchdowns, and a season-high 193 yards in his NFL debut at Dallas Sept. 2. DB Roy Green returns a kickoff an NFL-record 106 yards in the same game. Anderson later rushes for 106 yards against Dallas, becoming the first player to rush for over 100 yards twice in the same season against the Cowboys.

NOTES

Former Don Coryell assistant Jim Hanifan returns to St. Louis as head coach ... Cards finish 5-11 Future Hall of Famer Dan Dierdorf returns from reconstructive knee surgery to start all 16 games at right tackle and earn a sixth trip to the Pro Bowl ...
 P. Larry Swider sets Cardinal single-season mark with 99 punts ... Card defense ties NFL single-game mark with 12 quarterback sacks at Baltimore, Oct. 26 ... 330 rushing yards at New Orleans Oct. 5 establish club single-game record ... after six games, 1978 first-round draft choice K. Steve Little is released and involved in auto accident that results in disabling injuries and permanent wheelchair confinement.

NOTES

The 1981 draft class includes Alabama LB E.J. Junior (first round), Portland State QB Neil Lomax (second round), and Citadel RB Stump Mitchell (ninth round), a trio that would combine for 26 seasons with the Cards ... all three earn consensus NFL all-rookie team notice ... Lomax named starter for final six games as Cards win four consecutive times to finish 7-9 ... return specialist Mitchell breaks or ties eight club marks and equals two NFL records ... Roy Green doubles as defensive back and wide receiver as the league's first authentic two-way player in more than two decades.

NOTES

A second consecutive jackpot draft class of UCLA T Luis Sharpe (first round), Florida DT David Galloway (second round), Alabama S Benny Perrin (third round), and East Tennessee State FB Earl Ferrell (fifth round) will average over eight years per player, all four earning near-immediate starting roles ... Cards become youngest team in NFL to qualify for the Super Bowl tournament in strike-shortened season with 5-4 record ... NFL players walk out Sept. 19 after second game of the season due to labor strike ... play does not resume until Nov. 21 ... Cards lose 41-16 at Green Bay in first-round action as Card QB Neil Lomax sets league postseason record with 385 yards passing.

*Top NFC playoff seed

As the result of a 57-day players' strike, the 1982 NFL regular-season schedule was reduced from 16 weeks to nine. At the conclusion of the regular season, the NFL conducted a 16-team postseason Super Bowl Tournament. Eight teams from each conference were seeded 1-8 based upon their records during the season.

NOTES

The Cards, with the NFC Eastern Division title on line to the winner, travel to R.F.K. Stadium and battle back from a 23-7 halftime deficit to take a 27-26 lead midway through fourth quarter, but a 50-yard field-goal try sails wide as time expires and Redskins escape with a 29-27 win and the division crown ... In the torrid comeback at Washington, QB Neil Lomax connects on 25 of 28 passes for 314 yards in the second half ... Cards finish 9-7 with seven losses by an average of just over six points ... Lomax sets club single-season marks with 345 pass completions in 560 attempts for 4,614 yards (fifth highest in NFL history), 28 touchdowns, and 92.5 quarterback rating ... WR Roy Green's 1,555 receiving yards is most by NFL player in 19 seasons as he averages 45.3 yards per touchdown reception.

Though a 3-1 start looks promising, the Cards win only two of their final 12 contests to finish 5-11, spelling the end of Jim Hanftan's six-year (1980-85) tenure as head coach... with former all-pro RB Ottis Anderson injured, RB Stump Mitchell averages 96.9 yards rushing in final nine games on route to 1,006 yards and a 5.5-yard average per carry despite starting just eight contests... OL Ben Lomax sacked NFC-high 61 times... Yugoslavian K Novak, Bojovic, signed by the Cards during mid-season, kicks a 40-yard field goal to give the Cards a 3-0 first quarter lead Nov. 24 vs. N.Y. Giants, chase down the football, spikes it in the end zone, then watches with teammates as Giants score 34 unanswered points in 34-0 defeat at the Meadowlands.

Final season in St. Louis — 21–16 loss in season finale at Dallas completes 7–8 record to deprive club of first playoff berth in five seasons. • Cards defeat defending Super Bowl champ N.Y. Giants 27–24 in final appearance in Busch Stadium Dec. 13. • players' strike mandates playing three games with replacement roster. • Cards launch greatest fourth-quarter comeback in NFL history in 31–28 win over Tampa Bay Nov. 8, rallying from a 28–3 deficit after three periods. • QB Neil Lomax completes 10 of 16 passes for 164 and three touchdowns in the fourth quarter as Cards score 28 unanswered points. • WR J.T. Smith breaks own club mark of 80 pass receptions with league-high 91 catches (1,117 yards). • Ram RB Charles White sets Card opponent record with 213 rushing yards Nov. 15.

NOTES

After 18 seasons in St. Louis (1960-87), Cards relocate to Arizona to play in Sun Devil Stadium at Arizona State University ... Hall of Famer Larry Wilson named vice president and general manager ... victories over three most recent Super Bowl champions—N.Y. Giants, Washington, and San Francisco—and 7-4 start (best since 1976) overshadowed by five consecutive losses to end season ... signature victory by overcoming 23-0 third-quarter deficit to down San Francisco 24-23 on a touchdown pass from QB Neil Lomax to WR Roy Green with three seconds left ... a national "Monday Night Football" audience and capacity Sun Devil Stadium crowd witness the Cards' inaugural regular-season game in Arizona, a 17-14 Dallas victory ... Cards gain first home victory in new venue with 30-21 upset of defending Super Bowl champion Washington Sept. 25.

NOTES

After a 2-0 start and 5-5 mark after 10 games, Head Coach Gene Stallings resigns after 37-14 loss to L.A. Rams dips Cards' slate to 5-6 ... Cards lose next five games under interim head coach Hank Kuhlmann ... CB Neil Lomax forced to sidelines for entire season due to career-ending arthritic condition in left hip ... only four Cardinals start all 16 games as 21 players who started at least one game miss playing time ... Cards sweep first season series against Cowboys since 1970 with 19-10 win at Dallas and 24-20 victory in Arizona ... FB Ron Wolfley named to unprecedented fourth consecutive Pro Bowl for kamikaze-like play on special teams.

NOTES

Encouragement from 4-0 preseason record and 2-0 start to regular season quickly dissipates as Cards drop 12 of next 14 games to finish 4-12, the most losses in franchise history ... QB Tim Rosenbach suffers ruptured anterior cruciate ligament in right knee in non-contact drill during evening practice Aug. 21 and misses season after reconstructive surgery ... Cards gamble in first round of NFL Draft by selecting DT Eric Swann despite no college playing experience ... Little-known Southern University walk-on CB Aeneas Williams, picked in third round, starts 15 of 16 games and his six interceptions share NFL lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve the feat since the Cowboys' Eversen Walls (11) in 1991 ... LB Eric Hill returns a fumble 65 yards for a touchdown in season-opener at L.A. Rams Sept. 1, one of a team-record five Card fumble recoveries.

NOTES

Despite considerable improvement on both offense and defense, Cards lose six games by six points or less to post a second consecutive 4-12 season ... defense allows fewest rushing yards (1,635) in 24 seasons (1,558, 1968) and fewest points (332) since 1978 (296) ... CB Robert Massey becomes 17th player in NFL history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in one game (31 and 41 yards in fourth quarter Oct. 4 vs. Washington) ... Pro Bowl P Rich Camarillo narrowly misses becoming the first player in NFL history to achieve a 40-yard net punting average with a 39.6-yard net mark.

NOTES

A 5-3 record and three consecutive victories to finish season 7-9 are not enough to save Head Coach Joe Bugel's job ... rushing offense improves from 26th (1992) to sixth overall and scoring jumps from 24th to fourth ... defensively, six opponents held to 10 points or less, a Cardinal first since 1936 ... first-round draft pick RB Garrison Hearst suffers season-ending knee injury in sixth game ... Pittsburgh (Kan.) State rookie RB Ronald Moore rushes for 1,018 yards and leads all NFL rookies with nine touchdowns ... Moore becomes only fifth rookie in NFL history to tally four rushing touchdowns in one game (vs. L.A. Rams, Dec. 5) ... franchise-record crowd of 73,025 sees Cards lose 17-10 to Dallas on Sept. 19 ... Cards snap 14-game losing streak at R.F.K. Stadium with a 17-10 victory Sept. 12, their first success at Washington since 1978.

NOTES

Cards lose seven of final eight games to drop to 4-12, costing Head Coach Buddy Ryan his job ... defense ranks last against the run and in scoring defense despite league highs of 42 takeaways and 23 fumble recoveries ... Arizona's offense leads NFL with 43 turnovers (24 interceptions, 19 lost fumbles) ... low light of season at expansion Carolina Nov. 19 as Cards gain just 96 total yards, their lowest output in 40 years ... FB Larry Centers earns first Pro Bowl honor as first running back in league history to eclipse 100-pass reception plateau with 101 catches, a franchise record ... Garrison Hearst owns dubious distinction of becoming first running back in NFL history to score only one rushing touchdown during a 1,000-yard (1,070) season.

NOTES

First postseason appearance since 1982, ending the NFL's longest playoff drought at 15 years ... first postseason berth in a non-strike season since 1975, first postseason victory since 1947, and first winning season and first 10-win campaign since 1984 ... eight NFL victories most since 1976 ... NFL record seven victories by three points or less, winning four on game-ending field goals ... seven of nine victories by 18 combined points earns "Wild Cards" nickname ... 45-point outburst at Washington Nov. 22 the Cards' best scoring output in 21 years ... seven of nine victories are QB Jacke Plummer-led comebacks ... Plummer's three rushing touchdowns at Washington Nov. 22 the most by an NFL quarterback since the Saints' Archie Manning in 1977 ... RB Adrian Murrell becomes sixth player in NFL history to rush for over 1,000 yards for different teams in consecutive seasons ... WR Frank Sanders leads NFC (NFL runner-up) with 89 receptions ... FB Larry Centers becomes the Cardinals' career receiving leader ... eight defensive takeaways Oct. 11 vs. Chicago tie Seattle for NFL season best ... final three games provide largest viewing audiences in the history of three Phoenix television stations—the CBS, ABC, and FOX affiliates, respectively.

NOTES

RB Mario Bates' nine rushing touchdowns a team best since 1993 ... K Chris Jacke's 31-yard game-winning field goal in season-opener at Philadelphia makes him the first NFL kicker to win four consecutive regular-season games with walk-off three-pointers ... Mac Cody's 11.7-yard punt-return average leads NFC ... WR Frank Sanders' 13 receptions in finale at Green Bay most by a Card since 1962 ... RB Michael Pittman logs 133 rushing yards against Detroit in first career start ... MLB Ronald McKinnon becomes first Cardinal to crack 200-lacks plateau (223 total stops) ... OLB Rob Fredrickson sets franchise modern-day record with 22 total tackles vs. N.Y. Jets and becomes first Card linebacker to return an interception for a touchdown since 1987.

NOTES

Cards join NFL Western Division after 32 seasons in the NFC East ... first 3-2 start since 1991, first 4-2 getaway since 1988 precede injury siege ... 95 starter and replacement starter games lost to injury, most on offense ... 41 players start games ... Freddie Jones first tight end to lead team in receptions since 1973 ... RB Marcel Shipp rushing leader (834 yards) in only six starts plus 80-yard touchdown reception at St. Louis. Cards' longest play from scrimmage since 1989 ... MLB Ronald McKinnon leads Arizona in tackles for fourth consecutive season ... FS Adrian Wilson intercepts three passes against Dallas to share NFL single-game high ... Arizona beats Dallas 9-6 without a touchdown, a franchise first in 123 games ... the Cards' 49-0 loss at Kansas City the most one-sided setback in franchise history, their first shutout in 105 games, and the largest margin in the NFL since 1989 ... final political hurdles cleared to begin construction of new stadium in Glendale in west suburban Maricopa County ... S Pat Tillman declines new multi-year contract offer to join U.S. Army and enter Army Ranger training.

NOTES

Second-round draft choice Anquan Boldin becomes most prolific rookie receiver in NFL history with 101 receptions, while his 1,377 receiving yards most by NFL rookie in 43 years ... 217 receiving yards in season opener at Detroit most by player in first NFL game ... Emmitt Smith, the NFL's all-time rushing leader, signs two-year contract with Cardinals but a shoulder injury limits him to just six starting roles ... Super Bowl MVP Dexter Jackson bared from Tampa Bay as free agent and leads team with six interceptions ... Cards forge 4-4 mark at home, but 0-8 road record results in 4-12 finish and dismissal of third-year Head Coach Dave McGinnis ... Josh McCown handed quarterback duties late in season and guides Arizona to 18-17 victory in season finale vs. Minnesota with 28-yard touchdown pass to Nate Poole, knocking Vikings out of playoffs ... construction begins on new stadium in Glendale in west suburban Maricopa County.

NOTES

Team's first season under head coach Dennis Green was one of transition but also promise and opportunity... team entered week 16 of the regular season with a playoff berth and division title in reach before a three-point road loss at Seattle ended postseason hopes... Cardinals won two games by 24 points (something that they'd not done in over a decade) and also finished 5-3 at home for the first time since last playoff season of 1998... strategic but aggressive approach to free agency yielded several new starters, most notably DE Bertrand Berry who would prove to become the best free agent pick-up in team history by leading the NFC in sacks (14.5) and earning his first career Pro Bowl berth... an outstanding '04 draft class produced four full-time starters in WR Larry Fitzgerald, LB Karlos Dansby, DT Darnell Dockett and C Alex Stephanovich... defense improved its overall rank from 26th at the end of '03 to 12th and didn't allow a touchdown in three games while allowing just one TD in three others... the offense was bitten early by injuries as RB Marcel Shipp suffered a broken leg in training camp that ended his season and all-pro WR Anquan Boldin suffered a training camp knee injury that caused him to miss the regular season's first six games... in his second season in Arizona, Emmitt Smith led the team with 937 rushing yards and 9 rushing TDs... the offense struggled to find consistency and that led to numerous lineup changes throughout the year including three different starting QBs... S Pat Tillman, who left the Cardinals to join U.S. Army and enter Army Ranger training prior to 2002 season, is killed April 22 in Afghanistan.

NOTES

The team's second season under head coach Dennis Green was marked by close games (six losses by a TD or less) and plagued by injuries (NFL-high 15 players on injured reserve list). Neil Rackers set the NFL record with 40 field goals in the season en route to a Pro Bowl selection. WR Larry Fitzgerald set the club record for receptions in a season with 103 and also had a team-high 1,409 yards en route to his first Pro Bowl. Anquan Boldin also recorded 102 receptions and 1,402 yards. Boldin and Fitzgerald became the only second pair of teammates in NFL history to record 100+ receptions and 1,400+ yards in a season. In his first year as a Cardinal, Kurt Warner completed 242 of 375 passes to set the club mark for completion percentage with 64.5%. FS Adrian Wilson led the team with 8.0 sacks, the most ever by an NFL defensive back since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. Arizona finished with the league's 7th passing offense (first time in team history) and ranked 8th in both overall offense and defense (the only NFL team in the top 10 in both)...the team played in the NFL's first-ever regular season game outside of the U.S. and defeated the 49ers in Mexico City in front of an NFL record crowd of 103,467...2005 was the team's 18th and final season at Sun Devil Stadium.

NOTES

The Cardinals opened up University of Phoenix Stadium with a game against San Francisco on September 10, the team's first season opening contest at home since moving to Arizona in 1988 ... rookie QB Matt Leinart takes over the starting role in October and starts 11 games, setting the franchise record for passing yards by a rookie with 2,547 and becoming the first Cardinals quarterback since 2001 to have three games in a season with a 100+ quarterback rating ... Adrian Wilson selected to first Pro Bowl after scoring a pair of 99-yard TDs (fumble and interception) to become first player in NFL history with two defensive TDs of 99 yards ... Anquan Boldin selected to second Pro Bowl after recording third 1,000-yard season of four-year career, also becoming fastest NFL player to reach 330 career receptions at Oakland ... DE Chike Okefor has career high with 8.5 sacks, recording 7.5 of them in final seven games of season ... RB Edgerrin James becomes first RB to rush for over 1,000 yards since 1998 finishing with 1,159 yards on franchise record 337 carries ... team sets new season attendance record with 508,829 fans and sells out every home game including first MNF game since 1999.

NOTES

Under first year head coach Ken Whisenhunt, the Cardinals finished the season with an 8-8 record, their best finish since 1998 ... the team finished with a home record of 6-2, their best home record since they finished 6-1 in 1976 ... Kurt Warner took over as the starting QB in week six after Matt Leinart injured his shoulder and throws for 27 touchdowns, the second-highest passing TD total in team history ... Larry Fitzgerald earned his second Pro Bowl nod after leading the NFC in both receptions (100) and receiving yards (1,409) and he also tied the franchise record with TD receptions in five consecutive games ... Edgerlin James rushed for 1,222 yards in the season, joining Otis Anderson as the only Cardinal running backs to record a season with 1,200+ yards rushing while the two are also the only ones with back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons ... Anquan Boldin became the fastest receiver in NFL history to reach 400 receptions (doing so in his 67th career game) while also establishing a new career-high with nine touchdown receptions ... Andre Rolle's three interception returns for touchdowns in led the NFL and tied for the second-most in NFL history for a single game while his two interceptions returns in week 11 at Cincinnati tied the NFL record for a single game ... Darnell Dockett collected nine sacks on the year, tying the franchise record for sacks by a defensive tackle and led the NFL among interior defensive linemen ... for the second season in a row the team sold out every home game and set a new season attendance record with 516,646 fans attending a regular season game.

* - Sunday Night Game In Week 17 TBD

POSTSEASON (All games played in 2009)

Saturday, January 3	AFC and NFC Wild Card Playoffs (NBC)
Sunday, January 4	AFC and NFC Wild Card Playoffs (CBS and FOX)
Saturday, January 10	AFC and NFC Divisional Playoffs (CBS and FOX)
Sunday, January 11	AFC and NFC Divisional Playoffs (CBS and FOX)
Sunday, January 18	AFC and NFC Championship Games (CBS and FOX)
Sunday, February 1	Super Bowl XLIII in Tampa, Florida (NBC)
Sunday, February 8	AFC-NFC Pro Bowl in Honolulu, Hawaii (FOX)

FLEX SCHEDULING

In 2008 the NFL will play its third season under its flexible scheduling format, which provides the best match-ups to fans across the nation for the final seven Sunday night games on NBC.

Twelve days before each game – or as few as six days in Week 17 – the league will announce its Sunday night games. For the Cardinals, this means that every game after the November 10 Monday Night game vs. San Francisco (with the exception of the Thanksgiving Day game at Philadelphia) has the potential of being moved to an NBC Sunday night game.

Stay tuned to www.azcardinals.com for the latest updates regarding game time changes.

NFL POLICY FOR RETRACTABLE ROOFS

The National Football League's Policy for Retractable Domed Stadiums was developed by the NFL Competition Committee.

The policy dictates that the home team will decide the status of the roof (open or closed) 90 minutes before kickoff. If the game begins with the roof open, it will be closed only if 1) hazardous conditions develop or are anticipated; or 2) it begins to rain.

The roof will not be closed for rain any time after the five-minute mark of the fourth quarter (including overtime). The roof can be closed at any time to address hazardous situations and if the roof is closed, it will not be re-opened.

Below is the excerpt from the 2008 Policy Manual for Member Clubs, Vol. II detailing the league's policy for retractable roofs. At present, University of Phoenix Stadium, Reliant Stadium in Houston and Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis are the only three venues in the NFL with retractable roofs.

GENERAL POLICY

One and one-half hours prior to kickoff, the home team will have the authority to determine if the roof should be open or closed for the game. The home club may choose to open the roof for some games and not for others. In the event a game is started with the roof in the open position and it is closed pursuant to the procedures set forth below, or if the game starts with the roof in the closed position, the roof must thereafter remain in the closed position for the duration of the game.

PRE-GAME PROCEDURES

- 1) In the week prior to a game and on game day, to preserve and protect the field, the League's tarp rule will be in effect, if the roof is open.
- 2) No later than one and one-half hours prior to kickoff, the home club is required to notify the Referee or the highest-ranking League official working at the game whether the roof shall be open or closed. The opening or closing of the roof as designated by the home club should be completed no later than the time that the teams take the field for pre-game warm-ups. All overhead lighting must be on prior to team warm-ups and must remain on for the duration of the game.

- 3) If, subsequent to the home club's decision to have the roof in the open position for the game, a hazardous condition (lightning, severe winds, etc.) develops or is anticipated that threatens the welfare of participants and/or spectators, as determined by the Referee after receiving input from the Stadium Manager and the highest-ranking League official working at the game, the roof shall be closed immediately. If it begins to rain at any time after the club's decision to have the roof in the open position for the game, the roof shall be closed immediately, by signal of the Referee to the Stadium Manager.

IN-GAME PROCEDURES

- 4) If a game starts with the roof open, it shall be closed at any time due to the development or anticipation of a hazardous condition that threatens the welfare of participants and/or spectators. The game Referee, in consultation with the highest-ranking League official working at the game, after receiving input from the Stadium Manager, will decide if the roof should be closed. If the roof is closed pursuant to the above, it must remain closed for the duration of the game. Play may continue while the roof is being closed, subject to the Referee suspending play pursuant to the procedures for emergency situations.
- 5) If a game starts with the roof open, it shall be closed at any time up to the last five minutes of the fourth period if it begins to rain. The decision to close the roof will be made by the Referee, who will signal to the Stadium Manager or otherwise communicate to him or her to begin closing the roof. Play will continue while the roof is closing.
- 6) If the fourth period ends with the roof in the open position, no change will be made prior to or during an overtime period, unless the roof is closed pursuant to the procedures for hazardous conditions as set forth in No. 4 above.

CARDINALS CHARITIES

Founded in 1990, Cardinals Charities mission is to support programs designed to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children, women, and minorities in the state of Arizona.

Cardinals Charities' grants are awarded on an annual basis in response to applications from qualified non-profit organizations whose goals and programs meet the mission statement.

Educational opportunities are important as is shown by grants awarded to San Miguel High School in Tucson and a grant awarded to the Boys and Girls Club of Metropolitan Phoenix in support of its Education and Career Development Program.

Cardinals Charities also continued its involvement with a wide range of organizations focused on women's issues in Arizona. Cardinals Charities has supported programs for victims of domestic violence through grants awarded to the Sojourner Center, Chrysalis Shelter, the American Red Cross Grand Canyon Chapter, the Jewish Family and Children's Services in Maricopa County, BOTHANDS in Flagstaff and to The Brewster Center in Tucson.

Every effort is made to direct contributions where they can have the greatest impact while addressing the most critical needs.

Since its inception, Cardinals Charities has distributed more than $4 million to over 300 worthy Arizona charitable organizations on behalf of the Arizona Cardinals Football Club and the National Football League.

Just this past year, Cardinals Charities distributed more than $550,000 to 83 worthy Arizona charitable organizations.

General Guidelines for Beneficiaries

- Organizations must be exempt under 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Service code.
- At least 75 percent of funding must be spent in Arizona.
- Grant application will be limited to once each year; however, organizations may reapply each year.
- Proposals for $5,000 or less are preferred.

Application Process

Interested organizations must request an application in writing, either by FAX or mail, on their 501 (c) (3) letterhead. Deadline for submission of application is June 1. Grant notification will be made within 120 days following filing deadline.

Cardinals Charities hosts five signature annual events during the course of each year – the Kickoff Luncheon, Locker Room Breakfast, Celebrity Golf Classic, the Dinner and Auction, and the NFL Alumni Celebrity Golf Challenge.

Kickoff Luncheon

- Entering its 11th consecutive season.
- The Kickoff Luncheon is a chance for fans and business partners to enjoy lunch and meet the entire Cardinals team and coaching staff prior to the start of each season.
- In 2007, 650 attendees attended the luncheon on the field level at University of Phoenix Stadium helping to raise over $230,000 for Cardinals Charities.

Dinner and Auction

- Entering 15th consecutive season.
- The annual dinner and auction is held during the course of the season. Each year, participants are able to enjoy a themed dinner with the Cardinals players, coaches and staff while bidding on various memorabilia and travel packages.
- In 2007, 415 participants took part in the "Gridiron Chef" competition which featured three teams consisting of six Cardinals players and a Valley chef competing in a takeoff of the popular TV show "Iron Chef." The event, which was held at University of Phoenix Stadium, raised $180,000 for Cardinals Charities.

NFL Alumni Celebrity Golf Challenge

- Entering 4th consecutive season.
- A celebrity golf tournament partnering with the Arizona Chapter of NFL Alumni, the Challenge has fans and business partners playing with NFL alumni with the winning team entered in the Super Bowl of Golf each year.
- In its third year in 2007, the Challenge had 56 NFL alumni (Larry Wilson, Jim Hart, Lance Smith) pair up with 250 other golfers to raise $70,000 for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation (JDRF), the Cardinals Preparatory Academy, and the NFL Y.E.T. Academy.

Locker Room Breakfast

- Entering 5th consecutive season.
- An exclusive gathering inside the Cardinals locker room, the breakfast offers a peak at the upcoming season each year and allows fans to get an upclose look of where the Cardinals players prepare before home games.
- In 2008, the breakfast was once again held in the Cardinals locker room of University of Phoenix Stadium. More than 120 people were in attendance to listen to Head Coach Ken Whisenhunt and meet all of the Cardinals assistant coaches while raising more than $57,000 for Cardinals Charities.

Celebrity Golf Classic

- Entering 20th consecutive season.
- The longest running Cardinals Charities event, the Golf Classic is held each offseason with participants donating money for the opportunity to play with Cardinals players and coaches.
- Each year, participants play a round of golf with various celebrities and have the opportunity to win various luxury items while also bidding on memorabilia and travel packages through an auction.
- In 2008, over 315 attendees played golf with current and former Cardinals players and coaches at the Whirlwind Golf Club at Wild Horse Pass helping to raise $365,000 for Cardinals Charities.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

The 2007 season marked another successful year for the Arizona Cardinals Football Club and its various community-based activities.

Cardinals players, coaches, cheerleaders, mascot Big Red, and front office staff continued the organization's ongoing efforts of being a champion in the community. Throughout the 2007 season, 79 different players took part in 259 different community events and appearances that impacted approximately 70,000 adults and children throughout Arizona. The Cardinals also donated more than 40,000 pieces of merchandise and memorabilia throughout the past year. During the 2008 offseason, the Cardinals stayed busy by hosting 64 community events involving 30 different players that impacted over 24,000 children and adults.

The Cardinals three signature community programs during the season - the SRP and Safeway Milk and Cookies Program, Gatorade Jr. Training Camps and the NFL Flag Football program - all grew in popularity and attendance in 2007 and should continue to get bigger in 2008.

SRP/Safeway Milk and Cookies Program

- Entering its 7th consecutive season.
- Each Tuesday, a different Cardinals player along with team mascot Big Red reads to students at various Valley elementary schools and distributes book covers and milk and cookies provided by Safeway.
- 8 players visited 11 different schools and read to 600 students in 2007.

Gatorade Jr. Training Camps

- Entering 11th consecutive season. During the 2007 season, the Cardinals along with the Arizona Super Bowl Host Committee, put on kids clinics using Gatorade Training stations and interactive zones.

- Cardinals players and Big Red provide football instruction and guidance for students while hosting the kids camps at Valley elementary schools or at the Cardinals training facility in Tempe.
- 10 players participated in 29 Gatorade camps/Super Bowl Clinics impacting 22,000 students during the 2007 season.
- During the 2008 offseason, the Cardinals hosted 15 kids camps for over 1,500 children.

NFL Flag Football Program

- Entering 6th consecutive season and third sponsored by the University of Phoenix and Toyota.
- 5-on-5 non-contact flag football league for boys and girls to provide basic fundamentals of football throughout the state of Arizona and in Nevada.
- The program grew from 8,000 participants in 2004 to 12,400 in 2005 to now having over 15,000 players.
- For the third consecutive season, the Cardinals hosted a NFL Flag regional tournament at the team's training facility. In 2007, the tournament hosted over 450 athletes participating throughout the weekend.

The Cardinals also continued their involvement with Arizona high school football with the weekly "High School Coach-of-the-Week" award and Wells Fargo "High School Player-of-the-Week" award during the 2007 season. Both programs will be back for the 2008 season.

"High School Coach-of-the-Week"

- Starting its 14th consecutive season
- Every week during the high school football season, a panel selects a high school coach of the week, awards him with a certificate from Cardinals President William V. Bidwill and a $1,000 check to the coach's school on behalf of Cardinals Charities.
- In 2007, 10 coaches were selected and a total of $10,000 was awarded to Arizona high school football programs.
- A "Coach-of-the-Year" was selected following the 2007 high school season and George De La Torre from South Mountain H.S. was awarded an additional $2,000 for his school.

"High School Player-of-the-Week"

- Starting its 6th consecutive season and third sponsored by Wells Fargo.
- Every week during the high school football season, a panel selects a high school player of the week who receives a football plaque acknowledging the award at the Cardinals training facility following the team's practice.
- In 2007, 10 players were selected and each had the opportunity to attend a practice and meet players.
- A "Player-of-the-Year" was selected following the high school season and Tim Ruben from Gilbert HS was given a Cardinals jersey with his name on it and a football plaque engraved with his season stats.

The Cardinals also remained busy during the holidays giving back to those less fortunate. Along with hosting a game day toy drive that benefits Chicanos Por La Causa and game day canned food drive sponsored by Gila River that benefits St. Mary's Food Bank, two of the marquee programs that the Cardinals participate in each season during that time of year are the "Help Feed the Hungry" program and the "Teddy Bear Express."

Help Feed the Hungry

- Last year, Cardinals team President Michael Bidwill, five players and their families along with front office personnel, cheerleaders and Big Red helped serve Thanksgiving dinner at the Phoenix Rescue Mission for more than 100 people.
- The 2007 season marked the 6th consecutive year of working with the Rescue Mission during Thanksgiving.

Teddy Bear Express

- Each year, a Cardinals caravan with players, wives, front office personnel, Big Red and cheerleaders visit two different hospitals to deliver uniformed personalized teddy bears to children spending the holidays at the hospital.
- Last year 10 players visited Phoenix Children's Hospital and Gompers Habilitation Center and visited over 100 kids at both stops, passing out teddy bears while signing autographs, taking pictures and spreading holiday joy.

- The 2007 season was the 8th consecutive year of program.

The 2008 offseason once again allowed the Cardinals to focus on hosting bigger and more in-depth kids camps. In May, the Cardinals hosted the annual "Football Skills and Education Camp" presented by SRP, U.S. Army and Core Institute as well as the "Cardinals Kicking, Punting and Long Snapping Camp" presented by SRP and U.S. Army.

"Football Skills and Education Camp"

- 6th consecutive summertime camp
- Presented by SRP, U.S. Army and Core Institute
- 350 high school football players from Arizona had the opportunity to receive a full day of classroom and on-field instruction from professionals at the Cardinals facility.
- 15 current Cardinals players and eight NFL alumni helped coach and instruct 50 players for each individual position.

Arizona Cardinals Kicking Camp

- 3rd consecutive summertime camp
- Presented by SRP and U.S. Army
- 100 kickers, punters, and long-snappers from Arizona, Nevada, New Mexico and Utah had the opportunity to gain instruction from Director of Community Relations Luis Zendejas, punter Dirk Johnson, kicker Neil Rackers and long snapper Nathan Hodel.

In addition to being active throughout the community with various player appearances and events, the Cardinals also gave back to the people of Arizona with donations of merchandise and memorabilia.

Cardinals Donations

- The Cardinals donated 20,000 items of signed merchandise (signed footballs, jerseys and hats) to non-profit organizations in 2007.
- Finally, during a sold out season at University of Phoenix Stadium last year, 4,000 game tickets were distributed to worthwhile organizations.

Community service is never out of season for the Cardinals. For more information on the community programs, contact Luis Zendejas (602/379-0101).

ABOUT UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

From the outset, Cardinals owner Bill Bidwell along with son and team President Michael embarked upon the task of building a new stadium for the team with a very clear focus. They were intent on constructing a bold and innovative venue that would set the industry standard for design excellence and provide the ultimate in fan comfort. The result of those efforts is the $450 million University of Phoenix Stadium that opened in August of 2006 on a 165-acre site in Glendale, just west of Phoenix. In addition to hosting Cardinals games, it was the site of Super Bowl XLII last February between the Giants and Patriots. It also hosts the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl annually and the Championship Series title game on a rotating basis.

ARCHITECTURE: World-renowned architect Peter Eisenman, in partnership with HOK Sport and Hunt Construction Group, created a state-of-the-art design that has already become a distinctive Arizona landmark. The stadium's exterior skin takes its design cue from the barrel cactus and features alternating sections of shimmering metal panels intended to reflect the shifting desert light alongside magnificent vertical glass slots allowing fans a spectacular view of the horizon from any level of the interior.

RETRACTABLE FIELD: University of Phoenix Stadium also features a unique rollout natural grass playing field, contained in a single tray weighing 18.9 million-pounds (234 feet wide, 403 feet long). The first completely retractable field in the United States, it is positioned inside the stadium on game days to offer the preferred natural-grass playing surface for football and outside the stadium for the remaining 350+ days of the year to receive sunlight and watering. The field tray is powered by electric motors mounted on steel wheels riding on tracks embedded in the concrete floor and will take approximately 60 minutes to move completely. The flexibility of this unique design allows University of Phoenix Stadium to serve as a true multi-purpose venue featuring a 160,000 square-foot event floor for other prominent events such as NCAA basketball tournaments, trade and consumer shows, conventions, concerts, motor sports, and rodeos.

RETRACTABLE ROOF: Atop the stadium roof are two large retractable panels that open and close on an arc. The panels and much of the roof are made of a translucent fabric called Birdair that enables light to penetrate and gives the venue an open, airy feel. When closed it also allows for an air conditioned environment during the hot months but the roof can be opened during cooler times of the year to take advantage of Arizona's patented sunshine. The roof takes about 10 minutes to open or close.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY: Thanks to a successful partnership between the Cardinals, Tempe, AZ-based Insight and Cisco Systems the stadium boasts a variety of head-turning technology and innovations that are changing the way fans experience the game. An advanced Internet Protocol (IP) network from Cisco handles all data, voice and video communication traffic pulsing through the stadium, which 1) enables every fan in the stadium to enjoy fantasy football and surf the Internet from their wireless-enabled devices such as PDAs. 2) supports cell phone service for every seat in the house and enables fans to watch instant replay on the stadium's 70 jumbo plasma screens. 3) during a game allows fans in the stadium's luxury lofts to access statistics, scores, and monitor fantasy football activity using Cisco IP phones with touch-screen displays. These fans also can use the phone's color touch-screen to order food and beverages, buy tickets for future games, and shop at the Cardinals' online store. All of the technological elements maximize and enhance the experience of fans, players, management, vendors, ticket takers and virtually everyone who has business at the stadium and the converged IP network is the most advanced communications system in the league, if not in all of sports.

MULTI-PURPOSE: Because of the truly unique multi-purpose nature of the facility, University of Phoenix Stadium is able to host far more than just Cardinals home games. Since opening in August of 2006, the building has hosted the Rolling Stones, high school proms, the first-ever BCS national championship game (Florida-Ohio State), monster truck shows, Fiesta Bowls, international soccer matches, high school football championships, trade shows and conventions, and numerous other events. In a given year, Global Spectrum (the buildings operator) successfully books 225+ event days for gatherings large, small and in between. On February 3, 2008 it hosted the most-watched event in American TV history when the Giants upset the Patriots in Super Bowl XLII.

OTHER FEATURES: In addition to its high-design architecture and innovative design, the stadium also sets new standards for stadium comfort. Its layout provides for excellent site lines, comfortable seats, abundant restrooms and concession stands, spacious end-zone viewing decks, and wide concourses with an open design allowing for an unobstructed view of the field from both the lower and upper concourses. The stadium showcases two state-of-the-art videoboard/scoreboard displays prominently located in the end zones with excellent site lines from all seating areas. It is also aligned along a slight northwest to southeast axis to offer the maximum sun exposure for the grass field and maximum shade for stadium patrons. The stadium's seating capacity is approximately 65,000 for Cardinals games and is expandable to over 73,000 for megaevents like the Super Bowl and Fiesta Bowl. University of Phoenix Stadium includes 88 luxury lofts - know elsewhere as "suites" - that are unlike any others in the sports industry. Featuring a bold, modern interior design, loft amenities include preferred parking, an exclusive entrance, private restrooms, multiple televisions, and in-loft catering. In addition to the lofts, a luxurious Club Level features wider seats, preferred parking, private entrances, and a climate controlled Club Lounge with multiple two-story spaces, comfortable lounge seating, plentiful TV monitors, upgraded food and beverage offerings and dedicated restrooms. On-site parking accommodates 14,000 cars as part of an innovative site plan designed to create a truly unique tailgating experience for fans. This 160-acre region, known as Sportsman's Park, features over 20 acres of turf including the eight-acre public area known as the Great Lawn. In addition to the 14,000 on-site spaces, parking for an additional 7,500 vehicles is conveniently located on adjacent parcels and another 3,500 on other nearby parcels. University of Phoenix Stadium is owned by the Arizona Sports and Tourism Authority and operated by Global Spectrum.

AWARDS, HONORS & RECOGNITION

Even before opening, the venue received worldwide acclaim for its design excellence, architectural impressiveness, and technological innovation. In February of 2005, Business Week listed the world's 10 most impressive sports facilities in the world and the venue was the only US facility on their list.

In 2007 alone, University of Phoenix Stadium has received a host of other industry awards and honors including:

- Named NFL's top venue in reader poll of Street & Smith's Sportsbusiness Journal.
- Selected as NFL's best playing surface in Sporting News survey of the league's players.
- Named one of the seven wonders of Arizona by The Arizona Republic in 2007.
- Named the #1 meeting venue in 2007 by the Phoenix Business Journal
- In June of 2007 received the IDEAS2 (Innovative Design and Excellence in Architecture with Structural Steel) award from The American Institute of Steel Construction (AISC).
- In June of 2007, architect Peter Eisenman was awarded "innovator" status by Popular Mechanics magazine for his work on the stadium.
- Also in 2007, stadium partner Walter P. Moore received an Award of Merit from the National Council of Structural Engineering (NCSEA).
- In 2007, the Institute of Structural Engineers bestowed commendation of University of Phoenix Stadium in its Award for Sports Structures Category.
- Event Solutions Magazine awarded its 2007 Spotlight Award in the category Event Site of the Year Award to University of Phoenix Stadium.

University of Phoenix Stadium has also received widespread publicity in places you may not expect it: a cover story in The New York Times Arts & Leisure section, a separate piece in The Times Sunday Magazine, placement in Popular Mechanics, not to mention the international publicity its high design architecture has received in places like Germany, Denmark, Japan, and Brazil. From article to article, country to country, it is exceedingly clear that something truly special exists in the Valley of the Sun.

STADIUM IS TOPS AGAIN

In 2007 Street & Smith's Sportsbusiness Journal and Sports Business Daily presented the results from their third annual SBJ/SBD Readers Survey on the state of the sports industry and for the second straight year, University of Phoenix Stadium was named the

WORLD-CLASS DESIGN DISTINGUISHES UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM FROM ALL OTHERS

Since its inception, the goal for University of Phoenix Stadium was to set a new design standard for all sports facilities. Back in 1997, it was decided to explore the possibility of retaining an internationally-known high-design architect for the project. With the assistance of Michael Rushman, an expert in land use planning and real estate development who has been involved in many complex design projects, the team met with John Meunier, then Dean of ASU's College of Architecture and Environmental Design. Meunier helped prepare a list of more than a dozen candidates from around the world. Preliminary interviews uncovered one among that number who has been a life-long, passionate football fan and is considered one of the most influential architects of the 20th century – Peter Eisenman. In order to test their belief that such a choice would result in a precedent-setting design, the team convened a 90-day design exercise involving two teams – one being a traditional sports architecture firm and the other a pairing of Eisenman with a second traditional sports architecture firm. When the conceptual designs were presented at the end of the exercise, it was clear that the team's faith in the potential of design had been rewarded. Eisenman's proposal was stunning – unlike anything already on the landscape.

The years that followed presented many challenges as the team worked to line up financing, shepherd necessary state legislation, and secure a site. All the while, Eisenman Architects continued to work on all aspects of the project – including site selection and, of course, the design of the building itself. The building design evolved as the program for the project evolved. To further assist with the design the team also retained the services of HOK Sport, the renowned sports architecture firm that has designed more NFL stadiums than any other. When the Glendale location was ultimately selected, the Cardinals again demonstrated their commitment to delivering a unique and world-class project when they directed Mr. Eisenman to start from scratch and come up with a new exterior design for the structure that would reflect the specific site conditions encountered in Glendale. Eisenman's final pass resulted in the scintillating silver metallic skin that envelopes the entire facility in a series of gentle curves. Even at the early stages of completion, motorists traveling the 101 freeway began to witness the building's promise. The Cardinals were insistent on taking their commitment to excellent design beyond simply the building architecture and to the actual fan experience. To this end they have been working with Urban Earth Design, CMX Engineering and Eisenman Architects to develop a site plan that will do far more than simply provide a place for 14,000 vehicles to park. This plan complements the building's architecture and provides a raft of amenities for fans attending events at the facility as well as those who will live, work and shop in the nearby area. To complete these efforts with respect to both the building and site, the Cardinals retained Pentagram – one of the world's leading graphic design firms for the past quarter century. Michael Gericke, Jim Biber and their talented team of designers are working on a package of environmental graphic design, wayfinding, and interior design features that will complement the building's architecture and provide that festival atmosphere that is so much a part of events like Cardinals home games, the Fiesta Bowl and Super Bowl. By making their priorities clear from the outset and then by acting decisively and consistently the Cardinals assembled an unparalleled team of designers who delivered a project unlike anything seen before among U.S. sports venues. Michael Bidwill, who served as the organization's point person on the project, and his father, Bill, took every step possible to ensure that the venue is not only a state-of-the-art facility for the Cardinals and their fans but a significant and enduring contribution to the ever-evolving urban landscape of the Valley of the Sun.

SPORTSMAN'S PARK

The area that surrounds and encompasses University of Phoenix Stadium is known as Sportsman's Park. The 160-acre region includes car parks, grass areas and other open space available to the public. "We wanted to extend the fan experience and standard of design excellence from the stadium to the site and provide an unparalleled site environment to enhance the pre and post game experience for our fans," offered Cardinals President Michael Bidwill. "We also needed to give this special place a name. We chose 'Sportsman's Park' which connotes the significance of the football stadium and the unique park-like setting of the site." Sportsman's Park features over 20 acres of turf, including an eight-acre public area called the Great Lawn, as well as on-site car parks which will handle over 14,000 vehicles, and an abundance of trees and other landscape appointments native to the area. The Cardinals teamed up with award winning landscape architect Michael Dollin of Urban Earth Design to create a design aimed to generate the ultimate fan experience.

Great Lawn

A tree-lined expanse of grass covering eight acres, the Great Lawn extends west from 95th Avenue to the Loop 101. The lawn stretches over 1,000 feet and is designed for use by fans while tailgating at games or to use during other activities outside the stadium. Surrounding the Great Lawn is a 50-foot wide promenade. In addition to the uninterrupted expanse of grass, the Great Lawn includes areas for vendors and musicians.

SUPER BOWL XLII THE MOST WATCHED EVENT IN TELEVISION HISTORY

The first-ever Super Bowl at University of Phoenix Stadium – last February's thriller between the Giants and Patriots – recorded the largest audience in television history, with 148.3 million people tuning in nation-wide. It drew nearly four million more viewers than Super Bowl XXXVIII between New England and Carolina in 2004.

Super Bowls dominate the list of the most watched programs in U.S. history, holding 19 of the top 20 spots. The only non-Super Bowl on the top 20 list was the 1983 M*A*S*H* finale that holds the 18th spot.

Super Bowl XLII was not just a hit in the U.S. either, with rating jumps of 51% in the United Kingdom where the BBC aired the game, a 63% jump in market share in France, 24% jump in Canada and nine percent increase in Mexico.

PAT TILLMAN MEMORIAL

The plaza surrounding University of Phoenix Stadium is known as the Pat Tillman Freedom Plaza, in honor of the former Cardinals safety who was killed in action on April 22, 2004 while serving his country as a member of the elite Army Ranger unit. Fans attending home games can visit the Pat Tillman Memorial located at the northwest side of the plaza. The memorial includes a large white bronze sculpture of Tillman on the eastern side and a circular reflection pond on its western side. The sculpture is approximately eight-feet tall, weighs over 500 pounds, and took nearly nine months to complete. After an extensive search, the Cardinals selected artists Omri Amrany and Gary Tillery to create the sculpture. The sculptors consulted with the team and Pat's wife, Marie, who worked to select the image of Tillman that would best convey his character and spirit. Serving as a backdrop to the sculpture is a nine-foot tall curved wall made of black concrete that measures 42 feet across, symbolic of Tillman's jersey number at Arizona State. The brimming pool of water on the western side consists of a large 60-foot circular pond made of black concrete and stainless steel. Intended to create a pool of tranquility, it has a surface area of 2,300 square feet. To the west of the memorial is a grove of 40 Oak trees that symbolizes the jersey number Tillman wore as an Arizona Cardinal and the entire area is surrounded by a grove of Ash and Oak trees.

UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX SECURES NAMING RIGHTS

On September 26, 2006 the Cardinals and University of Phoenix announced an exclusive, multi-year agreement with University of Phoenix to become the team's naming rights partner. It marked the first time a National Football League venue was named after an educational institution. University of Phoenix, the largest private university in the United States, agreed to invest an average of $7.7 million per year for 20 years in exchange for naming rights, signage and a variety of advertising, marketing and merchandising opportunities. In addition, the alliance enables the University - already international in scope - to reach an even greater number and diversity of potential students, while staying grounded in its hometown community.

University of Phoenix was founded 30 years ago, and serves students both on-line and with 191 campuses and learning centers in 39 states and four foreign nations.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING

Cardinals On The Radio

In June of 2007, the Cardinals and Bonneville/KTAR renewed their three year contract, ensuring that fans will again be able to hear the team's radio programming on Sports 620 KTAR through 2010. Cardinals games will be simulcast on Sports 620 KTAR (AM) and News Talk 92.3 KTAR (FM). Sports 620 KTAR will also air pre-game and postgame programming for every contest as well as non game day programming that includes the Big Red Rage with Bertrand Berry. If there is a scheduling conflict with the Suns or Diamondbacks, all of the Cardinals game day programming will air on News Radio 92.3 KTAR while the baseball or basketball game will be carried on Sports 620 KTAR.

Calling the play-by-play for his seventh straight season with the Cardinals will be Dave Pasch. He joined the Cardinals in 2002 after three seasons as the football and basketball voice of Syracuse University. In addition to Cardinals broadcasts, Pasch can be seen on ESPN calling college football and basketball as well as NBA, Arena Football, and WNBA action.

Dave Pasch

Ron Wolfley

Joining Pasch for his fourth year as the radio analyst will be Ron Wolfley, a four-time Pro Bowl selection and special teams standout with the Cardinals, who selected him in the fourth round of the 1985 draft. One-half of the "Doug and Wolf Show" on Sports 620 KTAR, the Buffalo, NY native played collegiately at West Virginia before enjoying a 10-year NFL career with the Cardinals (1985-91), Browns (1992-93) and Rams (1995).

Sports 620 KTAR Radio personality and Cardinals Reporter Paul Calvisi will return to offer sideline commentary on the game broadcasts.

Spanish Radio

In 2000, the Cardinals became the first professional team in Arizona to offer all games – pre-season and regular season, home and away – on Spanish radio. For the third season, those broadcasts can be heard on 710 ESPN Deportes Radio in Phoenix.

The broadcast team of Gabriel Trujillo (play-by-play), Luis Zendejas (analyst), and former Cardinals offensive lineman Rolando Cantu (analyst) will be back again in 2008. A former kicker at Arizona State, Zendejas played three seasons in the NFL (1987-89) with the Cowboys and Eagles. In addition to his radio work with the Cardinals, Zendejas also serves as the team's Senior Director of Community Relations.

Gabriel Trujillo

Luis Zendejas

Rolando Cantu

Cantu played with the Cardinals for two seasons (2005-06), and during the 2005 season, he became the first Mexican born non-kicker to ever take the field in an NFL regular season game. In addition to his broadcast duties, Cantu is also the team's Manager of International Business Ventures.

New in 2008 will be a one hour Spanish language pre-game show, hosted by Trujillo, Zendejas, and Cantu.

Game-Day Radio Programming

There will be three hours of pre-game radio programming for Cardinals games in 2008. A one hour program called "The KIA NFL Kickoff Show" will precede the two-hour "Arizona Cardinals Pre Game Huddle". The show will be hosted by former NFL center Bill Lewis and Darren Urban of azcardinals.com. Lewis played with the Raiders (1986-88), Cardinals (1990-92) and Patriots (1993) and currently serves as the Cardinals Manager of Alumni Relations.

The "Pre Game Huddle" is hosted by Paul Calvisi

Weekday Programming

Returning to the airwaves every week during the season is the "Big Red Rage with Bertrand Berry," featuring Paul Calvisi, Ron Wolfley, Cardinals defensive end Bertrand Berry, and with analysis provided by former Cardinals Pro Bowl wide receiver Rob Moore and former Cardinals linebacker Rob Fredrickson. The group will also be joined by Coach Hank Kuhlmann, who tutored running backs, tight ends, and special teams in his 11 seasons with the Cardinals. Kuhlmann boasts 39 years of coaching experience at the college and professional levels.

"Cardinal Talk," a post-game call-in show hosted by Lewis, can be heard immediately following each contest on Sports 620 KTAR. Cardinal Talk allows fans to give their opinion on each game and hear expert analysis from Moore, Fredrickson, and Kuhlmann.

Cardinals On Television

Fans will once again be able to catch Cardinals television programming on ABC 15 (KNXV-TV) and FSN Arizona. ABC 15 will carry the live preseason broadcasts, and FSN Arizona will show replays of those contests (check local listings for times).

New in 2008 is the preseason television broadcast team of Mike Goldberg and Bill Lewis. For the past five years, Goldberg has served as host of Fox Sports Net's College Football Saturday as well as many special guests. The show highlights the latest news surrounding the Arizona Cardinals and the NFL. Check www.azcardinals.com for show times and location.

ACC Sunday Night Hoops. Since 1997, Goldberg has served as the play-by-play announcer of the Ultimate Fighting Championship and hosts. "UFC Unleashed" on Spike TV.

Fans should also tune to ABC 15, AZTV, and FSN Arizona throughout the regular season to watch Maximum Cardinals, presented by Alltel Wireless, a 30-minute magazine style show hosted by FSN's Jody Jackson.

TRAINING FACILITY

While the Cardinals home games moved from the East Valley to the West Valley in 2006, the team continues to train and maintain its corporate headquarters at the South Tempe facility that opened in 1990.

Covering 14.7 acres of land that was formerly a cotton field, the Cardinals' facility opened in September of 1990. The 94,000 square-foot state-of-the-art facility sports desert building materials, and three and one-half acres of Southwestern (Sonoran) desert landscaping.

Possessing many characteristics that distinguish it as both a football facility and an Arizona landmark, the showcase complex has won numerous architectural and landscape awards. In the spring of 1996, it also served as a location for the filming of "Jerry Maguire" starring Tom Cruise.

The facility incorporates local materials such as copper, desert brick, and clay tile, complemented by desert landscaping which integrate into the natural surroundings.

Environmentally sensitive, it utilizes passive solar energy to light offices and corridors while employing masonry and shadow to eliminate heat.

The interior joins many important concepts. Specificity of design is reflected in the workout areas on the first level where a number of planned activities can occur simultaneously.

Facilities are situated along a logical traffic pattern to accommodate a progressive flow of activities.

The first floor consists of player facilities that include the training area, an auditorium, locker room, hydrotherapy (15-player in-floor jacuzzi and cold plunge) and spa rooms, indoor/outdoor weight-training room, offensive and defensive meeting rooms, and film/videotape rooms. They open to three playing fields - one of which is lighted - on nearly five acres of land.

The second and third floors comprise the administration and operations areas that include the coaching staff's offices. On the second and third floors, natural lighting and breezeways combine with advanced communications technology to create the most flexible office space possible.

The main building is flanked by a two-story attached building that includes a public area, the ticket office, and the media relations department.

Tifway 419 sod, the same hybrid used for golf course putting greens and the University of Phoenix Stadium playing surface, covers seven and one-half acres on the east side of the building and includes three laser-leveled side-by-side practice fields. Underneath lies a complex lateral piping, sub-drainage system constructed with drainage tiles that accommodate as much as three inches of rain water that can be drained from all three fields, making them playable within three hours.

The Cardinals' training facility in south Tempe has housed the franchise's day-to-day operations since 1990.

TRAINING CAMP

The Cardinals annually trek 150 miles north of Phoenix to the cool climate of Flagstaff, Arizona, Northern Arizona's largest city located at one of America's highest city elevations. The excellent facilities of Northern Arizona University (N.A.U.) provide the team's pre-season training camp home.

While Phoenix temperatures range somewhere between hot and hotter in late July and August, the Cardinals benefit from Flagstaff's 7,200-foot altitude that consistently produces daytime temperatures in the upper 70s and low 80s. On average, summer temperatures in Flagstaff reach 90 degrees only three days per year.

Flagstaff is situated in the Coconino National Forest, the largest continuous stand of ponderosa pines in the world. It also serves as the county

Flagstaff's name is derived from a tall pine tree made into a flagpole in 1876 to celebrate the Declaration of Independence Centennial.

The picturesque N.A.U. campus arguably provides the National Football League's most scenic training-camp venue. The Cardinals' three practice fields literally were carved from pine trees with the San Francisco Peaks, the highest points in Arizona at 12,633 feet, serving as an unrivaled backdrop and a photographer's delight.

N.A.U.'s 15,000-seat Walkup Skydome also offers the Cardinals flexibility if the occasional summertime afternoon showers interfere with practice schedules.

2008 TRAINING CAMP SCHEDULE

The Arizona Cardinals Football Club will report to N.A.U. the night of Wednesday, July 23 and begin practice on Friday, July 25. The Cardinals will break camp on Thursday, August 21.

In all, the team will conduct a total of 30 practices during their four-week stay in Flagstaff.

On Saturday, August 2 the Cardinals will host a special "Red & White" outdoor practice from 11:15 AM until 1:35 PM. The practice will be preceded by a full-team autograph session and conclude with a live goal-line session.

Once again, the Cardinals will have a pair of Wednesday night practices that will be held on July 30 and August 13 from 7:05-9:15 PM at Lumberjack Stadium on N.A.U.'s campus.
